TRA NATIONAL OFFICE FOLDS The Thoroughbred Racing Associations announced yesterday that their national office, located in New York City and headed by Commissioner Brian McGrath, will close effective August 31. The office was expected to be funded by revenue from the National Best Seven, but the bet was cancelled due to insufficient handle at the beginning of April. "This was not any easy decision to make, but it became evident this was the only practical course to follow," said TRA President Cliff Goodrich. "The effectiveness of the national office was severely compromised by an inability among the membership to forge an agreement on a national direction. While many of our members believe in the concept and are deeply appreciative of the leadership and direction Brian McGrath has provided, we have not been able to develop the required broad-based support for specific initiatives to implement them successfully."

GROOM CONVICTED OF SCOTT MURDER William "Clem" O'Brien, a 58-year-old groom, has been found guilty of murdering Newmarket trainer Alex Scott. O'Brien was convicted after a jury at Norwich Crown Court heard him admit to shooting Scott in the back at point-blank range following an argument at the trainer's Glebe Stud last September. Although he admitted to the killing, O'Brien had entered a plea of not-guilty due to extreme provocation, but Mr. Justice Blofeld, the judge presiding at the case, said, "It is a terrible thing you did. For reasons that are difficult to fathom, you lost your temper in a moment of passion." O'Brien was sentenced to life imprisonment yesterday.

The filly Serena's Song (Rahy) is the starting highweight, given her five-pound sex allowance. Trainer D. Wayne Lukas said yesterday he was not concerned about the outside post. "The post position isn't a factor," he remarked. "She is quickest out of the gate, and she doesn't need the lead. She rates very kindly. If they all wait for her to take the lead, there will be some slow fractions."

Also Ran: Coronation Cup, Caress, Aucilla, Vinista.

Weekend Madness, fourth against the boys in a Churchill allowance last time out June 7, came back after a wind operation to pick up her second straight in this event, closing from fourth to take the lead at the top of the lane and draw clear. “I really have to give all the credit to Dr. Alex Harthill, who operated when she had throat surgery,” said trainer Burk Kessinger. “Everyday she was building her confidence, knowing she could breathe easier. This was the final test, and I think she passed with flying colors.” The mare will likely make her next start in the Noble Damsel S. at Belmont September 9. The 4-5 favorite CARESS (Storm Cat) pressed the pace but weakened in the drive to finish fifth.

6th-SAR, $38,000, Alw, 3yo/up, 1 1/16mT, 1:40 3/5, fm.

OLDER BUT SMARTER (h, 6, Smarten--More Golden Times {SP}, by Our Native), winless since taking an allowance test over this course nearly a year ago, was sent off the 5-2 choice despite meeting fellow horse-for-the-course FOURSTARDAVE (Compliance), and rallied under jockey Jerry Bailey to edge pacesetter HEAD TRIP (Dr. Blum) by a neck. The 10-year-old Fourstardave, bidding for a win at the Spa for the ninth straight year, stalked the pace but lacked a rally and finished fourth; his trainer, Leo O’Brien said the New York-bred would be back to try and keep the streak alive. “We’ll give it one more try, in about three or three-and-a-half weeks,” he said. Lifetime Record: MSW, 32-6-4-5, $218,663.

CONFIDENTIALLY (m, 5, Saratoga Six--Girl Powder {MSW, $450,197}, by Talc), second in the Dahlia S. at Ellis Park in her last effort, made her second start off a two-month layoff looking for her first win of the year and got the job done, moving from worst to first to take it by a half-length at 7-2. Lifetime Record: MSP, 35-6-11-7, $194,584.

O-Joan Thompson. B-Richard D. Irwin (FL). T-Carl A Nafzger.

4th-SAR, $36,000, Alw, 3yo/up, 1 1/16mT, 1:42 2/5, fm.

DEBONAIR DAN (c, 3, Danzatore--Great Style, by Great Above), winner of the Gill Saranac S. at Belmont in May, bounced back from a seventh-place finish in the GI Arlington Classic July 3 to post a wire-to-wire score over allowance foes, hanging on gamely in the final strides to best the late-running CHECK RIDE (Tsunami Slew) by a half. Lifetime Record: GSW, 10-3-1-1, $110,896.

O-Lee Pokoik. B-Frank Penn Jr. & John Penn (KY). T-Gary Sciacca.

MYBRIDE BARBARA (f, 3, Medieval Man--Sovrana, by Sovereign Dancer), runner-up at this level last time going a mile and a sixteenth, dropped back to a sprint and took the field from flagfall to finish despite bearing out on the turn for home, coasting to a seven-length tally at 3-1. Jockey Pat Valenzuela, suspended Thursday after taking himself off of four mounts Wednesday and then failing to show up for a meeting with the Del Mar stewards the next day, hopes to set up another meeting as soon as possible to rectify the situation. "We're hoping this won't be a long suspension," said agent Harry Hacek, who has had Valenzuela's book for just three weeks.
