COLONIAL DOWNS ATTRACTS NEW

INVESTOR Stansley Management Corp. announced Wednesday it has reached an agreement in principal for an immediate infusion of $1 million in equity and a commitment for up to an additional $9 million in equity funding for its Colonial Downs racetrack, Virginia's first parimutuel horse racing track, and its six Satellite Wagering Facilities. The investor, Jeffrey P. Jacobs, is president of Jacobs Investments Inc., a commercial and residential real estate development firm and a member of the Jacobs family, who owns the Cleveland Indians major league baseball team. Pending approval of the investment by the Virginia Racing Commission and satisfaction of certain other conditions, Jacobs will become at least a five percent shareholder in Stansley Management Corp. A former Ohio Republican state representative, Jacobs is also president of Jacobs Entertainment Inc., which is currently building a $60 million casino in the Denver, Colorado area. Bond financing for Colonial Downs has been delayed since November, 1994 by an appeal filed by James Wilson and the Virginia Jockey Club. The appeal, which was rejected by the Richmond Circuit Court, is pending in the Virginia State Court of Appeals. Speaking about his investment, Jacobs said, "We believe Colonial Downs is a blueprint for successful horse racing and view the pending appeal as nothing more than a nuisance suit. We feel this is a flat out win-win investment for us and the horse industry in the state of Virginia." Colonial Downs was awarded the license to construct Virginia's only Thoroughbred and Standardbred pari-mutuel race track on a 345-acre site in New Kent County midway between Richmond and Williamsburg.

Magical Retreat set a moderate pace from DANCE A DREAM (Sadler's Wells) and Irish Oaks heroine Pure Grain and this order was maintained until a half-mile out, when Pure Grain came to challenge the leader. With more than 1/4-mile to run Pure Grain appeared to take easy command, but Magical Retreat refused to give in and battled back to close on the favorite, who held on to win narrowly. Winning trainer Michael Stoute said, "Pure Grain is tremendously game. She refused to settle and used up a lot of petrol as a result; otherwise, I'm sure she would have won much more impressively, especially if the pace had been stronger. She's in all the major races for the rest of the season, including the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe." Third-place finisher and German G1 winner Wind In Her Hair, 119 days in foal to Arazi, was running her last race before retirement.

Scottish Equitable Gimcrack S. Result Continued.

An easy winner of the G3 Coventry S. at Royal Ascot in his last start, Royal Applause had to work much harder to win here, just getting the better of Tumbleweed Ridge. Sent off the 4-6 favorite, Royal Applause is now 3-for-3 in his career. "He's got plenty of natural ability and is a good horse over six furlongs," said winning trainer Barry Hills. "He might run next in the Middle Park S."

News Continued.

COURTLY DEE DEAD Early Wednesday morning, August 16, Courtly Dee (Never Bend) died quietly in her paddock. She was 27 years old. Courtly Dee, Broodmare of the Year in 1983, produced eight stakes winners from 18 foals, including 1983 Champion Two-Year-Old Filly Althea and additional graded stakes winners Ali Oop, Ketoh, Native Courier, Aishah, Aquilegia and Twining. In addition, Courtly Dee's daughters have produced nine stakes winners to date, including Foreign Courier's son Green Desert, a Group 1 winner and champion in Europe and now a successful sire. Courtly Dee was owned by Alexander-Groves. She was boarded at King Ranch in Lexington, Kentucky.

WAAJIB TO JAPAN Celebrations were in order at Japan's Shadai Farm after the narrow victory by Royal Applause (GB) in the G2 Gimcrack S. at York Wednesday, as only hours before it was revealed that the two-year-old's sire Waajib (Ire) (Try My Best) is to stand at stud there next season. The 12-year-old stallion goes to Shadai after Teruya Yoshida reached a deal with former owners Coolmore Stud. Details of Waajib's valuation have not been released. Irish-bred Waajib, a Group stakes winner in both France and England, stood his first season at Coolmore Stud in Ireland in 1989 after notching seven career victories for earnings of $304,885. From four crops of racing age, including two-year-olds of 1995, he has sired 35 winners and nine stakes-winners for progeny earnings-to-date of $941,944.

CONSTRUCTION PROGRESSES AT FAIR

GROUNDS Construction is progressing on Fair Grounds' new $27.5-million, 217,000-square foot grandstand/clubhouse project. The building is scheduled for completion January 11, 1996, midway through the live racing season beginning Thanksgiving Day, November 23, 1995 and running through March 25, 1996. A seven-alarm fire destroyed Fair Grounds' old grandstand December 17, 1993 and since then, the track has conducted its race meetings from temporary facilities. "We're halfway finished with the steel," said Fair-Grounds President and General Manager Bryan Krantz. "I think when the horsemen get back this fall, they're going to be surprised at the progress we've made." Construction began in July 1994, and the first permanent structure to be completed since the fire was an OTB building which has doubled as a temporary clubhouse. The OTB building was opened to the public in December 1994 at a cost of $2.9 million.

