TRA MAKES PLANS FOR FUTURE The Thoroughbred Racing Associations' Board of Directors met for an hour and a half yesterday in Saratoga Springs and approved the recommendation of its Executive Committee to close the Commissioner's National Office August 31. Also approved during the session was a plan to restructure the Thoroughbred Racing Protective Bureau; the plan will implement cost-cutting measures while maintaining the organization as an effective national investigative force. The Directors will formulate a 1996 business plan which will continue the initiatives of the National Office, including the ESPN2-aired "2Day at the Races," the discussion of a possible racing series structured around selected three-year-old races, and the exploration of sponsorship opportunities.

NEW SPONSOR FOR ST. LEGER Pertemps, one of Britain's biggest recruitment agencies, has stepped in to support the St. Leger only days after the world's oldest Classic lost its previous sponsor. Officials at Doncaster announced last weekend that TeleConnection (UK), with whom they had signed a deal for three years, had pulled out of their main event due to financial problems and with the race set for September 9, prospects of making alternative arrangements seemed bleak. But Pertemps stepped into the breach yesterday, offering a four-year sponsorship which guarantees added prize money of £200,000 each season until 1998.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE AT DEL MAR A 38-year-old man ran onto the track 50 yards from the finish line during the feature race at Del Mar Thursday in an apparent suicide attempt. But, thanks to the skill of the jockeys and a lot of luck, the horses were able to steer clear, and no one was injured. Russell Howard Caputo tried to escape into the infield after the incident but was taken into custody by track security, who turned him over to the San Diego County Sheriff's Department. Caputo was later sent to the county's mental health facility for 72 hours observation.

Undefeated Foolish Pole (Polish Numbers) blew out for the race Thursday, going three-eighths in :35 flat. "He looked real impressive," said trainer Buddy Raines, who saddles the colt for his first graded stakes start after taking the Tyro over the track in impressive fashion. He will face a tough one in Team Lukas' GSW Hennessy (Storm Cat), who flies in from the West Coast looking to give his trainer a sixth Sapling victory. Lukas has taken five of the last eight runnings, including the '94 edition with Boone's Mill.

7	Conquistadoress	McGaughey	Day	10-1
8	Clear Mandate	Arnold	Bailey	12-1
9	Pretty Discreet	Terrill	Smith	15-1

Clear Mandate (Deputy Minister) tries a mile and a quarter in her very first stakes start. The Rusty Arnold trainee has dominated allowance foes her last two, taking a mile test at Belmont by an eye-catching 28 lengths, then stretching out to a mile and an eighth to prove best at Saratoga by 6 1/2. GISW Gal In A Ruckus (Bold Ruckus) suffered her first defeat of the campaign last time out, running second while giving nine pounds to Kathie's Colleen (Woodman) in the GII Monmouth Oaks. The morning-line second choice had previously picked up wins at Keeneland, Churchill and Woodbine before her visit to New Jersey; she tries 10 furlongs for the first time. All Alabama starters carry 121.

Inside Information (Private Account) shoulders top weight off victories in the Monmouth Park Budweiser Breeders' Cup and Molly Pitcher H. at the Shore; she drops back to a sprint off the pair of distance efforts. "One thing Inside Information does have is speed," said trainer Shug McGaughey. "I can back down on her and get her ready to sprint again even though she's coming off a mile race and two two-turn races. I don't think it'll be any problem at all. I think it'll be fun to watch her run. I know I'm looking forward to it."

News cont.DANZIG SEASONS TOP STALLION ACCESS

SALE A pair of 1996 No Guarantee Nominations to the exceptional stallion Danzig topped last night's Stallion Access Champagne Sale of Selected Seasons and Shares at Saratoga Springs. The first Danzig nomination offered brought a bid of $125,000, while a second did not reach its reserve of $124,000; the third Danzig season was knocked down for $109,000. In all, a total of 51 seasons sold for a gross of $1,135,000, an average of $22,269. The total gross of $1,207,700 for the sale included the one share sold; a share in Phone Trick was purchased for $72,000. Numbers were up for the sale; last year, a total of 57 seasons and shares sold for $1,080,100, an average of $18,949. The average showed a gain of 17.5 percent, while the gross was up 11.8 percent.

GENEROUS OFFER ACCEPTED Generous (Ire)

(Caerleon), winner of the 1991 Epsom and Irish Derbys, is virtually certain to leave Britain and continue his stud career in Japan. A bid from the Japan Racing Association, valuing the seven-year-old stallion at nine million pounds, has been accepted by a majority of shareholders. Only unfavorable reports from Far Eastern veterinarians can now prevent the chestnut horse from joining the exodus of high-class European and North American stallions. The JRA made an offer for Generous earlier this year but was turned down. However, this week's new bid--putting a value of £200,000 on each of 45 shares--seems to have secured his services. Philip Mitchell, manager at Banstead Manor Stud where Generous currently stands, said, "I can confirm the offer has been accepted by the required 75 percent of shareholders. It's now subject to contract and the necessary veterinary tests from Japan." Generous, voted Horse of the Year and Champion Three-Year-Old in Ireland in 1991, raced in the colors of Fahd Salman before retiring to stud in 1992. His first crop to race is now two; from four starters he has not yet sired a winner. Losing his services to Japan is sure to be seen as bad news in European breeding circles as it means the last four Epsom Derby heroes (including Dr. Devious, 1992; Commander In Chief, 1993; and Erhaab, 1994) have been taken away by the power of the yen.

The winner of this race three years ago, Fourstars Allstar came into this year's edition with two wins and two seconds in four '95 starts. Narrowly beaten in the GIII Daryl's Joy in his most recent go, the veteran New York-bred was the crowd's choice to take his second Baruch; he rallied from midfield to collar Turk Passer in deep stretch. "I was a bit worried on the backside because I was losing some ground, but neither one of us gave up," said jockey Jose Santos. "I knew the grass was a lot better on the outside, so that's where I decided to put him; when I moved him outside, that's when he really kicked in." Trainer Leo O'Brien said the bay would make his next start in the Belmont Budweiser Breeders' Cup. Californian UNFINISHED SYMPH (Aloha Prospector) was a late scratch.

Local News: Woodbine

Kiridashi (Bold Ruckus), winner of the second jewel of Canada's Triple Crown, the Prince Of Wales S. at Fort Erie, will skip the grassy Breeders' S., final race in the series, and instead point for the nine-furlong McLaughlin H. at Woodbine September 3. "I think he might like the grass, his pedigree says so, but right now a mile and a half is a little further than he might like to go," said trainer Barbara Minshall, who became the first woman to saddle the winner of a Canadian Triple Crown race with her Prince Of Wales victory. Minshall will send out Mt. Sassafra (Mt. Livermore), third in the first two legs of the Canadian Triple, for the August 20 Breeders' S.

Local News: Delaware Park
