CORDERO READY TO RIDE Angel Cordero Jr. expects to make his return to riding Sept. 3 at Monmouth Park, where he will begin to prepare for a fall riding schedule culminating in an appearance in the Oct. 28 Breeders' Cup at Belmont Park. Cordero, a 52-year-old Hall of Fame jockey who has not ridden in a race since suffering serious injuries in a Jan. 12, 1992 accident at Aqueduct, has been a Thoroughbred trainer since that time. He said he expected to ride two or three races at Monmouth Sept. 3 and had mapped out a tentative Belmont Park fall schedule which includes riding appearances on Super Saturday (Sept. 16), Breeders' Cup Preview Day (Oct. 7), New York Showcase Day (Oct. 14) and Breeders' Cup Day, Oct. 28. He will ride Rogues Walk (Ends Well), who he currently trains, in the New York Showcase Day, and said he didn't expect to have problems lining up mounts for the other days. Cordero will give up his trainer's license while he is riding; his stable will be trained by his wife, Marjorie. Cordero said he is also open to making special appearances at other tracks, for a fee, and had already lined up a tentative stop at El Comandante in his native Puerto Rico. He expects to end his riding career in the Dec. 3 Classico del Caribe Dec. 3 in Santo Domingo. "It doesn't matter to me that people say I miss the limelight," said Cordero. "When you get to be my age, that doesn't mean anything to you. It's just something that's bothering me--I just wanted to ride one more time. I didn't want to retire like I did." Cordero said his current weight had dropped to 112 pounds after working 2 months with a personal trainer.

HOLLYWOOD NEXT TO JUMP TRA SHIP?

Hollywood Park President R.D. Hubbard, talking to reporters in Del Mar's paddock Sunday, said he did not see his track continuing its membership with the Thoroughbred Racing Associations. "I see where Tom Meeker (President of Churchill Downs) is withdrawing Churchill because of the direction the TRA is taking," Hubbard said. "People have told me Meeker is one of the smartest guys in racing, and if that's the way he feels, that's the way I'm going to go." If both Hollywood and Churchill do leave the TRA, they will become the fifth and sixth tracks to defect in the last nine months, joining Golden Gate Fields, Oaklawn Park, Sportsman's Park and Beulah Park.

THUNDER GULCH READY TO RUMBLE

Kentucky Derby and Belmont Stakes winner Thunder Gulch (Gulch) worked five-eighths in an easy 1:05.02 over Saratoga's Oklahoma training track yesterday. "We're just trying to keep him happy," said trainer D. Wayne Lukas, who described the colt as "the ultimate alley fighter; he doesn't know the word give-up. Once he eyeballs you, you've got some problems." Trainer John Ward Jr., who will saddle Pyramid Peak (Mt. Livermore) in the Travers, agreed, saying, "He is probably the toughest competitor I've seen in the past 10 years. He's the horse to beat--but he's beatable. Pyramid Peak is the one to do it. He has improved tremendously this season."

CITADEED REBOUNDS

Citadeed (Shadeed), third in the Belmont and the Haskell Invitational in his last two starts, breezed five furlongs in 1:01.18 over the Saratoga main track Monday. "After the Haskell, he was tired from the race, the heat and the travelling," said trainer Rick Violette Jr. "Since then, he's been eating up well and his coat looks nice. He bounced back nicely."

Sunday, Del Mar:

DEL MAR OAKS-GI, $250,000a, 3yo, f, 9fT

Two fillies will be travelling from France for Sunday's Del Mar Oaks, and both will remain in the U.S. afterwards for North American campaigns. "She's a big, rangy, nice-looking filly," said trainer Gary Lewis of the new girl in his barn, Fiddling Blade (GB) (Sure Blade), winner of the Prix Caravelle Haras des Granges at Toulouse in her last start May 28. Lewis pointed out the bay filly carried 141 pounds in one of her three victories in France, and has won at 1 1/4-miles. Fiddling Blade is owned by Charlie Dunn, owner of Jumron (GB), fourth in this year's Kentucky Derby. Leslie Grimm's Collecta (Fr) (Caerleon), who also notched a stakes victory in her last, taking the Prix des Lilas at Saint-Cloud June 13, arrives in the U.S. Wednesday and won't be at new trainer Ron McAnally's barn until Friday.

