KEENELAND INTRODUCES "FALL STARS WEEKEND"

Keeneland will kick off its 16-day fall race meeting with "Fall Stars Weekend," during which five stakes races worth $950,000 will be run Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 7 and 8. Included in "Fall Stars Weekend" are the GI Spinster, GII Breeders' Futurity, GII Alcibiades S. and GIII Keeneland Breeders' Cup. "By scheduling several of our most important fall features on the first two days, it gets the meeting off to an exciting start and gives horses plenty of time between Keeneland's races and the Breeders' Cup," explained Keeneland President Bill Greely. The traditional centerpiece of the fall meeting, the $300,000a, weight-for-age Spinster for fillies and mares, ages three and up at 1 1/8-miles, will be run Sunday, Oct. 8. That same day, Keeneland will run two, $200,000a races for two-year-olds, the Breeders' Futurity for juveniles of either sex and the Alcibiades for fillies. Opening day features two turf races, the $175,000a Keeneland Breeders' Cup for ages three and up and the $75,000a Valley View Breeders' Cup for three-year-old fillies.

JOCKEY CLUB RELEASES 1993 BREEDING STATISTICS

The Jockey Club yesterday released breeding statistics on 6,335 Thoroughbred stallions reported as having covered 62,003 mares in 1993. These coverings resulted in 38,152 foals of 1994. The figures indicate an overall average live foal percentage of 61, the same as the previous year. The number of stallions decreased by 7.6 percent from the 6,858 reported in 1992. There was a 5.7 percent decline from the 65,759 mares reported bred in 1992, reflecting a similar decrease in the 1994 registered foal crop. Thoroughbred breeding activity in Kentucky topped all other regions. In the Bluegrass state 14,409 mares reported bred in 1993 produced 10,133 live foals. California reported 5,976 mares bred and 3,960 live foals. Florida was ranked third with 5,841 mares and 3,758 live foals. Remaining states on the top ten breeding activity list were: Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Maryland, Washington, New York and Illinois. The complete list of U.S.-bred foals dropped abroad is as follows: Brazil (35), India (31), Mexico (25), Ireland (23), Argentina (18), France (17), Philippines (8), Colombia (7), Australia (4), Peru (4), Trinidad and Tobago (2) and Italy (1). Countries failing to file reports included Chile, the Dominican Republic and Thailand.

Also Ran: Moccasin Run, Shahid (GB), Bin Ajwaad (Ire), Brief Glimpse (Ire), Indhar (GB).

This was a relatively easy win for Bishop of Cashel, who looked at the two-furlong pole as though he had nowhere to go. When a gap did appear, Walter Swinburn was quick to take advantage and the colt ran on well. "Bishop of Cashel does not take a lot of keeping fit," said trainer James Fanshaw. "He likes soft ground so I was pleased to see the rain. The horse is likely to go for the Queen Elizabeth Stakes. It depends how he takes this race."

Bidding to win the stayers 'Triple Crown' of the Goodwood Cup, Ascot Gold Cup and Doncaster Cup, Double Trigger was sent to post the 11-4 favorite. Although he did not set the ruthless pace that he had done at Ascot, Double Trigger did make the running, but it was not until the runners had three-quarters of a mile to go that he picked it up and really galloped. The win has established him as favorite for Australia's Nov. 7 Melbourne Cup; he will first be pointed for the Sept. 30 Prix du Cadran at Longchamp. "He needs a decent pace to enable him to use his stamina," said winning trainer Mark Johnston, "and I don't expect they'll hang about in the Melbourne Cup. What sets him apart as one of the best stayers have seen lately is his ability to quicken. He has an extra gear and that means he has class."

MAY HILL S.-G3, $46,828, Doncaster, England, 9-7, 2yo, f, 1mT, 1:39.44, gd.

3--Ruznama, 121, f, 2, Forty Niner--Last Feather, by Vaguely Noble. O-Hamdan Al Maktoum. $5,007. Margins: 1 1/4, 3/4, 3/4.

Also Ran: Sweet Robin (Ire), Myrtle (GB), Gryada (GB), Staffin (GB), Bint Salsabil, Ailesbury Hill, Witch of Fife, Faraway Water (GB).

