JEROME IS TIMBER COUNTRY Trainer D. Wayne Lukas expected to work Timber Country (Woodman) this morning at Monmouth Park en route to a possible next start in the September 4 $200,000 Jerome H. at Belmont. "He had a nice work last Sunday," said Lukas, "and he looks great. I expect him to work real solid again and if everything goes right we'll work him through the month of August." Lukas had earlier mentioned the Travers as a possible date for the Preakness winner, but will now wait until the Belmont fall meet. "We will consider the Jerome; it is a one-turn mile which is not ideal, but it's not a bad coming-out party," said Lukas.

BREEDERS' CUP TO CALIFORNIA IN 1997 According to a report in today's Daily Racing Form, the 1997 Breeders' Cup will be held at a track in southern California, although the exact site of the event has not yet been decided. Officials at Santa Anita, Hollywood and Del Mar are all interested in playing host in '97. D. G. Van Clief, executive director of the Breeders' Cup, told the Form, "We've received preliminary information and proposals from all three tracks, which we're assessing." A final decision will not be made before September.

SERENA'S SONG READY TO FLY AT MONMOUTH Serena's Song, the only wheel chair-accessible hot-air balloon in the country, will be at Monmouth Park today as part of its nation-wide tour, offering rides to disabled children from 7-9 a.m. and 7-9 p.m. The balloon, owned by Gary and Cheryl Waldman, is named for their daughter Serena, who has cerebral palsy; this will mark the first time that the balloon and the horse of the same name will be in the same location. Although it is just a coincidence that their star filly shares her name with another flying machine, horse owners Robert and Beverly Lewis help sponsor the balloon flights.

"I think a mile and an eighth is her best distance," said trainer D. Wayne Lukas of Serena's Song (Rahy). "Our other option was the Alabama...that would have meant she would have had to run two 1 1/4-mile races in a row, then we would have to shorten her back to a mile and an eighth for the Breeders' Cup." The likely frontrunner will be Reality Road (Believe It), who set the pace before surrendering to Hoolie in the Dwyer last out. "He's pretty speedy, and we never have tried to take him back," said trainer Pat Kelly. "I don't plan to change strategy for a $500,000 race." The Haskell will be aired on ESPN from 5-6 p.m. EDT.

8	Hoolie	Freeman	Davis	8-5

Favored Hoolie (Criminal Type) rides a four-race win streak, taking the GII Dwyer last out at Belmont over a muddy track he intensely disliked, according to trainer Mike Freeman. "After he went a quarter-mile, I turned to (owner John Meriwhether) and said, 'this horse isn't going to be in the money today,'" said Freeman. "He did it on just plain guts and by wanting to do it. I believe he's a much, much better horse on a firm track." The Jim Dandy will be broadcast on ESPN from 5-6 p.m. EDT.

Second in this race a year ago, Kiri's Clown was coming off an off-the-board performance in the mile-and-a-sixteenth Daryl's Joy S. over the course just five days ago. Ignored in the wagering after that effort, the frontrunning Florida-bred sped through an opening quarter in :22.80, then slowed down the pace and left enough in the tank to hold off favored Awad in a prolonged drive. "Basically, my horse was just galloping along. When Awad came to him he got real game," said jockey Mike Luzzi. "I knew I had plenty of horse left." Trainer P.G. Johnson broke an 0-for-68 streak in New York with the victory; he said the six-year-old would now be pointed for the Arlington Million.

Hard to believe the 2nd-place finisher in the '93 Breeders' Cup Juvenile and 3rd-place finisher in the '94 Kentucky Derby made it to the age of four without a stakes win, but the perennial bridesmaid breaks out of the ranks of the stakes-placed here with his first stakes win as the favorite in this four-horse field. "We were pushing to get to the Derby, but he got a little cough and we were a step behind all the time," said trainer Jack Van Berg. "We took our time coming back with him this year. This is the first time that we've really come to the race sitting like we should. His next start will be in the (Aug. 13) Pacific Classic."

Schossberg, who was on the sidelines for 20 months after finishing third in the GI Pegasus H. in 1993, made his return at Woodbine in May and scored in an allowance sprint, then finished third in the six-furlong Gill Finger Lakes Budweiser Breeders' Cup July 4. Out for his third start since the extended layoff, the Canadian-bred stretched out to a mile, shadowed longshot CAPITALIMPROVEMENT (Dixieland Band) for a half, then forged to the front and powered to a decisive victory. Now two-for-two at a mile, the dark bay had taken the GI Jerome H. at the distance at three. "He had such a long layoff because he had a lot of minor problems that kept coming back--problems that could have ended his career, like filling in his ligaments," said trainer Phil England. "But we kept trying with him." England will look at the GI Iselin H. August 20 next for his charge.

At the eighth pole, Caramba had taken the lead to win despite the efforts of Erin Bird, who had looked as if she could be a threat at one stage. The winner took a strong hold throughout the race but was always well-placed and when the moment came for her to find an extra gear, she did so willingly. Warning Shadows did not look too happy on the ground and was definitely tiring in the final furlong.
