THUNDER GULCH TO KENTUCKY CUP Thunder Gulch (Gulch) will join stablemate Serena's Song (Rahy) at Turfway Park Sept. 23 and will start in the $400,000 Kentucky Cup Classic, trainer Wayne Lukas confirmed yesterday. "I want to do everything I can to have him the best he can be on Breeders' Cup Day," said Lukas. "This gives me more time and gives me a nice break (before the Breeders' Cup)." The trainer added that while it is "doubtful" Thunder Gulch will start between the Kentucky Cup and the Breeders Cup, a start in the Oct. 7 Jockey Club Gold Cup is not out of the question. Lukas also said avoiding Cigar (Palace Music) in the Woodward had nothing to do with his decision to go to Kentucky. "The time to meet Cigar is now," he said. "If that were one of my concerns, I would go to the Woodward. Cigar will be coming off a 10-week layoff and may not be as sharp as he can be. We're giving him the edge by giving him a couple of races."

CIGAR WORKS FOR WOODWARD Cigar (Palace Music), winner of all nine of his starts since being switched from turf to dirt last October, worked a mile Wednesday morning at Belmont in an even 1:41.93 in preparation for the Sept. 16 GI Woodward S. "Considering he worked by himself, it's what I would have expected him to do," said trainer Bill Mott. "It was a good move. He'll have one more breeze the middle of next week." The five-year-old has not raced since winning the $1,000,000 Hollywood Gold Cup July 2. "He's responded well to his layoff," Mott said. "He's a nice horse to train because he's sensible...very smart. He's a willing work horse but he won't do more than he has to do." Among those scheduled to face Cigar in the Woodward is Belmont S. runner-up Star Standard (Risen Star).

Today, Doncaster, England:

EAST COAST DONCASTER CUP-G3, $50,840a, 3yo/up, 2 1/4mT

Double Trigger (Ire) (Ela-Mana-Mou {Ire}), allotted top weight of 133 pounds in November's Melbourne Cup, has his second to last start before flying to Australia in today's Doncaster Cup. The four-year-old, already successful this year in the G1 Ascot Gold Cup and G2 Goodwood Gold Cup, is expected to run in Longchamp's Prix du Cadran Sept. 30 if all goes well at Doncaster. "There are no complaints about Double Trigger's weight at Flemington and the plan is to run Nov. 8," said trainer Mark Johnston. Trying to stop Double Trigger's winning streak at three in today's event will be Admiral's Well (Sadler's Wells), Cuff Link (Caerleon), Escarpment (Green Dancer), Further Flight (Pharly) and Old Rouvel (Riverman).

Today, Doncaster, England:

MAY HILL S.-G3, $41,596a, 2yo, f, 1mT

Undefeated Bint Salsabil (Nashwan), winner of the seven furlong Enza New Zealand Sweet Solera S. at Newmarket in her last start August 5, will face 10 rivals in today's event. They are, in post position order, Like A Hawk (Silver Hawk), Faraway Waters (Pharly), Ailesbury Hill (Woodman), Myrtle (Batshoof), Staffin (Salse), Bint Salsabil, Ruznama (Forty Niner), Sweet Robin (Mujtahid), Solar Crystal (Alzao), Witch of Fife (Lear Fan) and Gryada (Shirley Heights). Bint Salsabil will carry 124 pounds, while the rest of the field will tote 121.

Saturday, Del Mar:

PALOMAR H.-GI, $125,000a, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/16mT

Trainer Richard Mandella is hopeful that 1993 Champion Juvenile Filly Phone Chatter (Phone Trick) is ready for a big effort in the Palomar H. The four-year-old made her first start on the turf July 19 at Hollywood Park, finishing second by 1/2-length to Morgana (El Gran Senor) in the one-mile Melvin Durslag S. "She was just beat in her last race and I expect improvement," said Mandella. A victory would put Phone Chatter's earnings over the $900,000 mark. Expected to face the chestnut once again is Gary Jones-trainee Morgana, who has raced just once since defeating Phone Chatter, finishing second to Possibly Perfect in the GI Ramona H. at Del Mar Aug. 5. "Morgana is doing well and all systems are go," said assistant trainer Marty Jones. "Hopefully we'll get an honest pace for her. If we don't, (frontrunner) Yearly Tour (Half a Year) could be tough."

