EXERCISE RIDER KILLED AT BELMONT

Exercise rider Antonio Vizcarrondo, 47, was killed in a training accident Friday morning at 8:53 a.m. on Belmont Park's training track. Regularly employed by trainer Leo O'Brien, Vizcarrondo was freelancing aboard the filly Lavender Blue for trainer Tom Walsh when the accident occurred. According to O'Brien, who was in Saratoga at the time of the accident, one of his own horses was galloping in company with Lavender Blue out of the starting gate. Lavender Blue began lagging behind shortly into the work; when Vizcarrondo went to pick up his whip, the horse ducked and hit the rail, throwing the rider. Vizcarrondo also hit the rail and suffered multiple fractures of the upper body and chest area, which Detective Richard Brock of the Nassau County Police Department said were the cause of death. The rider was taken to Franklin General Hospital, where he was pronounced dead on arrival. An autopsy will be performed. According to Walsh, Vizcarrondo was not wearing a protective vest, currently mandatory for exercise riders at Florida and New Jersey racetracks, at the time of the accident.

PROSPECTORS GAMBLE TO PIN OAK Prospectors Gamble (Crafty Prospector), the leading sire of 1995 juvenile winners, has been purchased by Josephine Abercrombie's Pin Oak Stud and will stand the 1996 season at the Versailles, Kentucky farm. The 10-year-old, represented by his second crop of two-year-olds this year, currently leads all North American sires with eight two-year-old winners; his 1996 stud fee has not yet been announced.

PACIFIC CLASSIC NOTES GI Californian winner Concern (Broad Brush), sixth in the GI Hollywood Gold Cup last time after hitting the side of the gate at the start, worked six furlongs in 1:13 3/5 at Pimlico yesterday as he gets ready for his next engagement, the GI Pacific Classic at Del Mar August 13. The four-year-old is scheduled to ship west Wednesday; jockey Gary Stevens picks up the mount as the colt's regular pilot, Mike Smith, will be in Saratoga to ride Inside Information in the GI Ballerina. Also prepping for the $1 million event, last year's Pacific Classic winner Tinners Way (Secretariat) went the same distance in the exact same time as Concern while working at Del Mar.

ROY FIRST NOMINATION TO COMMON FUND

Officials of Breeders' Cup Ltd. announced Friday that leading Chilean sire Roy (Fappiano) is the first stallion nominated to the Breeders' Cup/European Breeders' Fund Common Fund. The 12-year-old stallion, champion sire in Chile from 1990-94, was bred in Florida by the Carelaine Farm of Roy Gottlieb and Mort Fink and stands at Haras Figuron in Santiago, Chile. Through 1995, Roy had sired four champions and seven additional graded stakes winners. "The Breeders' Cup/EBF Common Fund received a strong vote of confidence by the nomination of the leading Chilean stallion Roy to the international program," said James E. Bassett III, president of Breeders' Cup Ltd. "Hopefully this is the catalyst for others to follow." The Breeders' Cup/EBF Common Fund provides an opportunity for stallions to be made eligible to both programs by the payment of an annual nomination fee equal to one stud fee (minimum U.S. $1,000). Foals conceived by those stallions will then be eligible for nomination to the Breeders' Cup and/or EBF.
