CALDER CUTS PURSES AGAIN For the second time during the current meeting, Calder President Ken Dunn has been forced to cut purses. "We've overpaid the purses by more than $500,000 and there are only 40 racing days remaining before we finish the summer meeting. I've got to balance the books on this," said Dunn. The overpayment could be reconciled during next year's Calder summer meet, "But I don't want to carry a half-million dollar deficit over to next year," Dunn added. Beginning with Thursday's overnight, purses will drop by 13 percent to an average of $88,000 a day, down from $101,000 per day. Purses were averaging $105,000 a day at the beginning of the meet. The Calder president remarked, "I don't think we would be in this situation if the state would allow us to simulcast. We are hoping to work something out with them soon."

CANADIAN BREEDERS SALES FIRST SESSION

RESULTS The Canadian Breeders' Sales held the first of two sessions of its select Canadian-bred yearling sale at Woodbine Thursday night. There were 63 yearlings sold for a total of $1,567,400 and an average of $24,879. The night's highest priced yearling at $115,000 was a chestnut colt by Private Account--Reasonable Sin (Sinister Purpose). Consigned by Michael C. Byrne, agent, the colt, a half-brother to MSW and $227,257-earner Native Factor (Foolish Pleasure), was purchased by Edna P. Benson. Byrne, as agent, also sold the second highest-priced yearling of the session, a dark bay or brown colt by Alwuhush out of the multiple stakes-winning mare Bees 'n' Honey (Geiger Counter). The colt was purchased for $73,000 by Stephen Chiu.

CHRIS ANTLEY SIDELINED

An injury that plagues baseball pitchers primarily has benched jockey Chris Antley for the remainder of the Del Mar meet. Antley is suffering from a rotator cuff injury in his right shoulder. The jockey injured the shoulder in a starting-gate mishap recently. Charlie McCaul, in charge of the Del Mar jockeys' room, said Antley had complained that he wasn't able to raise his arm enough to be effective with the whip.

PERTEMPS ST. LEGER S.-G1, $416,306, Doncaster, England, 9-9, 3yo, c/f, 14f 132ydsT, 3:09.74, gd/sf.
1--CLASSIC CLICHE (IRE), 126, c, 3, Salse--Pato (GB) (SP-Eng), by High Top (Ire). O-Godolphin; B-Lord Victor Matthews; T-Saeed bin Suroor; J-L. Dettori; $256,974.
2--Minds Music, 126, c, 3, Silver Hawk--Misinskie, by Nijinsky II. ($75,000 yrlg '93 KEESEP). O-Stavros Niarchos; B-Flaxman Holdings Ltd.; $95,082.
3--Istidaad, 126, c, 3, Chief's Crown--Mazzei Mood, by Roberto. O-Sheikh Hamdan al Maktoum; B-Shadwell Farm Inc. & Shadwell Estate Co. Ltd.; $40,994.
Margins: 3 1/2, 2 1/2, 1/2. Odds: 10/3, 12/1, 11/1.
Also Ran: In Camera (Ire), Affidavit, Anchor Clever (GB), Kalabo, Luso (GB), Jellaby Ashkir (GB), Jural (GB).

Classic Cliche, made the 10-3 favorite after the late withdrawal of Presenting, gave the Maktoum family their 8th English Classic win in a row. He also gave his jockey Frankie Dettori his 1,000th winner in Britain (his first was at Goodwood in 1987). Classic Cliche was always well placed in 2nd or 3rd behind the frontrunning filly JURAL (GB) (Kris {GB}), then took the lead with 1/2-mile to run and from then on was never challenged, coming home to win easily. "What a great way to reach 1,000," said Dettori. "I'm very proud to have done it in a classic. This was the first time Classic Cliche had the ground to his liking. I knew he would be a St. Leger horse. He is a big, tall horse and has lots of stamina. Sometimes pedigrees can be deceiving. This was a great thrill for me." This marked Dettori's third Classic win in Britain, following scores with Balanchine and Moonshell. The win, Classic Cliche's first in a G1 event, boosted trainer Saeed bin Suroor's prize money in Britain this year to $2,826,403 from only 13 wins. No fixed plans have yet been made for the colt's next start, although Simon Crisford, Godolphin's racing manager, did suggest he might be campaigned in North America this autumn. "He'll definitely stay in training for next year," Crisford added.

Also Ran: Definite Article (GB), Needle Gun (Ire), Valanour (Ire), Hernando (Fr). Eased: Kayaara (Ire).

Pentire, winner of five of his six prior starts this year, improved his '95 record to six for seven with his 4th Group victory and his first in a Group 1 event. NEEDLE GUN (IRE) (Sure Blade) set a good pace, with VALANOUR (IRE) (Lomond) and Flagbird behind, while Pentire and HERNANDO (FR) (Niniski) were well in the back. At the turn Needle Gun remained in front, but was soon challenged by Flagbird, who looked the probable winner until Freedom Cry took command at the furlong marker. Pentire then made a strong move from the back. Freedom Cry still looked the winner with 25 yards to run, but he was passed in the final strides by a flying Pentire.