CTHS YEARLING SALE AVERAGE UP The Canadian Thoroughbred Horse Society, British Columbia Division, held its 1995 Summer Yearling Sale August 13. There were 103 yearlings sold for a gross of $1,136,700 and an average of $11,036, up 15.8 percent from the 1994 average of $9,529. There were 33 individuals reported as not sold. The sales topper was a dark bay or brown filly by Vice Regent--Excruciation (Bold Hour), consigned by Salishan Meadows and purchased by L.S. Nordahl of British Columbia for $50,758.

Taylor turf course. "It was a lovely work," beamed trainer Roger Attfield. "He was very comfortable. He had a great stride and was well within himself. Todd (regular jockey Todd Kabel) had trouble pulling him up." Twelve horses are expected to contest the third jewel in the Canadian Triple Crown, and Attfield believes Regal Discovery is the horse to beat. "He's the best three-year-old on the grounds," Attfield said. "He won The Queen's Plate and was runner-up in the Prince of Wales in a race that didn't have any pace at all."

MGSW Irish Linnet, dropping down from graded stakes company, took the Yaddo H. for the fifth straight year yesterday when she went wire-to-wire as the 2-5 favorite under regular jockey John Velazquez. Making her tally even more impressive, the seven-year-old mare carried 124 pounds, 11 more than her nearest rival, Kris's Kiss. "Winning this race is really important," said trainer Leo O'Brien. "It will probably be a long time before a filly or mare wins the same race five years in a row. I'm proud of her because she won it as a three-year-old and that's a difficult thing to do." O'Brien added that chances are pretty good Irish Linnet will compete again next year.

Local News, New York:

Beginning with the award for outstanding achievement in the 1995 racing year, the annual trophy given to the top trainer of New York-breds will be designated "The Sally A. Bailie Trainer-of-the-Year Award." The announcement was made after a unanimous vote by the Board of New York Thoroughbred Breeders Inc. (NYTB) after a meeting in Saratoga Monday. Ms. Bailie, who recently became ill, earned two Trainer-of-the-Year awards in 1984 and 1985. "Sally Bailie was not only an exemplary recipient of the Trainer-of-the-Year award, but she also has had very close ties to New York's breeding industry," said Dr. Douglas B. Koch, president of NYTB. "She has been a breeder and trainer--as well as a breeder/owner/trainer--of New York-breds for much of the past two decades, and exemplifies the quality and resiliency of our industry. She has also been a long and active member of NYTB."

Local News, Belmont Park:

Mike Lakow, acting racing secretary at Belmont and Aqueduct, has been named racing secretary at the two tracks, it was announced yesterday by Terry Meyocks, NYRA director of racing. "Mike has...earned the right to be named to those positions on a permanent basis," said Meyocks. "Mike has an excellent background in the game and has demonstrated the ability to become one of the top racing secretaries in the game." Said Lakow, "New York has presented the greatest racing in the country, and I hope to continue to improve on that reputation."

Local News, Saratoga:

Trainer Phil Serpe said Wednesday that Birdonthewire (Proud Birdie) will return to action in the August 23 seven-furlong Forego H. at Saratoga. The six-year-old GI winner has not raced since finishing second to Holy Bull in the $100,000 Olympic H. at Gulfstream Jan. 22. "He worked Monday (five furlongs in 1:03) and it was exactly what we wanted," Serpe said. "He came home in :23 4/5. He'll work a half-mile either Sunday or Monday." Winner of the GII Forego H. in 1993, Birdonthewire has been sidelined since January due to an ankle injury.

Trainer Mark Hennig's Sierra Diablo (Conquistador Cielo), winner of the GIII Baldwin S. at Santa Anita March 22, has been gelded since his last race in an effort to help him "focus on racing." In his most recent outing July 30 at Saratoga, the three-year-old finished fifth in a seven-furlong allowance.

PEAKS AND VALLEYS (c, 3, Mt. Livermore--Strike a Balance, by Green Dancer), who registered back-to-back wins in the April 29 GIII Derby Trial and the May 13 GII Illinois Derby, hadn't raced since his victory in the Sportsman's Park event. Pairing up with jockey Julie Krone once again, the Kentucky-bred rated in mid-pack to the top of the stretch, was angled five-wide for the drive and closed willingly for 1/2-length score as the 3-5 favorite. Last year's Queen's Plate hero BASQUEIAN (Bounding Basque), returning to the races after undergoing surgery for a hairline fracture to his right rear cannon bone, rallied late to be 4th. Lifetime Record: 8-6-1-1, $566,685.
