SARATOGA '96 TO TWO MONTHS? The length of next year's Saratoga meet is anybody's guess after NYRA President/GM Kenny Noe Jr. said at yesterday's Fan's Forum at the racetrack that he is exploring several options for the 1996 meet, including an expansion to two months. Noe denied reports that the meet would likely be cut back to 30 days, and said that it would definitely not be cut back to its former length of 24 days. "I'm not leaning in any direction," said Noe. "Everything is under consideration. There's a possibility we'd stay here for two months starting in mid-July with a 5-day week." But Noe also said he realized the value of a short, seasonal meet. "When you had 24 days, everyone knew there were only those days when they could come. Now with 5 1/2 weeks, if the weather isn't that great one day, people say, 'I can come tomorrow.'" Noe said that at the end of the meeting, he would consider all options and is likely to make his recommendation to the NYRA Board of Trustees by November. Noe also said that he would like to explore the possibility of one day running the Breeders' Cup at Saratoga.

TIMBER COUNTRY SHARP AT MONMOUTH Preakness winner Timber Country (Woodman) didn't let a sloppy track slow him down as he splashed through six furlongs in a sprightly 1:11 yesterday at Monmouth. With jockey Donna Barton at the controls, the champion colt clicked off fractions of :11, :23, :35, :46 4/5 and :58 3/5, and galloped out the seven furlongs in 1:25 flat. "That was a hell of a move," said trainer D. Wayne Lukas. "He took a giant step forward this morning. The work was better than I was anticipating. He got off a little quick, and he finished quick...and he didn't let up at the wire." Lukas added that he did not have a specific race in mind for the Eclipse winner's return to action, but the Jerome H. at Belmont September 4 has been mentioned.

Picking up his second straight with Del Mar's leading jockey Gary Stevens in the saddle, Fastness improved off a second-place finish in this race last year to post a popular score. The European import stalked South American speedster Romarin to the stretch, then proved fastest in the drive to earn his first graded stakes. "He's healthy now and he's going good," said Stevens. "When he's going good, he's unbelievable. It's on to the Arlington Million now (August 27). I'll be with him. That's been the plan all along." Added trainer Jenine Sahadi, "I owe the owners (Evergreen Farm) all my success. There's never any pressure and the horse is always the first priority. They really deserve this. This horse has been great this year. He's held his weight, he's matured and he's learned to relax beautifully. That makes my job easier."

3--Wessam Prince (GB), c, 4, Soviet Star--Clare Bridge, by Little Current. O-Maktoum al Maktoum; B-Francois Fabre (GB). $21,321.

Margins: short HD, 3, 3/4.

Also Ran: Diffident (Fr), Hoh Magic (GB), Lavinia Fontana (Ire), Atticus, Fard (Ire), Nec Plus Ultra (Fr), General Monash.

After winning two G3 races, Cherokee Rose stepped up in class and made a come-from-behind move to win in exciting fashion, holding off the renewed challenge of Young Ern near the finish. Cash Asmussen cleverly steered her between horses, and she found the extra where it mattered to win by a short head. "She is a very good filly," said Asmussen. "She had not shown her true potential as a three-year-old as she was sick most of the year. Sheik Mohammed was going to send her to the paddocks, but John (Hammond) begged him to leave her in training. He has certainly been proved right today."

CLOSE, BUT NO CIGAR Trainer Scotty Schulhofer confirmed yesterday that Saturday's Whitney winner Unaccounted For (Private Account) would make his next start in the August 26 Saratoga Cup, adding that he hoped to avoid the division's pro-tem leader, Cigar (Palace Music) until the Oct. 28 Breeders' Cup Classic. "Hopefully, we'll just have to run against him in the Classic and not before then," said Schulhofer. "Hopefully at that point, we'll smoke." Schulhofer said that he expected to skip the September 16 Woodward at Belmont for just that reason. "What I would do is probably run him in the Jockey Club Gold Cup and then the Breeders' Cup Classic," he remarked.

SCUFFLEBURG TO SOUTH AFRICA

Scuffleburg (Cox's Ridge), winner of the GI Pegasus and GI Gulfstream Park handicaps, has been sold to South Africa's Riverton Stud. The six-year-old, out of a three-quarter sister to champion European sire Caerleon, was retired with earnings of $691,890; he has been fully syndicated. Sales details were organized by Highflyer International in New York and The Form Organization in South Africa.

Four-for-nine on the grass, Hooper homebred Diplomatic Jet (Roman Diplomat) came back after nearly five months idle to take a Saratoga allowance July 21. "He had some kind of wind problem and they did surgery on him after his last Florida race in February, up at Mr. Hooper's farm in Ocala," said trainer Jimmy Picou, who took over the colt's conditioning in June. "After that, the trainer on the farm, Milton Hensley, said that he had no difficulty with air intake in training."

A nose winner of the Mister Gus S. at Arlington last out, Manilaman used the prep over the track to get his first graded win; the longshot dropped to the inside at the break and wired the field. Said winning rider Randy Romero, "I rode this horse one time at Churchill and I've been begging to ride him since. You're going to hear a lot about him." Manilaman is not nominated to the Aug. 27 Arlington Million and would have to be supplemented at a cost of $50,000 by Aug. 16.

Not Surprising had trouble when facing You And I in the GI Met Mile and GII Brooklyn H., but he has surrounded those two off-the-board starts with four stakes wins, taking a pair at Hialeah in April, then capturing the GIII Finger Lakes Budweiser Breeders' Cup last time. Sent off the lukewarm favorite here, he reserved his speed for the drive, taking the lead in deep stretch and holding second choice Chimes Band safe. "Once we gelded him, that's when we found his true ability," said winning trainer Judson Van Worp. "He's been running very good, so I wanted to take a shot and I'm happy I did. It's really a big kick to win at Saratoga." The runner-up stumbled at the start but finished well.

A fully extended neck winner of her maiden debut at Saratoga July 21, Crafty But Sweet came from off the pace to keep her perfect record intact at the expense of the crowd's choice, previously undefeated Golden Attraction. The 3-5 favorite broke alertly, made her move on the turn, reached the front at the quarter pole but was outfinished by the winner. "We were a little concerned that she didn't have that much seasoning," said Eddie Gregory, stable manager for the My Jo Lee Stable, of Crafty But Sweet, "but the decision was made to give it a shot. She's got good speed and is a pretty good filly." Said D. Wayne Lukas, Golden Attraction's trainer, "We were in great shape. (Jockey) Donna (Barton) had her in position to win turning for home.
