SILVER HAWK COLT TOPS KEENELAND'S

FOURTH SESSION A chestnut colt by Silver Hawk--Upper Class Lady (Upper Nile) topped Thursday's fourth session of the 1995 Keeneland September Yearling Sale. Previously sold for $42,000 as a weanling at the '94 Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale, the colt brought a session-topping $310,000 yesterday from buyer John Warren, agent, of Newmarket, England. Overall, 287 yearlings were sold Thursday for a gross of $14,603,000 and an average of $50,882 up 25.8 percent from last year's fourth session average of $40,450. The median price of $42,000 represented a 31 percent increase from last year's $32,000. After the first four days of the 10-day auction, 1,168 horses have gone through the sales ring, bringing $96,697,000 for an average of $82,789. This represents a 30 percent increase from 1994, when the average after the first four sessions was $63,624. The sale continues through Wednesday, Sept. 20.

DEL MAR HANDLE SETS CALIFORNIA

RECORD Setting a new standard in California, the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club posted a mark of $484,347,542 in total handle and $11,263,896 in daily average handle for the 1995 meet which ended Wednesday. Up 8.9 percent from last years totals, the figures, which include on-track, 16 Southern California inter-track wagering satellites, 50 commingling hub locations, 14 separate pool hubs and, for the second year, 17 Northern California sites, are both records in the state. On-track handle was down 1.5 percent from a year ago, but the commingled wagering from out-of-state and Northern California on the Del Mar card was up 21.1 percent. The track also set a single-day handle mark August 19 when $15,506,324 was wagered. While on-track attendance dropped 5.1 percent, from 16,009 in '94 to 15,187 in '95, Del Mar is still number one in the country in total attendance, attracting an average of 33,150 visitors both on and off-track daily. It also boasts the country's highest daily purse distribution, paying out an average of $402,827 per day during the 43-day meet.

News Continued.*FHBPA SUPPLEMENTS TWO-YEAR-OLD

PURSES AT CALDER The Canadian Supplemental fund designed by the Florida HBPA has come to the aid of Calder horsemen who have just seen two dramatic cuts to the Calder purse schedule. The fund, designed with the concept of supplementing purses for two-year-old racing at Calder in the summer, will now be doubled so that purses for horsemen racing two-year-olds from a level of maiden claiming $25,000 and up through maiden allowance conditions as well as non-winners of one and two other than will not see reduced purses at Calder Racecourse. Calder has been hampered through its summer meet with an on-track decline in both attendance and handle. A large portion of this decline has been attributed to the inability to obtain full-card simulcasting permission from the State of Florida. The ability to double the supplemental monies provided for in the Canadian fund demonstrates the fiscal responsibility of the FHBPA, which continues to lobby in Tallahassee and with racetrack management for the elevation of horsemen's economic rights.

HALLING CLASSIC-BOUND Halling (Diesis {GB}), winner this year of Britain's G1 Coral Eclipse S. at Sandown and G1 Juddmonte International at York, will run next in the Breeders' Cup Classic at Belmont. The four-year-old Kentucky-bred, who races in the Godolphin silks, had been expected to compete in Ascot's Queen Elizabeth II S. next weekend. But, following a minor setback, he is taking a short break before flying to America. Simon Crisford, racing manager to Godolphin, said, "Halling will miss Ascot. But the injury will not rule him out of an autumn campaign and he will now be aimed at the Breeders' Cup Classic."

