FRANKEL HITS GRAND SLAM IN

PACIFIC CLASSIC Bobby Frankel owns the Pacific Classic. Still flying high after his enshrinement in racing's hallowed Hall Monday in Saratoga, Frankel caught a jet back to California in time to saddle Tinners Way (Secretariat) in his quest for a fourth straight win in Del Mar's $1,000,000 signature event, and the big red horse came through with a sure cure for jet lag, powering to a four-and-a-half length victory under jockey Eddie Delahoussaye. "I wanted this so badly," said Frankel. "I had faith in the horse and I didn't want to be wrong. I feel really, really good." It seems Frankel can do no wrong when it comes to this race. In just five runnings, the newest Hall of Fame trainer can claim four winners: Missionary Ridge (Caerleon), 1992; Marquetry (Conquistador Cielo), 1993; and Tinners Way, 1994 and '95; he also sent out the runner-up in '92, and finished 1-2-4 in '93--and not one of his runners has been favored. Tinners Way, 7-1 last year, was only the 5-2 second choice yesterday but proved much the best. Sitting just off moderate fractions cut out by the speedy Slew Of Damascus (Slewacide), the five-year-old moved with Soul Of The Matter (Private Account) as they headed around the far turn but quickly put that one away and galloped clear. "We drew a great post and the race shaped up just like I thought it would," said Frankel. "He actually ran a better race this year than last." Frankel, who has yet to win a Breeders' Cup race, becomes the first trainer to take a $1 million stakes four years in a row, rivaling trainer D. Wayne Lukas' feat of four straight Triple Crown events. But he downplays his success, saying, "I was lucky with the right horses." Or the horses were lucky with the right trainer.

HENNESSY FUTURITY-BOUND Trainer D. Wayne Lukas said yesterday that star two-year-old Hennessy (Storm Cat) came back from his impressive Sapling victory in good order and will make his next start in the Del Mar (Sept. 13) or Belmont Futurity (Sept. 16). "We haven't decided on which one," said Lukas. "We may be leaning towards Del Mar, because (owners Bob and Beverly Lewis) live around there. That won't be the deciding factor, but we'll have to take that into account." Hennessy will remain at Monmouth for now. "We'll give him a chance to recover and probably ship him out around the first of the month," said Lukas.

PACIFIC CLASSIC-GI, $1,000,000, DMR, 8-13, 3yo/up, 1 1/4m, 1:59 3/5, ft.

- 1--TINNERS WAY, 124, h, 5, Secretariat--Devon Diva, by The Minstrel. O/B-Juddmonte Farms (Ky); T-Bobby Frankel; J-E Delahoussaye; $550,000. Lifetime Record: 21-6-5-4, $1,615,072. * 1/2 to Western Approach (Gone West), SW, $143,325;

- 3--Blumin Affair, 124, c, 4, Dynaformer--Medical Affair, by Dr. Blum. ($20,000 yrl '92 KEESEP). O-Bowman & Vogel; B-Gulf States Racing Stables (Ky). $150,000. Margins: 4 1/2, 1 1/4, HD. Odds: 2.70, 3.00, 8.00. Also ran: Slew Of Damascus, Concern, Cleante (Arg).

Looking for his first win since taking this race last year, Tinners Way was making only his fourth start since that victory and his third of the year. Second to Cigar in the GI Hollywood Gold Cup last out, the gleaming chestnut found no such rival in his path this time, rallying from just off the lead to put a head in front at the top of the lane and drawing clear. "Down the backside, I felt like I was in control of the race," said winning rider Eddie Delahoussaye. "I knew I had a ton of horse under me; when I asked my horse he fired--he fired big. I think he's just coming into himself. I'd like him against most any man's horse. Oh, you've got to beat Cigar, no doubt about that. But if Bobby wants to try that, I'll be there." Trainer Bobby Frankel will be trying for another big payday with the Juddmonte homebred next time, switching to the turf for the Arlington Million with an eye towards the Breeders' Cup Turf in October. CONCERN (Broad Brush), favored at 8-5, lost a three-way photo for third while lacking his usual late punch. "He broke in a bit on me and then he never handled the track at all," said rider Gary Stevens. "It was too loose for him. He gave it his best, but he never was comfortable out there."

ROUND TABLE LOOKS TO FUTURE Though the speakers came from diverse backgrounds, there was a central theme to yesterday's annual Jockey Club Round Table Conference For Matters Pertaining to Racing: how the industry can adapt to changing times. John Reardon, former President of MTV, told the audience gathered at the Gideon Putnam Hotel in Saratoga Springs, New York, that racing must not only strive for more television exposure, but must format its programming in a way that will lure a younger audience. "Do what the National Basketball Association did--make your sport an exciting entertainment experience that will attract the younger audience your sport so desperately needs to survive," he said. Steve Crist, New York Racing Association Director of Communications and Development, took virtually the opposite position, recognizing that while racing needed far more t.v. time, "racing must not be reinvented for television; sold as something it is not..." Masayuki Goto, New York representative for the Japan Racing Association, reported on the state of the industry in Japan, where a flourishing sport has been able to attract more young people and more women. He said that advertising campaigns focusing on the excitement and entertainment involved with the sport have been highly successful. In 1975, with advancements in off-track betting, on-track attendance at Japanese tracks eventually dropped 44 percent, but thanks to the JRA's recent efforts, on-track figures have rebounded to their pre-1975 levels. Will Farish, Vice Chairman of The Jockey Club, and Richard LeBere, CEO, Equibase Co., both spoke of the role Equibase can play in the gambling market of the future which will more and more include the information superhighway. "As racing moves forward with full-card simulcasting and into the age of interactivity, Equibase will provide for the industry the information and thus the freedom to promote racing in the very best manner possible. I am totally convinced there is no industry initiative more important than Equibase," said Farish.

