KEENELAND SALE CONTINUES ON

UPSWING During Wednesday's third session of the 1995 Keeneland September Yearling Sale, 290 horses brought a gross of $16,146,000 for an average of $55,676, up a healthy 17.2 percent from last year's third session average of $47,505. Yesterday's median price of $42,000 represented a five percent increase over the 1994 median price of $40,000. The highest price of the session was paid for a bay colt by Gulch--Balinese (Nijinsky II), purchased for $475,000 by English bloodstock agent Charlie Gordon-Watson for an American partnership. "They wanted a Gulch colt, and we liked the female family," Gordon-Watson said, adding that the colt will stay in the U.S. to race. The second highest-priced yearling of the day at $330,000 was President's Decree, a dark bay or brown colt by Capote--Mitterand (Hold Your Peace). Purchased by Fred Yelinek's Little Fish Stables, the colt, a half-brother to stakes-winner Princess Mitterand and recent GII Jerome H. winner French Deputy, will be sent to Glencrest Farm and later to Payson Park in Florida to train. He will be conditioned by David Carroll. Don Sucher of Echo Valley Horse Farm Inc., who sold President's Decree as agent for Irving and Marjorie Cowan, said, "The market is very strong. The catalogue got weaker today, but the market has stayed proportionally as strong as it was the first two days. We estimated this horse would bring between $300-$400,000. We're very happy with the price." Mrs. Georgia Hofmann bought the third highest-priced individual of Wednesday's session, a chestnut colt by Forty Niner out of the multiple Grade I winner Banker's Lady (Nijinsky II), for $325,000. "I'm not sure whether I'll race him or sell him at a two-year-olds in training sale," Hofmann said. "I'll probably keep him to race." The sale continues through September 20.

Margins: HD, 2, 2. Odds: 7.80a, 4.00, 19.90.

Also Ran: Cobra King, Exetera, Defleet, Northern Afleet, Monzon.

Future Quest, fresh off a 5½-length maiden score at Del Mar Aug. 27, quickly sped to the lead, set rapid fractions of :21.93, :44.39 and 1:08.89 along the inside, responded when challenged by Othello in midstretch and gamely held off that rival while drifting out a bit in the final stages. "The plan was to put this horse on the lead and let him do his best," said winning jockey Kent Desormeaux. "I thought if I took 'em real fast, they wouldn't go fast for fear of burning out. My rocket went and just didn't flame out." Overwhelming 3-5 favorite COBRA KING (Farma Way), who took Del Mar's GIII Balboa S. by 7½-lengths in his last outing, ran evenly for fourth. "He just didn't run today," said trainer Mike Puype. "It wasn't the company, I can guarantee that. He'll be back for another dance."

EL CAJON S., $75,600, DMR, 9-13, 3yo, 1 1/16m, 1:41 4/5, ft.

News Continued.*DRAGONE RESIGNS; NOE TO TAKE NYRA

POST New York Racing Association President Kenny Noe has been elected NYRA Chairman of the Board of Trustees, replacing Allan Dragone, it was announced yesterday following a NYRA board meeting. Dragone, who has held the post since 1989, will remain a member of the board. "I can't thank the NYRA board and Allan enough for this vote of confidence and for this opportunity," said Noe. "I'm very flattered even to have been considered. I've really enjoyed working with Allan since I came back to the NYRA 11 months ago and he has been extremely helpful and generous with his time and counsel." Dragone, meanwhile, said the move will allow him to devote more time to his racing stable, adding he felt confident in leaving the position at this particular time. "NYRA has the same problems the rest of the racing industry does, but now we have the potential to solve them," said Dragone. The 67-year-old Noe will retain the title of president, while delegating some of his former responsibilities to other NYRA employees. "The board asked me how long I would stay on and as long as my health is good I'm sure I can stay a year or a year and a half, as long as I can be an asset," said Noe.

LONE STAR RECEIVES '96 DATES The Texas Racing Commission awarded Lone Star Park at Grand Prairie a total of 11 racing days for 1996, virtually clearing the way for the track to complete its financing and proceed with construction, according to a story in yesterday's Dallas Morning-News. The track is scheduled to open December 14, 1996. The racing commission carved up a total of 336 1996 racing dates to five racetracks and one county fair, including 88 to Trinity Meadows, 97 to Retama Park and 95 to Sam Houston. The commission also rejected a proposal to allow county fairs to operate as year-round simulcast outlets, according to the paper.

FASIG-TIPTON ANNOUNCES TIMONIUM

CATALOG Fasig-Tipton has catalogued 362 yearlings for its 35th annual Eastern Fall Yearling Sale at Timonium, Maryland, to be held Monday, October 2. Pictured on the front cover is the 1995 Grade I stakes winner Urbane, a $25,000 graduate of this sale in 1993, now with earnings of $448,003. The auction begins at 10 a.m. and features many yearlings which are fully nominated to the Maryland Million Racing program. Catalogues will be available from all Fasig-Tipton offices Thursday, September 14th.

