STORM CAT COLT TOPS SARATOGA'S

SECOND SESSION A dark bay or brown colt by Storm Cat--Buy the Firm (Affirmed) topped Wednesday night's second session of the Saratoga Select Yearling Sale. Trainer D. Wayne Lukas, who purchased the colt on behalf of owners Robert and Beverly Lewis for $410,000, said, "I liked the pedigree. We've had a lot of luck with Storm Cats so the pedigree fit. He was an individual who appealed to me in a lot of ways and he's going to change a lot in the next six months." Bringing the second highest price of $375,000 was a bay colt by Storm Bird--Aquakiss (Fr) (Kings Lake). Said the colt's purchaser Jim Spence, "We would have bought perhaps a couple if we didn't buy a colt of this quality. We liked his breeding, of course, and that breeding is about the hottest thing there is today on the track. He has wonderful conformation and he could be a classic colt." Spence said the colt will be trained next year by D. Wayne Lukas. Ironically, a year ago yesterday Spence bought Bright Launch (Relaunch), one of the favorites for today's GII Saratoga Special, out of this sale. The top-priced filly selling last night was by Danzig out of the Gill Honey Bee H. winner Under Oath. Tim Sams, agent for buyer Bayard Sharp, said, "She's a beautiful filly. I had marked her as one of the best fillies in the sale. She has really good hindquarters and good balance." Overall, 61 yearlings sold Wednesday night for a total of $8,079,000 and an average of $132,443, up 24 percent from last year's second session average of $106,677. There were 8 yearlings reported as not sold. The sale concludes tonight.

2--Steady Cat, 112, f, 2, Storm Cat--Hopespringsforever, by Mr. Prospector. O-William T. Young; B-Overbrook Farm (KY); $21,920.

3--Western Dreamer, 120, f, 2, Gone West--Dream Launch, by Relaunch. ($52,000 yrl '94 KEESEP; $225,000 2yo 1995 FTFEB). O-J. Fred Miller III; B-Jayeff B Stables (KY); $12,056.

Margins: NK, NK, 1 1/4. Odds: 0.80CT, 2.70, 4.80. Also Ran: Miners Mirage, Strawberry Clover, Echo Echo Echo, Here's London.

4-5 favorite Flat Fleet Feet, who broke her maiden by 9 lengths in her last start at Saratoga July 21, proved the jump up to graded stakes company no problem, settling just behind dueling leaders ECHO ECHO (Eastern Echo) and MINERS MIRAGE (Mining) early, rallying three wide leaving the turn, surging to the front in midstretch then holding off a late challenge from Steady Cat in the final strides to win by a neck. "She looked very determined coming down the lane," said winning trainer John Kimmel. "I think you're going to see this filly come back strong and this race will go a long way to enhance her career. It had been the plan to sit behind the speed and make one run. I had been working her in behind horses and she seemed to enjoy it. She put in a real game effort and that has to be applauded." Kimmel indicated that as long as his filly comes out of the race in good shape, she will run next in the GI Spinaway at Saratoga August 28.

Margins: 2 1/4, 2 3/4, 1 3/4. Odds: 4.80, 1.00, 2.80. Also Ran: Blacktie Bid, Love On the Rail, Totally Spellbound. Scratched: Eastside Lass, Ocean View.

Batroyale, sent off the 9-2 third choice despite winning the Solano County Juvenile Fillies S. in her last start July 21, dueled for the early lead between rivals, shook clear at the top of the stretch and held off the fast-closing Cosmic Fire for her first graded victory. "She feels like a mile and a quarter filly," said winning jockey Gary Stevens. "She doesn't impress you; she just gets it done. I was just cruising with her today. She was running real easy in the early part. When I came back and saw those splits (:21 4/5, :44 2/5, 1:09 1/5) I was surprised. And she saved a nice kick for me at the end. She could be special." Trainer Bob Baffert agreed. "When he (owner Robert Walter) sent me these horses, I had papers but I didn't know who was who," Baffert said. "When I worked her the first time, I thought she was a three-year-old, big and robust. When I went back and looked at the papers and saw she was a two-year-old, I said she's gonna be all right."

