FULL-CARD SIMULCASTING BOOSTS

SARATOGA HANDLE Buoyed by solid inter-track wagering, the total handle for the 1995 Saratoga meet was up 6.6 percent; a total of $384,769,883 was wagered during the 34-day season which ended yesterday, up from $360,798,301 in 1994. While on-track handle was down 7.2 percent and wagering at the Aqueduct simulcast was off 25.9 percent from 1994, the ITW numbers were strong, showing a 72 percent increase over last year's figure; the ITW total was $114,683,672 this year as compared to just $66,512,701 a year ago. Total attendance both on-track, 753,278, and at the Aqueduct simulcast, 176,402, was off from 1994, down 4.1 percent on-track and 19.5 percent at Aqueduct. In the trainer and jockey races, Bill Mott led the conditioners for the third time in four years with 18 victories, and '94 jockey champ Jerry Bailey topped the rider standings once again with a Saratoga record 47 wins.

LAKE CONISTON HEADS HAYDOCK SPRINT

Lake Coniston (Bluebird), top-rated sprinter in Europe following his impressive win in Newmarket's July Cup last time out, looks certain to start an odds-on favourite for Saturday's six-furlong G1 Haydock Park Sprint Cup, and a change in the weather has his trainer, Geoff Lewis, optimistic about his chances. After what has been Britain's hottest summer in 20 years, nearly a half an inch of rain fell on the Haydock course Sunday, ensuring perfect conditions for the four-year-old sprint star. "The horse goes well enough when it's fast, but good ground would be fair to everyone and there should be no excuses," said Lewis. Also expected for the race are Cool Jazz (Lead On Time), Owington (Green Desert), So Factual (Known Fact), Branston Abby (Risk Me), Cherokee Rose (Dancing Brave), Lavinia Fontana (Sharpo), Mind Games (Puissance) and Princely Hush (Prince Sabo). Lake Coniston is currently being quoted at 4-7, with So Factual next in the early betting at 3-1.

Looking to bounce back from her first defeat in the Gill Sorority S. at Monmouth in her last, Golden Attraction, winner of the Schuylerville S. on opening day at Saratoga, appropriately ended the meet with a game victory over fellow Spa stakes winner Flat Fleet Feet. Sent right to the lead out of the gate, the bright bay lost her advantage briefly when the runner-up slipped through on the rail as they headed down the stretch but battled back and edged clear to her first Grade I win. "She was very aggressive early and I didn't want to fight her," said jockey Gary Stevens, who also piloted Lukas trainee Hennessy to victory in Sunday's G1 Hopeful; he added, "Winning any race here is special...this year has been very special for me." Trainer D. Wayne Lukas, who was winning this race for the sixth time in the last 12 years, said he would skip the Matron and run Golden Attraction back in the Frizette October 7.

UNANIMOUS VOTE RETIRED Robert Sabinske's Unanimous Vote (Ire) (Roi Danzig), winner of Churchill's American Turf S. this spring and third in the Gil American Derby two starts back, suffered a career-ending injury when finishing last in Sunday's GI Secretariat S. at Arlington. "He bowed a tendon," said trainer Tom Amoss of the three-year-old. "The owner and I agree that it is best to retire him rather than jeopardize his future by trying to bring him back and racing him in cheaper company...he's been too good to us to consider that option. Our priority now is to find him a good home and let him enjoy the rest of his life."

Bidding for her third straight win after taking allowance events at Laurel and Saratoga, La Turka stepped up to stakes company as the 9-2 second choice. Rated off the flank of KUDOS FOR SWEETS (Duck Dance) (6th) for a half, she inherited the lead when that one faltered and held it all the way home, proving gamest in a long drive to head 3-5 Duda on the wire.

GILDER (c, 4, Smile--Rythmical {SW}, by Fappiano) came back from a nine-month layoff to finish sixth in a Saratoga allowance last time out. Ignored in the wagering at 18-1 in his second start back, the bay tried his luck on the turf and found the surface to his liking, leading the field from gate to wire to win by a length and three-quarters over 3-5 CRIMSON GUARD (Danzig).
