SERENA SINGS AGAIN "We came. We made history." If trainer D. Wayne Lukas has a way of getting right to the point, his filly Serena's Song (Rahy) fits right in with his philosophy. With a decisive, front-running 3/4-length victory over 10 colts, she became the first filly ever to win the $500,000 Haskell Invitational at Monmouth Park yesterday. "It's exciting for us, and it's exciting for her to make history," said Lukas, who picked up his first Haskell win as well. "It was never an issue with us (about her running in this race), but if it was an issue with anyone else, she answered with a resounding 'yes.'" The win was Serena's Song's second of the year against colts. A win in the Jim Beam Stakes sent her into this May's Kentucky Derby as the favorite alongside stablemate Timber Country (Woodman); she finished 16th in the Run for the Roses after setting the early pace. While many thought she would be rested following the effort, Serena's Song instead came back 13 days later to win Pimlico's GII Black-Eyed Susan. She added another win in Belmont's GI Mother Goose before finishing second in the GI Coaching Club American Oaks in her last start. Her 1995 record now stands at 7-for-9. "She doesn't like a couch-potato attitude," said Lukas. "She thrives on the action. She wants to get out there every day and train." Owner Robert Lewis expressed a happiness with not only his filly, but his trainer and jockey as well. "When you have a team working for you like D. Wayne Lukas and Gary Stevens, you're really blessed," said Lewis. "We fully appreciate how great this filly really is." Lukas said Serena's Song will not face colts again this year, but will make one more start at Belmont Park this fall against her own sex (possibly in the Sept. 16 Ruffian) before the Oct. 28 Breeders' Cup Distaff. Runner-up Pyramid Peak (Mt. Livermore) and third-place finisher Citadeed (Shadeed) will most likely be pointed to the Aug. 19 $750,000 Travers at Saratoga, according to their connections. Said Citadeed's trainer, Rick Violette, "Wayne won't be running the filly in there, will he?"

- Jockey Gary Stevens sent Serena's Song after the leaders into the first turn. The pair took over down the backstretch and opened up a quick 3 1/2 lengths on the field as they turned for home. "I told Gary if she was running easy, go ahead and open up a couple of lengths," said trainer D. Wayne Lukas. "I thought if we could get the first 3/4 in 1:10 2/5, we'd be right there. I told Gary if you get that fraction, go ahead and open up. We want to dictate the race. We want to be in control of our own destiny. If she could do that, I thought it would be catch me if you can." No one could. "She put a move on them at the 1/4-pole that was just unbelievable," said Stevens. "She's something very special."

Composer, from the first crop of champion Easy Goer, became his sire's first North American stakes-winner yesterday. After finishing 2nd in the March 26 Tampa Bay Derby and 8th in the June 10 Belmont S. in his only prior stakes tries, Composer took a Belmont allowance by an impressive 11 lengths in his last outing July 7. Ridden once again by Jerry Bailey and sent off the 2-1 second choice, the bay colt raced 4th in the 7-horse field for the first 6 furlongs, angled 4-wide to launch his rally leaving the far turn, rapidly gained to challenge entering the stretch, then drew off to win by 5 lengths. 43-1 outsider Malthus, a G3 winner in Panama, was impressive in his first U.S. start, rallying from last for the place spot. The 2-1 favorite HOOLIE (Criminal Type), winner of his last 4 starts including the July 2 Gil Dwyer S., pressed the pace early then tired at the top of the lane to be 7th and last.

Also Ran: Ghostly (Ire), Fairy Path, Nagnagnag (Ire), Macoumba.

With a quarter-mile left to run, Smolensk came cruising on the outside, took the lead at the eighth pole and went on to win safely. The winner and the second-place finisher are both being aimed at the G1 Jacques le Marois at Deauville Aug. 13.

Margins: 2, NO, NK. Odds: 2.60a, 1.95, 2.60a. Also Ran: Freedom Fleet, Counter Combo, Count Dugald.

There will be no Canadian Triple Crown winner in 1995. Kiridashi, 4th in the first jewel of the Canadian Triple Crown, the July 9 Queens Plate, avenged his defeat in that race by Regal Discovery with a wire-to-wire, 2-length triumph in yesterday's 2nd leg of the series, the Prince of Wales S. Regal Discovery, who stalked the pace three-wide early, proved 2nd best in the drive. Frank Stronach's Queen's Plate runner-up FREEDOM FLEET (Afleet), sent off the 4-5 favorite, made up some late ground to be 4th.