CROP FACES VINTAGE FIELD

Vintage Crop (Rousillon), looking to win his third consecutive G1 Irish St. Leger at The Curragh this Saturday, will be opposed by at least two of Britain's most able stayers. The 1993 Melbourne Cup hero, beaten only once this year, is reported to be in great form by trainer Dermot Weld. He is expected to be heavily challenged by Moonax (Caerleon), last season's Doncaster St Leger winner, and Zilzal Zamaan (Zilzal), successful in this May's Ormonde Stakes at Chester. Barry Hills, trainer of Moonax, said, "The horse is in good form and has been working well. Pat Eddery rides." Walter Swinburn is poised to partner Zilzal Zamaan, from Michael Stoute's stable. Joe Mercer, racing manager to owner Mana Al Maktoum, enthused, "He's bouncing and will really love the cut in the ground in Ireland." Other entries include Broadway Flyer (Theatrical {Ire}), Strategic Choice (Alleged), Double On (Doubletour), Royal Ballerina (Sadler's Wells), Saxon Maid (Sadler's Wells), Humbel (Theatrical {Ire}), Johansson (Seattle Dancer), Oscar Schindler (Royal Academy) and Posidonas (Slip Anchor).

MEADOWLANDS FANS TUNE INTO

SIMULCASTS Meadowlands Racetrack guests on the Paddock Level are now able to tune into the audio from all the various simulcasting tracks plus major sporting events featured on the track's sports monitors with any Walkman-type radio. The Meadowlands has launched a pilot program, providing guests with a choice of eight low-level band FCC-approved signals, each assigned to one of the tracks offered that day or night. "This is a significant innovation in today's simulcasting environment," said Executive Vice President and General Manager for Racing Hal Handel. "Now guests will hear everything that we receive in audio from the various tracks, from the paddock shows to the race calls to the post-race interviews." There is no charge for the service. Guests can bring their own radios with headphones, pick up the assignment of tracks-to-frequencies and dial in the sound.

Saturday, Belmont:

VOSBURGH S.-GI, $200,000, 3yo/up, 7f

Lit De Justice (El Gran Senor), recent winner of the GIII Pat O'Brien Breeders' Cup H. at Del Mar, drilled five furlongs Monday at Belmont in :58 2/5. Three Diamonds (Lustra), a MSW at Remington Park, breezed three furlongs in :35.62 at Belmont yesterday, going a half-mile in :48 2/5.

WOODWARD S.-GI, $500,000, 3yo/up, 1 1/8m

Working yesterday at Belmont was leading Horse of the Year candidate Cigar (Palace Music), who drilled five furlongs in a bullet :59.21, galloping out six furlongs in 1:13.66. "It was nice; he looked like he was galloping," said trainer Bill Mott. "I think I've got a great horse, but I don't think there's any such thing as a walkover. It's such a game of split seconds. You can't make mistakes and you have to respect everyone in the field." Also working for the Woodward was Malthus (Temperance Hill), third in the Travers, who covered five furlongs at Belmont Wednesday in :59.86; and GI Iselin H. winner Schossberg (Broad Brush), who breezed a half-mile at Woodbine Tuesday in :48 1/5.

MAN O' WAR S.-GI, $400,000, 3yo/up, 1 3/8mT

King's Theatre (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), a MG1 winner in England who is winless in four tries in the U.S., will try to recapture his winning ways in Saturday's Man o' War. The four-year-old, trained by Bill Mott, worked five furlongs over Belmont's main track yesterday in 1:02.84. Also working at Belmont Wednesday was last year's Breeders' Cup Turf winner Tikkanen (Cozzene), who breezed a half-mile in :49.63. "I was happy with the way he worked," said trainer Christophe Clement. "He came back in good order, cooled out and went straight to his food."

RUFFIAN H.-GI, $200,000, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/16m

Forcing Bid (Irish Open), second to champion Heavenly Prize in the GI Go For Wand and GI John A. Morris H. at Saratoga, breezed three-eighths Wednesday in :36.24 over Belmont's training track. GSW Cinnamon Sugar (Ire) (Wild Again) took to the main track yesterday, covering a half-mile in :48.86. "We wanted to breeze her sharp because it's a big race," said trainer Tom Skiffington's assistant Xavier Nakkachdji. The four-year-old is considered only a possible starter.

