THUNDER GULCH STORMS TO

TRIVERS WIN Proving more powerful with each performance, Thunder Gulch (Gulch) let it be known yesterday that the race for Horse of the Year honors has not yet been won. Once considered no better than the third-best Team Lukas three-year-old, the colt stamped himself a champion with his decisive 4 1/2-length score in the GI $750,000 Travers S. at Saratoga, his fourth Grade I win of the year. "I think he's one of the best three-year-olds in a long time," said trainer D. Wayne Lukas. "You're going to have to go back in the record books a long way to find one who's done what he's done." Indeed, no horse has ever taken both the Swaps and the Travers after a Triple Crown campaign, and after dominating his division, Thunder Gulch will look for new worlds to conquer against the older horses--and his main rival for the ultimate Eclipse, Bill Mott trainee Cigar (Palace Music). Looking forward to the fall, Lukas said, "This horse beats other horses, and I think he'll continue to do that. I think Mott's plans will be affected by us. We're coming off two nice races in a 30-day interval and he's coming off a layoff. There will be some cat and mouse. We're looking at the Woodward...if Cigar runs there, so be it. It's a great series coming up. If you don't like racing in the fall at Belmont, you don't like racing."

HALL OF FAMER ADAMS PASSES AWAY

Johnny Adams, successful as both a jockey and a trainer, died yesterday morning at his home in Arcadia, California after a long illness. He was 79. Inducted into racing's Hall of Fame in 1965, Adams booted home more than 3,000 winners during his 24-year riding career; he won the Santa Anita H. in 1939 and 1946, and the Preakness in 1954. After retiring from the saddle in 1958, he conditioned such stakes winners as Niarkos, J.O. Tobin and Relaunch. In lieu of flowers, the family asked that donations be made to the Shoemaker Foundation or the Disabled Jockeys Fund.

Saturday, Saratoga

TRIVERS S.-GI, $750,000, SAR, 8-19, 3yo, 1 1/4m, 2:03 3/5, ft.

1--THUNDER GULCH, 126, c, 3, Gulch--Line of Thunder (G1SP-Eng, $115,913), by Storm Bird. ($40,000 yrl '93 KEEJUL). O-Tabor Michael; B-Brant Peter M (KY); T-D Wayne Lukas; J-G L Stevens; $450,000. Lifetime Record: 14-8-2-2, $2,632,586.

3--Malthus, 126, c, 3, Temperence Hill--Hytania, by Buckpasser. ($11,000 yrl '93 KEESEP). O-Perez Robert; B-Leet Lynda G (KY); $82,500.

Margins: 4HF, 2, 2HF. Odds: 0.75, 4.10, 25.00.

Also Ran: Composer, Star Standard, Citadeed, Rank and File.

Putting to rest any doubt as to who is the top three-year-old, Thunder Gulch put in his most impressive effort to date, overcoming a slight bobble at the start to stalk the pace through moderate fractions before unleashing a stretch drive that carried him past Pyramid Peak and left him well in front for the three-year-old Eclipse Award. "Now when he's getting the lead, he's going on," said trainer D. Wayne Lukas. "Four months ago he would have run with that horse--now he's finding that extra gear and kicking in, and that's important in his development. Ever since the Swaps, he has been very aggressive." The chestnut is now six-for-eight on the year, and unbeaten at the Breeders' Cup Classic distance of a mile and a quarter. "He's such an athlete," said his jockey, Gary Stevens. "And once he sticks his head in front, he doesn't lose. Last fall at Aqueduct when I rode him for the first time, he didn't do anything right and he still won. I said to Wayne, 'he's got talent, but it's a game to him.' It's not a game any longer. He's got a job to do now that he loves. I'm looking forward to Breeders' Cup Day." The Travers Day total handle of $20,336,881.68 was a Saratoga record, besting the previous mark of $17,670,784 set Travers Day 1993.

Collecta (Fr) (Caerleon), who shipped from France and arrived just Friday evening for the race, was scratched due to a tender spot on her back. Sleep Easy (Seattle Slew) makes her turf debut; she is already a Grade I winner on dirt after a 1 1/4-length score in the nine-furlong Hollywood Oaks in her most recent outing.

Favored Key Contender (Fit to Fight) was scheduled to ship down from Saratoga last night. The chestnut breaks from the rail, but his connections are not concerned about the favorite's post. "You have to play the hand you're dealt," said Carlos Martin, assistant to his dad, trainer Jose Martin. "It's not a bad situation, because you save a lot of ground. But being inside puts you in a difficult position--you have to use your horse a little so you don't get shuffled back to last. But he has good tactical speed, and Jerry Bailey is a Hall of Fame rider. If anyone can find a way to weave through horses, he can."

| 8 | Forcing Bid | Carroll | Leon | 10-1 |
| 9 | Blushing Maggie | Lauer | Chavez | 15-1 |

Even if she stumbles at the start, it's hard to believe that the Graveyard of Favorites will claim another victim in this race. So, with the race conceded to Heavenly Prize (Seeking the Gold), the competition will be for second place. Cinnamon Sugar (Ire) (Wild Again) was no match for the top one in the GI Apple Blossom H. in April, but she has run well since and looked strong winning a Saratoga allowance at a mile and an eighth last time. Undefeated over the course, she has raced well in Grade I stakes in the past and has been first or second in 13 of her 19 career starts.
