SUPERSTARS SHINE ON SUPER

SATURDAY Cigar (Palace Music) smoked 'em in the Woodward; Inside Information (Private Account) took the inside track to the winner's circle in the Ruffian; Millkom (GB) (Cyrano de Bergerac) was the man of the hour in the Man O'War. Super Saturday at Belmont Park provided no less than six Breeders' Cup candidates with a platform, and the stars simply sparkled. Two-year-old filly Golden Attraction (Mr. Prospector) retained her head-of-the-class credentials with a game victory in the Matron at 2-5; juvenile Maria's Mon (Wavering Monarch) regained respect with a decisive score in the Futurity. Then it was time for the big guns to fire. Facing five overmatched rivals, Inside Information was pounded down to 1-10 but never gave her backers an anxious moment, visiting with the field for a half-mile before going about her business; the four-year-old came home 11 lengths in front, but it could have been many more. "She's just amazing," said jockey Mike Smith. "You would pay for a ride like that." The filly gave away from 12 to 18 pounds, and trainer Shug McGaughey said he would now look for weight-for-age events for his charge. "I don't want to run her in any more handicaps--I can't lift that kind of weight anymore," he offered. A full field of 13 were kept waiting in the gate for the start of the Vosburgh as Our Emblem (Mr. Prospector) fought with the crew, finally backing into his slot with the aid of a blindfold. But the cantankerous colt missed getting his picture taken by the bob of two heads, rallying for third behind the dead-game Not Surprising (Medieval Man) and You And I (Kris S.) in a preview of the Breeders' Cup Sprint. The finish of the Man O'War was a different kind of thriller; Millkom, one of the best horses in Europe last year but off-form this season, looked back at his best as the easiest kind of 1 1/4-length winner. The British-bred tugged on jockey Gary Stevens from the start, dragging him to the lead in midstretch and holding Kaldounevees (Fr) (Kaldoun) safe without extending himself. But if the Man O'War was a walk in the park, then the Woodward was an absolute stroll. Unchallenged since stepping out on the main track, Cigar looked a lock to take his 10th straight--and he did it in a laugher. "At no time was I ever concerned," said jockey Jerry Bailey. "The only surprise was looking up on the board and seeing how fast he went, considering how easily he did it." Said trainer Bill Mott, "He is the best horse I've ever trained. He may be the best horse anyone ever trained." (Super Saturday Charts, p1-3)

Super Saturday, Belmont Park

WOODWARD S.-GI, $500,000, BEL, 9-16, 3yo/up, 1 1/8m, 1:47, ft.

- 1--CIGAR, 126, h, 5, Palace Music--Solar Slew, by Seattle Slew. O/B-Paulson Allen E (MD); T-William I Mott; J-J D Bailey; $300,000. Lifetime Record: 23-12-2-4, $3,079,813. *1/2 to Mulca (Raised Socially), Ch. Imp. 3yo Filly-PR, MSW-PR.

Margins: 2 3/4, 3, 3/4. Odds: 0.10, 14.40, 67.50.

Also Ran: Schossberg, Malthus, Patsyprospect.

Keeping his main track record unblemished by defeat, Cigar came back from two-month break as the 1-10 favorite. Making his first start in New York this year, the bright bay was content to rate in third behind frontrunning Star Standard, then moved to the lead at will, opening it up at the top of the stretch and coasting home to yet another effortless score. "I didn't have any real anxious moments," said trainer Bill Mott. "By the time he left the half-mile pole, he was in gear. I think we're leaning toward starting him next in the Jockey Club Gold Cup (October 7)." Three-year-old Star Standard ran on well to be second after throwing in a couple of clunkers at Saratoga. "We almost pulled it off," said trainer Nick Zito. "He's a much better horse than he showed in Saratoga. He didn't like that track at all." The one disappointment in the race was second-choice SCHOSSBERG (Broad Brush). The winner of the GI Iselin H. in his latest raced in close contention from the start but weakened in the drive and finished fourth. "I couldn't tell you what went wrong today," said trainer Phillip England. "Perhaps Cigar looked him in the eye the wrong way and he backed down."