MATRON S.-GI, $150,000, 2yo, f, 1m

Shug McGaughey-trainee My Flag (Easy Goer), out of undefeated champion mare Personal Ensign, breezed a half-mile in :49.42 yesterday at Belmont. "She looks like she wants the distance," McGaughey said. D. Wayne Lukas-trainee Cara Rafaela (Quiet American), who broke her maiden by 4½ at Del Mar Aug. 26, worked a half-mile at Belmont Monday in :49.12 handily.

MOLSON EXPORT MILLION S.-GI, $1,000,000, 3yo, 9f Queen's Plate runner-up Freedom Fleet (Afleet) breezed five furlongs in 1:01 2/5, galloping out six panels in 1:15 1/5, Wednesday morning at Woodbine in preparation for the Million. "It was super," said trainer Danny Vella. "We were trying to teach him to finish. He went his final quarter in :23 4/5. It was exactly what we wanted; he's ready." Also taking to the track yesterday at Woodbine was Petionville (Seeking the Gold). Trainer Randy Bradshaw asked exercise rider Arturo Rios to work the MGSW a slow half-mile and Rios took his instructions to heart, holding Petionville to a gallop as he completed the four furlongs in :55 1/5. "This horse had three good works at Del Mar before shipping here," said Bradshaw's assistant trainer Brent Bennion. "His last work there was three-quarters in 1:12 and change." In Petionville's most recent outing Aug. 12, he won the GIII La Jolla H. over the Del Mar turf.

IT'S A 'MILLION' THING

By: Bill Leggett

With the running of the Molson Export Million this weekend, the Rothman's International a month from now and the Breeders' Cup October 28, we are moving hellbent and headlong into the Million Time of Year. Four $1 million events have already been decided this year--the Santa Anita Handicap, Hollywood Gold Cup, Pacific Classic and Arlington Million. Those races have all exceeded their expectations as providers of major news. (Those of you keeping score at home will quickly notice that California has three and New York none.)

Gary Stevens won "The Big Cap," flying in from Hong Kong to handle Urgent Request, who allowed owner Stewart Aitken to cash a bet worth $844,000 in the tote. Urgent Request started Stevens on a victory tour that is one of the most remarkable in modern times.

Horse-of-the-Year frontrunner Cigar took the Gold Cup. On the very week he was enshrined in the Hall of Fame, Bobby Frankel earned his fourth consecutive Pacific Classic with Tinnors Way; Awad took the Arlington Million in track-record time of 1:58 2/5 and became the first winner of the Secretariat to return and win the Million.

The Million, bless it, remains the Million because it was the trailblazer 15 years ago when John Henry, bless him, kicked off million-dollar racing. There have now been 146 of them. Next year, the Kentucky Derby joins the list at long last, putting the Preakness and Belmont a bit into the shade. Think the Derby will make use of that $1 million pot in promotional ways? You bet.

The horse everyone now seeks is the one who can win the $1 million Breeders' Cup Juvenile as a two-year-old and the $1 million Kentucky Derby, Molson Export Million and $3 million Breeders' Cup Classic as a three-year-old. That would click in at about $3,180,000. The four-year-old season would concentrate on taking the Big Cap, another $1 million edition of the Gold Cup, the Pacific Classic, plus the Breeders' Cup Classic. That done, we are now looking at a pot filled with $6.3 million from a mere eight events.

It took Alysheba 26 starts and 11 victories to attain his $6,679,242. Alysheba almost did all of the above. He lost the Breeders' Cup Juvenile by 2 1/2-lengths after circling from 10th and then ran second in the Hollywood Futurity. He lost the $3 million Classic by a nose as a three-year-old, but even worse was the fact that a $1 million bonus was denied him by an obtuse rule that gave Bet Twice a bonus even though Alysheba won two legs of the Triple Crown and Bet Twice won one. Nonetheless, Alysheba did win three $1 million races, a Classic, Big Cap and Super Derby when it was worth $1 million.

Only one other horse has won three--Best Pal, taking the Hollywood Futurity, Big Cap and Pacific Classic. Eleven horses have won two million-dollar races and John Henry is among those, as he well should be. Prized, however, is the only one to win an event of that magnitude on both dirt (Molson Export) and turf (Breeders' Cup Turf). The others: Easy Goer, Lure, Miesque, Steinlen, Stephan's Odyssey, Tinnors Way.

Wayne Lukas has reeled in 18 races worth a million, a dozen of those in Breeders' Cup events. Next comes Shug McGaughey with nine; Charlie Whittingham, eight; and Neil Drysdale, Bobby Frankel and Ron McAnally with six each. Strangely, Andre Fabre has five and among them is the highest paying winner, Arcangues, at $269.20 on a $2 win bet.

The leading jockeys are: Pat Day with 15, Laffit Pincay, Jr, 13, Jose Santos, 12, Eddie Delahoussaye and Chris McCarron at 10 each, Pat Valenzuela at nine and Jerry Bailey and Angel Cordero Jr. at seven.