STRODES CREEK RETIRED Strodes Creek (Halo), second and third respectively in last year's Kentucky Derby and Belmont Stakes, has been retired from racing and will stand the 1996 breeding season at Arthur B. Hancock III's Stone Farm in Paris, Kentucky. Bred by Hancock, Strodes Creek raced for a partnership consisting of trainer Charlie Whittingham, Robert and Janice McNair and Hancock. The colt did not race at two, but broke his maiden by eight lengths in his first start in January of his three-year-old year. Later in 1994, the bay colt came flying at the finish to be third in the GI Santa Anita Derby before his second-place effort in the Run for the Roses. "I really believe that with just a little luck, we would have won the Derby with him," said Whittingham. "He was turned sideways on the turn and just lost too much ground to make up." In his first start back after the Belmont, Strodes Creek became a stakes-winner with a score in the Dec. 7 J.O. Tobin S. at Hollywood. In his only two starts this year, the four-year-old finished fourth in both the San Fernando S. and the GI Strub S. at Santa Anita. "We always hoped he would be able to realize his vast potential on the race-track, but we didn't want to get him hurt, so we decided to bring him home," Hancock said. "This is a very good racehorse who had some very bad luck. He has wonderful conformation and a world-class pedigree. I'm very excited to have a Classic-placed son of Halo going to stud with this kind of potential." Strodes Creek retires with a record of 9-3-2-2 for earnings of $430,006.

FASIG-TIPTON AND KEENELAND SET NOVEMBER SALES DATES

The possibility of conflicting sales dates between Fasig-Tipton and Keeneland in Kentucky in November has been averted. Breeders had voiced concerns over a recent release that Keeneland's sale would commence November 11, a date previously announced as a Fasig-Tipton sales day. Fasig-Tipton Chairman D.G. Van Clief Jr. noted that while no commitment had been made by either organization, the two auction companies prefer to avoid a clash. "It would be counter-productive for sellers and buyers alike to go head-to-head in Lexington in November," said Van Clief. Presently scheduled for Fasig-Tipton is an open sale Friday, November 10 and selected sessions of foals and mares Saturday and Sunday, November 11 and 12. Keeneland's November Breeding Stock Sale is scheduled for November 12 through November 21.

LAKEWAY RETURNS SUNDAY Sharing Sunday's spotlight at Del Mar with the $1,000,000 Pacific Classic will be the return of one of the top three-year-old fillies of 1994, Lakeway (Seattle Slew), in the $100,000-added GIII Rancho Bernardo Breeders' Cup H. Lakeway has recorded six victories and two second-place efforts in eight career starts for earnings of $594,520. Her triumphs last year included victories in four Grade I events: the Santa Anita Oaks, Hollywood Oaks, Mother Goose S. and Las Virgenes S. When she runs Sunday it will be for the first time in exactly a year, as she last went postward in the August 13, 1994 GI Alabama S., finishing second to eventual Eclipse Award-winner Heavenly Prize (Seeking the Gold) before being diagnosed with a lung infection. "The idea, depending on how hard this race is on her, is to run back in the Chula Vista H. (Sept. 3), which is asking for a bounce because it's awful quick," said Lakeway's trainer Gary Jones. "Then if those two things are accomplished, we're looking at either the Spinster (at Keeneland) or the Beldame (at Belmont) and then back in the Breeders' Cup Distaff."