Rated well behind eye-catching fractions of :21 3/5 and :43 3/5, the Jersey-bred came flying at the finish to out-nod Buffalo Dan in the final strides.

Sent off the 6-5 chalk after running second after setting all the pace in the Gl Iselin H. in his last, the gelding this time kept his head in front from flagfall to finish, shaking off a challenge from Richie The Coach at the top of the stretch and easily holding Texturizer safe to the wire.

Margins: 1 1/4, 1, 3. Odds: 2.30, 2.10, 13.70A.

Hey Hazel, returning to her home base at Woodbine, bounced back from a 6th-place finish in the Gill Gardenia H. at Ellis Park, rallying from the back of the pack to catch frontrunning favorite Green Zircon and draw clear. A MSW on dirt including a pair of graded wins in the U.S. last year, the mare was picking up her first turf victory after going 0-for her first 9 starts on the weeds. "She's just been unlucky," said trainer Roger Attfield.

Margins: 1 3/4, NK, 2HF. Odds: 3.50, 3.40, 1.10.

Polar Expedition, a graded stakes winner at two and three, atoned for a narrow loss as the 4-5 chalk on dirt last time out. Trying turf for the first time since seventh in last year's Springfield S. at Arlington, he posted a wire-to-wire triumph under jockey E.T. Baird to reward his backers with a $9.00 payoff. Even-money Homing Pigeon made a run at the lead at the top of the stretch but weakened late and had to settle for third.

Local News, Remington Park:

Silver Goblin (Silver Ghost), who suffered a hairline fracture of his lower front right leg May 29 in the GI Metropolitan H. at Belmont Park, may return to racing sooner than expected. Trainer Kenny Smith said the four-year-old gelding will return to Remington Park to train around November 1, a month ahead of schedule, following his rehabilitation in Kentucky. "We'll race him again," Smith said. "He'll be ready for the spring." Silver Goblin has won 14 of 20 career starts for earnings of $1,025,395. His 11 stakes victories include the Gill Razorback H. at Oaklawn, Gill Fairmount Derby and Gill Omaha Gold Cup at Aksarben.

Fresh from winning her fifth straight Yaddo S. for New York-breds at Saratoga, Irish Linnet made it two in a row in this event. The seven-year-old sat third 'til they turned for home, then went up to challenge favored Caress and prevailed in the drive, edging away from that rival in the final strides. "I wanted to be close to the lead and not let them get too far in front of me," said winning jockey John Velazquez. "When I hit her with my left hand, she really responded and dug in hard." Trainer Leo O'Brien is considering the Sept. 23 GI Flower Bowl H. for the mare, but may opt to give her a little more time between races. "I have to talk it over with the owners before I make a decision. I don't want to run her too many times in a short period," said O'Brien.

 Prenup, beaten a nose going seven furlongs at Saratoga last out, stretched out to a mile for just the second time in his career; in his first try at a mile, he had wired the field in last year's GI Jerome H. at this track. The crowd's 6-5 choice this time followed HONEST COLORS (True Colors) to the far turn, then sprinted past the pacesetter and galloped on to a handy score under jockey Jose Santos.

PEACE PROCESS (c, 2, Vice Regent--Halo Again {SW, $166,562}, by Halo), sixth after making a brief bid in his debut at Saratoga August 24, came back at nearly 16-1 and rallied to best TAX BREAK (Miswaki) by a length. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $18,000.

LA GLORIA (f, 3, Saratoga Six--Le Moulin {MSP}, by *Hawaii), a distant second in her debut August 19, showed improved speed in her second start and wired the field for a 3 1/2-length victory. The 6-5 favorite DEVIL'S MINE (Mining) pressed the pace early but was no match for the winner, settling for second. La Gloria is a 1/2 to Le Slew (Seattle Slew), GSW, $407,761. Morgana, who defeated '93 Juvenile Filly Champion PHONE CHATTER (Phone Trick) by 1/2-length to win the Melvin Durslag S. two starts back and finished second in the GI Ramona H. in her last outing, raced 6th in the 7-horse field until the top of the stretch, where she launched a rally that saw her 1 1/2 in front at the wire for her first graded stakes victory. "They were going slow (on the front end) and I knew it, but I didn't want to change her style," said winning jockey Gary Stevens. "I knew she had that good late kick and I knew she'd give it to me. She's a nice filly. She's a treat to ride." 6-5 favorite Yearly Tour pressed the pace down the backside, led by 2 1/2 early in the stretch then was outfinished by Morgana. Phone Chatter, dismissed in the odds at 9-1, raced 5th through the first six furlongs, dropped back to be 7th and last at the top of the lane then passed tiring rivals to finish 5th.

Princess Afleet, who shocked the bettors with a 6-length win at 70-1 odds in a California-bred turf allowance two starts back, became a stakes-winner in her last, taking the $76,000 Sandy Blue H. over the Del Mar turf to run her grass record to 2-for-2. Sent off the 5-2 second choice here, she proved her talent on turf to be no fluke, sitting just off the pace-setters until mid-stretch, where she took over under regular jockey Goncalino Almeida for a 1 1/2-length score.
