DEADLY BARN FIRE AT ELLIS PARK As many as 26 Thoroughbreds were killed in a barn fire at Ellis Park early Monday morning. Contained to Barn 10, the blaze was so intense that the flames could be seen for three miles. The barn was completely destroyed. Several horses were able to be freed from the barn, but only two escaped without injury; two horses got out of the stable area and ran across highway U.S. 41 before they were caught at a truck stop. Tejano Run, runner-up in this year's Kentucky Derby, had shipped to Ellis Friday and was stabled just one barn away from the fire, but he was uninjured. The trainers stabled in Barn 10 were Kenny Carneal, Arthur Zeis, Sarah Wells and Howard Brock. One horseman, John Wells, was slightly burned on the shoulder while trying to save the trapped horses. There was no racing scheduled for Monday at Ellis Park; Tuesday's card was cancelled. The cause of the fire has not yet been determined and is under investigation.

Hovdey, a free-lance writer from California, won the Walter Haight Award for outstanding achievement in turf writing. Kaufman was honored with the Joe Palmer Award for meritorious service in horse racing. The director of special projects for the Emerald Racing Association in Washington at the time of his passing, he died of a heart attack May 2 at the age of 47. The NTWA will hold its 36th annual awards dinner Wednesday, October 25 in New York.

3--Lunar Spook, 117, m, 5, Silver Ghost--Rafael Luna, by Idle Minds. O-Sidney H Craig; $11,250. Margins: NK, 6 1/2, 3. Odds: 0.80, 7.70, 6.40.

Borodislew, a graded stakes winner in France at three, missed most of her four-year-old season but picks up her fourth win in eight U.S. starts since shipping across the Atlantic and making her Stateside debut last October. Unsuccessful in a pair of graded stakes earlier this year, the bay tried a listed event last time and came away with a win in the Terlingua S. at Hollywood Park July 4; she makes it two in a row, shadowing the speedy Wild Lightning for three-quarters before forging to the front and prevailing in a hard-fought finish. Lunar Spook, winless since taking the GI Ashland in 1993, ran evenly to be a distant third.

The first two finishers, Composer (Easy Goer) and Malthus (Temperence Hill), from Sunday's GII Jim Dandy S. will now be pointed for the Travers August 19. Also headed to the Midsummer Derby is fifth-placed Star Standard (Risen Star); the Nick Zito trainee, who again bore out on the far turn in the race, will get a new jockey for his next start. Hoolie (Criminal Type), last as the favorite, may also be back for the Travers. "We found out he does not like to be rated," said his trainer, Mike Freeman. "We wanted to try it (Sunday)...he didn't appreciate it much and that may have caused a few problems." Pat N Jac (Pentelicus) and Peruvian (Conquistador Cielo), third and fourth, respectively, in the Jim Dandy, will shorten up for the seven-furlong King's Bishop on the Travers undercard.

The even-money favorite ARGOLID (Saros {GB}) held the lead for a quarter but stopped to finish fifth.