DAMASCUS DEAD AT 31 Damascus (Sword Dancer), Horse of the Year, Champion Three-Year-Old Colt and Champion Handicap Horse in 1967, died August 8 in his paddock at Claiborne Farm in Paris, Kentucky. The 31-year-old Kentucky bred enjoyed great success on the racetrack, winning 17 stakes in 32 starts from 1966 to 1968. Among his triumphs were victories in such prestigious events as the Preakness and Belmont S., Jockey Club Gold Cup, Travers, Wood Memorial, Brooklyn H., Woodward S., Remsen S., Malibu S. and Dwyer H. He retired to Claiborne for the 1969 breeding season with earnings of $1,176,781 and great expectations. He went on to sire 72 stakes winners, including champions Belted Earl and Lord Durham and Grade I winners Crusader Sword, Desert Wine, Eastern Echo, Gold and Myrrh, Highland Blade, Judger, Lover John, Ogygian, Pacific Princess, Private Account, Soy Numero Uno and Time for a Change. Pensioned in 1989, Damascus will be buried at Claiborne.

GOVERNOR PATAKI SPEAKS AT SARATOGA

Not getting into any specifics, New York Governor George Pataki met with horsemen, New York Racing Association management and the press yesterday at Saratoga and had this message, "I'm here to help." Pataki assured the leadership of the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association that if casinos are legalized in New York, he will take every step to see it is done in a way that protects the racing industry. "If it is done in an intelligent way and with the knowledge of the need to protect the racing industry, I think (the marriage between casinos and racing) can be cooperative as opposed to confrontational," Pataki said. Initial steps have been taken in New York to legalize casinos, but they cannot exist until being approved by the voters. Pataki added he wants to privatize the off-track-betting operation, but again offered no specifics. Mostly he was there to let the industry know he is supportive of it. "We have to increase purses and continue with capital investment, not just this year but into the future," he said. "We also want to reduce the takeout and do whatever else it takes to make sure New York is once again the preeminent racing circuit in the country."

8	Meadowtime	Aquillino	Davis	5-1
9	Editor's Note	Lukas	Barton	10-1

All runners will carry 112 pounds.

Aggie Southpaw (Forty Niner), who broke his maiden by five lengths as the favorite in his debut at Churchill Downs June 3, came back to finish second in his only other start, the GIII Bashford Manor at the Louisville track July 1. "Ever since the day we got him he's met all our expectations," said trainer Phil Hauswald. "He's so easy to train and he never gives us any problems. He just gets better and better as each day goes on. I think the added distance of the Saratoga Special will be a plus for Aggie."

Sunday, Del Mar:

PACIFIC CLASSIC-GI, $1,000,000, 3yo/up, 1 1/4m

Likely favorite Concern (Broad Brush) was scheduled to leave Baltimore at 3 p.m. EDT Wednesday on a flight expected to have the '94 Breeders' Cup Classic champ bedded down on Del Mar's backstretch late last night. Trainer Richard Small said he wanted to get to the West Coast in plenty of time to let Robert Meyerhoff's colt get a breeze over the seaside track before the race.

Concern has already shipped west twice this summer, taking the GI Californian S. at Hollywood in June and most recently finishing sixth in the million dollar Hollywood Gold Cup. Trainer Richard Mandella sent Soul of the Matter (Private Terms) five furlongs Tuesday morning at Del Mar in 1:00 1/5. The four-year-old returned from an eight-month layoff to take the GII Bel Air H. at Hollywood in his last start July 16. "He's done really well since his last race, and he's ready to go," said Mandella. Kent Desormeaux will ride. Also pointing to the race are GII San Diego H. winner Blumin Affair (Dynaformer), '94 Pacific Classic victor Tinners Way (Secretariat) and Kissin Kris (Kris S.). In addition, it was confirmed yesterday by trainer Ron McAnally that Cleante (Arg) (Kleight) will be supplemented to the race at a cost of $30,000. The 1993 Horse of the Year in Argentina, six-year-old Cleante was most recently second to Soul of the Matter in the Bel Air. Considered a strong possibility to round out the Pacific Classic field is last year's GI Hollywood Gold Cup winner Slew of Damascus (Slewacide), whose trainer Craig Roberts said yesterday, "We're leaning pretty strong to go in the race. He's been doing great since that last race (the Aug. 2 Wickerr H. on the Del Mar turf, in which he finished third). We thought he might have been a little dull after the race, but he's been fine."