Sunday, Woodbine

BREEDERS' S.-GIC, $300,000 (R), 3yo, 12fT

The third leg in Canada's Triple Crown is expected to attract a field of 13, including Queen's Plate winner Regal Discovery (Regal Classic). The bay tried out the Woodbine turf course for the first time yesterday, galloping a mile and a half as he gets ready for his grass debut. "From what I could see, he seemed to enjoy it," said trainer Roger Attfield. The colt will work between races Wednesday evening. Also expected for the race are Queen's Plate runner-up Freedom Fleet (Afleet); the chestnut worked six furlongs in 1:14 on the turf around the "dogs" yesterday. "This horse had a super work," said his conditioner, Daniel Vella. "I was thrilled." Mt. Sassafras (Mt. Livermore), third in the first two-thirds of the Triple, also worked over the grass yesterday, getting six furlongs in 1:15 2/5, while Your Majestic (His Majesty), went seven furlongs in 1:26. Other probables are Disciple (Risen Star), who dumped his rider during his tour of the course and had to be corralled by the outrider; Dagda (Alysheba), a maiden who breezed five-eighths in 1:01 4/5 Monday; Charlie's Dewan (Charlie Barley), three-for-four on the grass; Runaway Crusader (Runaway Groom); Causeforall (Cozzene); Banquet (With Approval); Gentleman Beau (Beau Genius); Moon Bow (Affirmed); and Set Ablaze (Mi Selecto).

AVERAGE UP AT SARATOGA PREFERRED

SALE While only half as many yearlings went through the ring at Fasig-Tipton's Saratoga Preferred Yearling Sale, the average for the '95 auction, held Sunday, was up 25 percent over last year's figure. A total of 30 hips sold for $551,500 this year, averaging $18,383; 60 yearlings sold for a gross of $882,300 in '94, an average of $14,705. The '95 sales topper was Hip #517, a filly by Spectacular Bid--Torelia (Torsion). Consigned by Harry L. Landry, agent for Howard T. Whitbred, the dark bay went for a bid of $41,000 to the Klaravich Stables Inc.; she is a half to graded stakes winner Dr. Kiernan (Majesty's Prince) and New York-bred stakes winner Majesty's Time (Majesty's Prince).

CHURCHILL REPORTS STRONG SECOND

QUARTER Churchill Downs Inc. yesterday announced results for the three- and six-month periods which ended June 30, 1995. The Company reported second-quarter net income of $10.7 million, or $2.81 per share, as compared to $10.5 million, or $2.77 per share, for the same period in 1994. Second quarter revenues of $49.3 million were up 23 percent from the $40 million recorded in last year's second quarter. Record total wagering on Kentucky Derby and Kentucky Oaks Days, combined with substantial growth in the interstate simulcasting of Churchill Downs races, generated the second-quarter increases. Net income for the first six months of 1995 was $8.9 million, or $2.34 per share, compared to $8.3 million, or $2.19 per share, for the same time period last year. Revenues for the six months were $58 million, an increase of 37 percent from $42.4 million for the first half of '94. But expenses resulting from the first full year of operation of the Sports Spectrum training center, a slight decline in profit margins due to the shift from wagering on live racing to interstate simulcast wagering, and start-up costs and delays in opening Churchill's satellite wagering facilities in Indiana contributing to lower-than-expected profits from the operation in Indiana, are all expected to impact net income for the second half of the year. Accordingly, Churchill Downs currently expects that net income for Fiscal Year 1995 will approximate 1994's record earnings of $1.63 per share.

DUELING GROUNDS ANNOUNCES FALL

STAKES SCHEDULE Dueling Grounds Race Course will conduct its 1995 Thoroughbred racing season for nine days this September; the track will feature live racing Saturdays through Mondays, on September 9-11, 16-18, and 23-25. All races will be run over the 11-furlong turf track. Highlighting the stakes schedule is the $100,000 Sanford Duncan for older horses at about one mile, set for September 9; the $125,000 Rachel Jackson for the distaffers at about one mile September 23; and the $250,000 Sam Houston for older horses at about one mile and a half September 24. Dueling Grounds will hold four live races on each of its Saturday and Sunday cards, and eight live races on Mondays; there will also be full-card simulcasting.

Local News: Saratoga

Because of a problem with an AT&T fiber optic line caused by a downed pole in the upstate Watervliet area, the transmission of most of the wagering information to and from off-track wagering sites using AT&T service ceased after yesterday's fourth race at Saratoga. Fans attending the simulcast at Aqueduct were given free Saratoga T-shirts, and anyone who had paid admission to the Equestria dining room was given a raincheck. Because of the transmission problems, twilight simulcasting from Del Mar was also canceled.

Local News, Del Mar:

Pacific Classic Day was a huge winner for Del Mar. The combined attendance (on-track and at inter-track wagering sites) of 58,073 set a single-day record, while on-track attendance of 29,906 was the second highest in the track's history. Total handle of $14,852,614 was also the second highest ever. In addition, combined handle for Saturday and Sunday set a new record for weekend handle at $27,914,008.

Lakeway (Seattle Slew), third in Sunday's Gill Rancho Bernardo Breeders' Cup in her first start since August '94, was given a good grade by trainer Gary Jones Monday. "She really got tired," he said. "But she ran fine. Nobody was going to beat that filly (Track Gal) yesterday." Depending on the four-year-old's progress, Jones said the Gill Chula Vista H. September 3 at Del Mar might be Lakeway's next start.