ELTISH TO FRANKEL Eltish (Cox's Ridge), runner-up in last year's Breeders' Cup Juvenile and sixth in the Kentucky Derby, is set to leave Henry Cecil's yard to join Bobby Frankel's stable in California. "Eltish has left my yard and will now race in the States," said Cecil. "He has run two good races there and it makes sense for him to have another chance to prove himself on dirt. He's tough, strong and very sound." Eltish has yet to win as a three-year-old, coming closest when second by a short head to Muhtarram (Alleged) in the Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot.

SOUL CITY DESTROYED Soul City (Carson City), one of the more impressive two-year-old winners in New York this year with his six-length debut victory at Belmont Monday, was humanely destroyed Tuesday following an operation to repair two broken front cannon bones. The $225,000 two-year-old purchase was vanned from the track following Monday's race and was euthanized during surgery the following day. "Dr. (Stephen) Selway got in there, examined the joints and felt it was impossible to get any stability in the legs," said trainer John Kimmel. "Both were condylar displaced fractures, and he recommended we put the horse down. This was a tough pill to swallow."

NUMEROUS RETIRED TO HILL 'N' DALE Numerous (Mr. Prospector) has been retired due to a foot injury and will stand at Hill 'n' Dale Farm in Lexington, Ky. for the 1996 breeding season. "Numerous is a superb individual who sold for $1.7 million dollars as a yearling and is the full brother to Jade Robbery, one of the most prominent young stallions in Japan," said Hill 'n' Dale President John Sikura. Numerous earned $255,348 in his career, including a win in the 1994 GIII Derby Trial S. The four-year-old colt made his last start Monday at Arlington Park.

AUTOTOTE SHOWS THIRD QUARTER LOSS Autotote Corporation announced losses of $29.2 million, or $1.01 per share, on 28.9 million shares outstanding for the third fiscal quarter ending July 31. The company recorded unusual charges of $22.8 million in the third quarter, resulting from their restructuring, bank credit agreement fees and valuation adjustments. Recurring service revenues increased by 30.4%, to $34.6 million, which the company attributed to improved operations in Connecticut OTB, North American parimutuel and simulcast operations.

THOROUGHBRED TIMES LAUNCHES ON-LINE MAGAZINE ON INTERNET Thoroughbred Times Company Inc. yesterday announced an on-line version of its weekly magazine covering the Thoroughbred industry, offering computer users easy and fast access to news, racing stories and photographs. Selected portions of the news and racing coverage provided in the pages of the print version of the magazine are accessible through the "Thoroughbred Times home page" on the World Wide Web. "The Internet is exploding and the Thoroughbred world is relying more and more upon on-line information sources for critical decision making," said Editor Mark Simon. "The placement of the magazine on the World Wide Web continues Thoroughbred Times' leadership in another wave of change for the industry." Anyone with access to the Internet can reach the page at <http://www.iglou.com/thoroughbredtimes/>.

Local News, Belmont Park:

Owner/trainer Richard Dutrow confirmed yesterday that Lite the Fuse (Buckaroo) will make his next start in the seven furlong GI Vosburgh S. Sept. 16. The four-year-old breezed a bullet five furlongs in :59.37 Monday at Aqueduct with jockey Julie Krone in the irons. "He couldn't be any better," Dutrow said. "He came back absolutely fine, his little ankle jam-up is gone and he's in great shape." After winning the Gil Tom Fool S. and Gil Frank J. De Francis Memorial Dash S. in July, Lite the Fuse finished third as the 3-5 favorite in the Gil Forego H. at Saratoga Aug. 23. "Plans remain to run in the Breeders' Cup (Sprint), but this will be a key race," Dutrow added.

Taking on the boys here off a 2½-month layoff, the chestnut filly sat just off the flank of Fleet Wahine down the backside, took command at the top of the stretch and drew off to win her 4th straight as the 1-2 favorite.

Local News, Rockingham Park:

Edward Callahan, vice president and general manager of Rockingham Park, has been named the 1995 Businessperson of the Year by the Greater Salem Chamber of Commerce. Callahan gave credit for his award to the ownership of Rockingham, which includes Joseph Carney, Tom Carney, Max Hugel and Edward Keelan. "They are the ones who allow their employees the time to work with the community and to use the track's money to do so," he said. Callahan was named general manager of Rockingham in 1983.