Solar Crystal won this race impressively, having made all the running to provide trainer Henry Cecil with his ninth win in the race in its 20 runnings, as well as his 300th European Pattern win. This was Solar Crystal's first race over a mile, but it proved to be no problem. "She may be a Classic prospect," said owner Michael Poland. "We will have to wait and see." The previously undefeated BINT SALSABIL (Nashwan) was a disappointing runner, making no impression at all on the race.

Alhaarth (Ire) (Unfuwain), undefeated in three career starts and the early favorite for next year's 2000 Guineas and Epsom Derby, comes into today's race off tallies in the G3 Lanson Champagne Vintage S. at Goodwood and the G3 Solario S. at Sandown Park. Sheikh Hamdan al Maktoum's colt lines up alongside just two opponents in this G2 event: MGSP Take A Left (GB) (Formidable) and Rio Duvida (GB) (Salse), winner of two of three career starts in England.

MOLSON MILLION FIELD TAKES SHAPE The Molson Export Million, which this year was elevated to Grade I status, is expected to draw a full field for its eighth edition, set for Sunday, September 17. Four three-year-olds have supplemented to the race at a cost of $15,000 apiece: GII Del Mar Derby winner Da Hoss (Gone West); GII Jim Dandy winner Composer (Easy Goer); his stablemate Strawberry Wine (Strawberry Road {Aus}), also trained by Bill Mott; and the top filly Kathie's Colleen (Woodman), winner of the GII Monmouth Oaks and only the second distaff runner in the nine-furlong event. Del Mar Derby runner-up Lake George (Vice Regent); Louisiana and Ohio Derby winner Petionville (Seeking the Gold); Queen's Plate victor Regal Discovery (Regal Classic); Prince of Wales winner Kiridashi (Bold Ruckus); Illinois Derby winner Peaks And Valleys (Mt. Livermore); Queen's Plate second Freedom Fleet (Afleet); For Pete's Sake (Clever Trick); and Mt. Sassafras (Mt. Livermore) are also pointing for Woodbine's million-dollar event.

BALANCHINE RETURNS SUNDAY Balanchine (Storm Bird), not seen since disappointing in her only outing of 1995 at Royal Ascot in June, returns to race-course action in this Sunday's G3 Prix Foy at Longchamp. Rated Europe's top three-year-old filly last season after wins in the Epsom Oaks and Irish Derby, she will need to be at her best facing last year's Arc winner Carnegie (Sadler's Wells). But, following a series of promising workouts on the Newmarket gallops recently, her connections are hoping she can recapture her old form and justify an Arc entry of her own. Simon Crisford, racing manager for owner Godolphin, said, "Balanchine is fresh and very well in herself. She had been working well and, although we have to reserve judgement until she's back doing it on the track, as long as we get good ground we are hopeful of a very good performance Sunday." Also probable for the Prix Foy are Solid Illusion (Cozzene) and Volochine (Soviet Star).

Local News, Pimlico:

Jockey Edgar Prado made a successful return to racing Thursday with a winner, two seconds and a third from five mounts. The 28-year-old native of Peru, who had been Maryland's top rider from 1990-93, had not ridden in a race since May 23 when he suffered a broken collarbone in a spill at Pimlico.

The field of eight, in post position order, is as follows: Dust Bucket (Spend a Buck), no rider; Smart 'n Noble (Smarten), Pino; Zingadoon (Doonesbury), Lopez; Chaposa Springs (Baldski), Bailey; Reet Petite (Maudlin), Migliore; Twist Afleet (Afleet), Smith; Classy Mirage (Storm Bird), Krone; Up An Eighth (Ferdinand), Brown. Middletown Stables' Classy Mirage, highweight at 123 pounds, has won three of four starts this year, including a 6-length romp in the GI Ballerina H. at Saratoga Aug. 13. "We got a little lucky there," said trainer Allen Jerkens Thursday. "The favorite (Inside Information) stumbled at the start. Tomorrow is not going to be an easy race, especially with the weight, but when you go for that kind of money, it always comes up tough. You can't get anything by staying in the barn."
