TIMBER COUNTRY BACK ON WORK TAB

Timber Country (Woodman) breezed a half-mile in :47 3/5 at Monmouth Park yesterday morning, galloping out five furlongs in 1:00, but his connections declined to speculate where the Preakness winner would make his next start. "The big horse worked beautiful," said Dallas Stewart, assistant to trainer D. Wayne Lukas. "I've never seen him work that good before. He went in :47 3/5 and the track wasn't that fast this morning. I think we may have a nice fall with him. We'll just get him ready and when he's ready, that's when we'll run him. We're going to wait on him to tell us he's ready." Stewart said that Serena's Song (Rahy), who will become the first female starter in the Haskell since 1971, will work this morning for the July 30 GI event.

FABRE DUBIOUS ABOUT PENNEKAMP'S

RETURN Pennekamp (Bering {GB}), idle since sustaining an injury in the Epsom Derby, now looks unlikely to make it back to the races. Trainer Andre Fabre admitted this weekend that he was "dubious" about the three-year-old's future at the track. Pennekamp was rated second among European juveniles last season after winning the Dewhurst S. at Newmarket; he returned to that course this May to defeat Celtic Swing (GB) (Damister) in a stirring battle for the 2000 Guineas. The colt started 11-8 favourite for the Derby but suffered a hairline fracture to his right front fetlock joint and could manage no better than 11th of 15 behind Lammtarra. "Pennekamp is resting and Sheikh Mohammed has still to make a decision whether to bring him back or retire him to stud," said Fabre.

Heavenly Prize, a modest 1 1/4-length winner of the GI Hempstead H. at Belmont Park last time she ran, was a great deal more assertive this time. Content to sit in fourth through the opening fractions, the Eclipse winner flew by the field on the far turn and drew away at will to post an eye-catching 11-length score. "I told Pat (Day) in the paddock that she was training better going into this race and that she should respond better than she did at Belmont," said trainer Shug McGaughey. "I was awfully impressed with her race today." The filly will make her next start in either the John A. Morris H. at Saratoga or the grassy Beverly D. at Arlington.

Thunder Gulch sat just off the pace of TO BE KHALED (Libanon), was sent after the lead on the turn, challenged Da Hoss at the top of the stretch and pulled clear late. "The nice thing," said trainer D. Wayne Lukas, "is that he's starting to move away from horses and getting a lot more professional. He's coming off a six-week layoff and this is going to move him forward." Lukas said his next start would probably be the 10-furlong Travers August 19 at Saratoga, adding "it's a pivotal race in a horse's career." Gary Stevens, who took back-to-back graded stakes at Hollywood, said the horse was never fully extended. Said Stevens, "It's like he looks up to me after we pull up and says, 'what are you worried about jock? I'll take care of it.'" Da Hoss, unraced since winning the Jersey Derby in May, collapsed from heat stress after being unsaddled. He was vanned to the stable area, where he was pronounced in good condition.

VANITY H.-GI, $300,000, HOL, 7-23, 3yo/up, f/m, 9f, 1:48.10, ft.

1--@PRIVATE PERSUASION, 114, f, 4, Pirate's

O-Jacobs & Wygod; B-Martin & Pam Wygod (Ca);

2--Top Rung, 116, f, 4, Seattle Slew--Feature Price, by Quack. O/B-Glen Hill Farm (Fla). $60,000.

3--Wandesta (GB), 119, f, 4, Nashwan--De Stael, by Nijinsky II. O/B-Juddmonte Farms (GB). $45,000.

Margins: 3, 2 3/4, 4 1/2. Odds: 9.70, 3.10, 2.00.

Also Ran: Real Connection, Paseana (Arg), Jackpot Jenny, Melrose Wine.

Off slowly and rushed to the lead in her GI debut when third in the Milady last out, Private Persuasion came away cleanly here, quickly opening up daylight and winning under a strong hand ride while only being shown the whip. "She's a free-running mare," said Gary Stevens. "I let her be happy and she put herself on the lead. Midway down the backside, she just got into the running zone. Her ears were flopping back and forth. I loved my chances from that point on." The 6-5 favorite, PASAENA (Arg) (Ahmad {Arg}), ran an even fifth. "She stalked the leaders very comfortably, but she just didn't have a kick to go on," said rider Chris McCarron. Trainer Ron McAnally said there was no immediate decision on the mare's future.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a + will denote winners who are first-time starters and a (R) will be used for races restricted to state-breds.

BALANCHINE TO ARC Balanchine (Storm Bird), withdrawn from Saturday's King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. because of the firm ground at Ascot, will now be prepared for the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe in October. Last season's European champion three-year-old was disappointing in her reappearance in Royal Ascot's Prince of Wales's S., but Simon Crisford, racing manager to her Godolphin owners, has scotched rumours that Balanchine is to be retired. "She goes for the Arc and runs in the Prix Foy beforehand," said Crisford yesterday. Meanwhile, Broadway Flyer (Theatrical {Ire}), who led Saturday's King George field into the straight but faded to finish fifth, will take a break before racing again and will be pointed to either the Irish St. Leger or the Grosser Preis von Baden this fall.

Second in three of his last four starts, Compadre picks up his first win of '95 and runs his Saratoga turf course record to 3-for-3. But horse-for-course FOURSTARDAVE (Compliance), looking for a win at Saratoga for the ninth consecutive year, failed to fire, finishing fifth. Trainer Leo O'Brien said the 10-year-old gelding would probably make two more starts at Saratoga this season in an attempt to keep the streak going.

A four-time SW in 1994, Avie's Fancy had made just two starts thus far in '95, winning Monmouth's Revidere S. in her seasonal debut before finishing 2nd in the Rockingham Budweiser Breeders' Cup last out.