AUTOTOTE'S PROPOSITION WAGER A

SUCCESS Trainer Mike Mitchell won the training title at the 1995 Del Mar meet, which ended Wednesday night, giving fans who wagered on his success in Autotote Enterprises "King of the Hill" proposition wager a $200.80 payoff. Mitchell, who sent out 18 winners during the 43-day meet, went off at odds of 99-1. Jockey Chris McCarron rode Helmsman to victory in the last race Wednesday to capture the rider's title with 48 winners. A win ticket on McCarron paid $53.40. A total of $3,095 was wagered on the proposition bet. "Considering we only had six days to promote the wager, we're pleased with the results," said Rick Cowan, president and CEO of Autotote Enterprises. "We hope to give racing fans more proposition-type wagers in the near future. I think they have a broad appeal, add a new dimension and are fun for the fans." Bettors were offered the opportunity to wager on who would be the leading rider and trainer at the Del Mar meet. Wagering was accepted at all Connecticut Off-Track Betting branches, the Bradley Teletheater in Windsor Locks, Connecticut, Sports Haven in New Haven and through Autotote's "On the Wire" phone wagering service.

New York-based Cigar (Palace Music) will, ironically, be making his first start of the season in the Empire State after winning six stakes in five different states this year. He comes off more than 10 weeks of rest since taking the July 2 Hollywood Gold Cup. "I've always thought a fresh horse generally runs a good race because they're willing to run," said trainer Bill Mott. "A big key is if you're running the best horse in the race. If you are, it really helps." And how good is Cigar? "He's obviously the best horse I've ever had," said Mott, "and he may be the best horse I've ever put my hand on."

Tikkanen (Cozzene), who has not won a race in three starts in Europe this year, looks to repeat the success he found in '94 when he traveled stateside to win the GI Turf Classic and the Breeders' Cup Turf. He has recently been transferred from the European stable of Jonathan Pease to be prepared for his fall campaign in New York by Christophe Clement.

You and I (Kris S.) returns to the scene of his greatest triumphs after a disappointing fifth in Hollywood's Bel Air H. July 16. The winner of the GI Metropolitan, GII Brooklyn and the GIII Riva Ridge over this track (the latter at seven furlongs in track-record time of 1:20 1/5) looks to be preparing for a start the Breeders' Cup Sprint after competing in longer races this summer.

Her three previous 1995 stakes victories--the GIII Monmouth Park Breeders' Cup H, the GII Molly Pitcher, and the GI Shuvee--have been won by a total of 14 lengths.

GIII Sanford winner Maria's Mon (Wavering Monarch) is listed as the third choice, but trainer Rick Schosberg is warning the rest of the field to watch out. "My horse has moved way forward off (his third-place finish in) the Hopeful," said Schosberg. "Of course, there could be a freak in the field, but I know what I'm holding and that's a pretty good horse." The most likely freak? The D. Wayne Lukas-trained Honour and Glory (Relaunch), a 10½-length maiden winner at Saratoga July 27. Unbridled's Song (Unbridled), also an impressive winner of his only start, was withdrawn with an infection.

Golden Attraction (Mr. Prospector), already a 3xSW, looks for her second consecutive GI after taking Saratoga's Spinaway August 28. Her lone defeat came on a sloppy Monmouth track two starts back when she was second in the Sorority. "(Trainer) Wayne (Lukas) looked at the field and he came to the conclusion she should be very tough to beat," said Assistant Trainer Todd Pletcher. Standing in the way of that victory are Careless Heiress (Runaway Groom), third in the Sorority last out after a win in Monmouth's Colleen S., and La Rosa (Wild Again), who broke her maiden for trainer Nick Zito by 8½ in her last start.

July 26 at Del Mar, before finishing second in the GII Del Mar Derby Sept. 4, breezed a half-mile at Woodbine yesterday :48 flat, galloping out five furlongs in 1:01 4/5. Also working yesterday at Woodbine was Queen's Plate victor Regal Discovery (Regal Classic), who was sent an easy three furlongs in :35 by trainer Roger Attfield. The Canadian-bred galloped out a half-mile in :48 2/5. Attfield won the Molson Million in 1993 with Peteski and in 1990 with Izvestia. Kirdashi (Bold Ruckus), winner of the second jewel of the Canadian Triple Crown, the Prince of Wales S., breezed a half-mile in :50 3/5 yesterday. "The work was perfect," said trainer Barb Minshall. "He's going to run a big race Sunday."