Saturday, Monmouth Park:

SAPLING S.-GII, $200,000, 2yo, 6f

The Sapling will feature two D. Wayne Lukas-trainees, GII Hollywood Juvenile Championship winner Hennessy (Storm Cat) and Cold Snap (Dispersal), recently purchased privately from New Farm by Hennessy's owners Robert and Beverly Lewis. Cold Snap, undefeated in two career starts, most recently won the $30,000 Gilded Time S. at Monmouth Park at five furlongs on the turf. "He looks like a real nice horse," said Lukas assistant Dallas Stewart. "He's pretty mature for a two-year-old." Calder-based Built For Pleasure (Homebuilder), winner of his last two outings by a combined 6¼-lengths, breezed a half-mile at Monmouth Tuesday in :48. "Buddy Raines has a horse who can really run (Tyro winner Foolish Pole {Polish Numbers}), and the Lukas horses are going to be tough," said Built For Pleasure's trainer Thomas Heard. "But I have to give this horse a shot. We won't know how good he is unless we try." Also pointing to the Sapling is Cashier Coyote (Regal Humor), who has already notched stakes wins in the Hialeah Juvenile S. and the Magic City Juvenile S. at Birmingham. The Florida-bred will be using Lasix for the first time Saturday.

Local News, Belmont Park:

Belmont's GI $150,000 Gazelle H., to be run September 3, got a boost yesterday when trainer D. Wayne Lukas announced his intentions to run his star filly Serena's Song (Rahy) in the race. "We like the race because it's at 1 1/8-miles and for three-year-old fillies," said Lukas. In Serena's Song's most recent outing, the $1,821,435-earner took the GI Haskell Invitational H. against the boys July 30 at Monmouth.

Local News, Saratoga:

In the first race at Saratoga yesterday, steeplechase rider Matt McCarron was injured when his horse Evan (QuadraVan) fell over the last jump and appeared to roll over the jockey. The son of former rider Gregg McCarron and the nephew of Hall of Fame jockey Chris McCarron, Matt McCarron was taken to Saratoga Hospital, where he was diagnosed with a broken right collarbone and released. The horse was uninjured.

BLITZER (h, 6, Ziggy's Boy--Sirona {SW}, by Irish Stronghold), a 6xSW, finished 3rd in the Nearctic H. over the Woodbine turf in his last start July 9. Stepping back on the main track here, the Canadian-bred rated behind a three-horse speed duel into the turn, bid four-wide turning for home, easily took command at the top of the stretch and drew off to win by 3 3/4 as the overwhelming 1-2 favorite. He is 1/2 to Diamonds Galore (MSW-N.A., GSP-Eng, $358,155, by Diamond Shoal {GB}). Lifetime Record: 33-9-7-4, $686,476.

Local News, Bay Meadows:

The support offered by the Thoroughbred Owners of California (TOC) for a concept that would create a new, state-of-the-art training facility, which ultimately would be developed to include a premiere racing venue, has been welcomed by officials of Bay Meadows Operating Company. Any new venture would be owned by the California Jockey Club (CJC), now the owner of the property on which Bay Meadows Racecourse is situated, and a final decision as to the development and location of a new training facility and racetrack would be dependent upon approval of the CJC's board of directors. "The demographics and the environment will determine where we build," said F. Jack Liebau, CEO of Bay Meadows. "We will be looking for an area suitable for Thoroughbreds and one where anticipated growth in population will assure the success of the venture."

PERSISTANT SAL (f, 4, The Irish Lord--Born-tobe-courageous, by Native Prospector), winner of her first two career outings last summer, had been away from the races since her fourth-place effort in the restricted Las Ninas S. at Fairplex in September '94. Sent off the even-money favorite off that 11-month layoff, she tracked the pacesetter down the backside, gained the lead entering the stretch and was ridden out to a 2 3/4-length victory. Lifetime Record: 4-3-0-0, $71,302.