RETAMA CANCELS SATURDAY CARD Retama Park was forced to cancel the final five races from Saturday's card after the jockeys deemed the track surface unsafe. A steady downpour of rain had turned the track into a sea of slop; it was the first time it had rained during live racing at Retama, and the first cancellation due to inclement weather for the Texas park. Fans in attendance were given rainchecks, and racing resumed Sunday. "We hope that fans in this new market understand that this is not a normal course of action for horse racing when it rains," said Retama President Bob Quigley.

Also Ran: Low Key Affair, Unlawful Behavior, Madder Than Mad.

The 2-5 choice, Inside Information fell to her knees one jump out of the gate; forced to play catch-up, she had to settle for second place behind pacesetter Classy Mirage. "I wasn't banking on (Inside Information) going to her knees right out of the gate, but sometimes you have to take advantage of other peoples' misfortune," said winning rider Julie Krone. "However, you can't take anything away from my horse. She ran great." Mike Smith, who rode the beaten favorite, said his strategy was wiped out with the incident. "She was fast out of there in the first jump, but in the second jump she bounced right off her head," said Smith. "We wanted to press the pace and be up there, but all I could do was sit there off the pace." Trainer Allen Jerkens was uncertain about the winner's next start, but Shug McGaughey said Inside Information would still likely be pointed to the Sept. 16 Ruffian at Belmont.

TAMAYAZ (Gone West) showed the way at a good pace and tried to quicken two furlongs out but was challenged by a pack of others. Miss Satamixa, on the rail, managed to split horses to get the best of the closing Sayyedati in the last 75 yards. She will now go for the G1 Prix du Moulin at Longchamp in September. "(Andre Fabre) told me I must stay on the rail and if an opening came, it would be good; if not, then too bad," said winning rider Sylvain Guillot. Owner Jean-Louis Lagardere had a fond remembrance for the filly's late trainer, Francois Boutin. "I have always dreamt of winning this race," said Lagardere, "but this one is special as the race has been won so many times by the late Francois Boutin, including last year, and he used to train this filly, which makes it a kind of tribute to him."

3--Catch A Glimpse, 123, f, 2, Gulch--Spring To Light, by Blushing Groom (Fr). O/B-Moyglare Stud Farm (Ky). $25,423.

Margins: NK, 1 1/2, 3/4. Odds: 2-1, 11-2, 25-1.

Also Ran: Flying Squaw (GB), Sunset Reigns (Ire), April The Eighth (GB), Rockcorry Rose (Ire), Ribot's Secret (Ire), Deed of Love, Nymph in the Ski (Ire).

SUNSET REIGNS (Taufan) cut out the early running, but Danehill Dancer and Woodborough each launched an ominous challenge two furlongs out. Settling down to a driving finish, Pat Eddery at his strongest forced the favourite home for a neck success. The IR£38,000 purchase at Goffs will have one more run this year, according to trainer Neville Callaghan, in either the National Stakes at The Curragh or the Dewhurst. Callaghan said that he expects the colt will appreciate a little more give in the ground than yesterday's good to firm going and that he expects him to improve off of the effort.

Margins: NO, 1 1/4, 2HF. Odds: 2.00, 2.40, 1.50.

A 4xSW already this year, Lotts Talc opened up '95 with her first GSW in the GIII Interborough H at Aqueduct, and has slowed down little since. Third in her Monmouth debut last out, she atoned for the effort here with a determined finish to win by a nose.

Local News: Charles Town

Citing low attendance and handle and the resulting drain on the horsemen's purse account, Charles Town President D. Keith Wagner announced yesterday that the track will cancel its Monday afternoon cards effective immediately. Charles Town's live schedule will now consist of racing Sunday and Wednesday afternoons, first post 1 p.m., and Friday and Saturday evenings, first post at 7:15 p.m.; there will also be live racing on Labor Day, Monday, September 4.

In winning her first graded stakes, Track Gal extends her winning streak to five with a commanding wire-to-wire victory. "Usually, she's a hard mare to rate," said jockey Chris McCarron. "She just wants to get out there and go. But today she was pricking her ears and just humming along." Trainer John Sadler said that she would be considered for a distaff sprint on the Breeders' Cup day undercard, but perhaps not for the Breeders' Cup Sprint. Lakeway was sent off the even-money choice; off a step slow, she ran an even third. Said jockey Eddie Delahoussaye, "She just got tired."