Millkom, who reeled off five straight victories last year before ending the season with subpar performances in the Arc de Triomphe and Breeders' Cup Classic, had yet to return to top form in France this year but put it all together for his trip to the U.S. Tucked in behind the speed for more than a mile, the four-year-old found running room for the stretch drive, took the lead late, and won in a gallop. "He never pulled as much in the beginning of the race as he did today," said trainer Jean-Claude Rouget. "Today, he was on top of his game." The bay, purchased by owner Gary Tanaka three weeks ago, will now go to trainer Rodney Rash. The 2-1 favorite TIKKANEN (Cozzene), making his first start July and looking for his first win since last year's Breeders' Cup Turf, was in traffic and tired late. "I didn't have a great trip," said jockey Mike Smith. "But he needed the race, and he should improve." Tikkanen and runner-up Kaldounevees will run next in the Turf Classic Oct. 7.

Bidding for his fourth straight graded victory and his first in Grade I company, Not Surprising indeed did not surprise the crowd on hand for Super Saturday. Sent off the slight choice in the full field of 13, the big red gelding stalked the pace of You And I and LITE THE FUSE (Buckaroo) to the stretch, went up to challenge when You And I took the lead, and was all out to win the three-way photo. "He did everything I asked of him, and I had to ask him early, too--earlier than I would've liked," said rider Robbie Davis. "He just put in a great race. It was a wild finish...man, they were ganging up on him. But all he did was fight, fight, fight. He's all heart." The winner will make his next start in the Breeders' Cup Sprint. You And I, gallant in defeat, will also make his next start in the Sprint. Our Emblem, who held up the start of the race when very difficult to load, finished well but had to settle for third; future plans are undecided. "He ran well despite acting up at the starting gate," said trainer Shug McGaughey. "I had this problem with him before when he was a two-year-old. It probably took his interest out of running--he was mad. I've seen him mad before, and it's not a pretty sight."

MATRON S.-GI, $150,000, BEL, 9-16, 2yo, f, 1m, 1:36 1/5, ft.

- 1--GOLDEN ATTRACTION, 119, f, 2, Mr. Prospector--Seaside Attraction (GI, $272,541), by Seattle Slew. O-William T. Young; B-Overbrook Farm (KY); T-D. Wayne Lukas; J-G. Stevens; $90,000. Lifetime Record: 6-5-1-0, $405,587. *Full to Red Carnival (G3-Eng).

- 3--My Flag, 119, f, 2, Easy Goer--Personal Ensign, by Private Account. O/B-Ogden Phipps (KY); $16,500.
- Margins: NK, 5HF, 2. Odds: 0.45, 12.10, 13.50.
- Also Ran: Careless Heiress, Come Casual, Zee Lady, La Rosa, Echo Echo Echo.

Golden Attraction, already winner of the Debutante H. at Churchill Downs and the Gil Schuylerville S. and GI Spinaway S. at Saratoga, had missed a journey to the winners' circle only once before when 2nd in the Gill Sorority S. over a sloppy Monmouth track. Sent off the overwhelming 2-5 favorite here, the bay filly rated just behind pacesetter ZEE LADY (Unreal Zeal) early, was sent to the front by Gary Stevens entering the drive, then battled gamely inside Cara Rafaela for the length of the stretch to hold on for the victory. The runner-up ran on well after grabbing a quarter at the break. D. Wayne Lukas, trainer of the first and second-place finishers, said, "Golden Attraction will go (next) in the Frizette here (Oct. 7) and if Cara Rafaela's quarter is alright, we'll run her in the Alcibiades (Oct. 8 at Keeneland)."

Margins: 11, NO, 1 1/4. Odds: 0.10, 48.75, 14.40.

Rebounding from defeat after stumbling at the start of the GI Ballerina last out, Inside Information strided smoothly away from the gate, sat behind Unlawful Behavior for a quarter, then showed her foes a clean pair of heels, winning without drawing a deep breath. "This is a pretty good filly when everything goes right for her," understated trainer Shug McGaughey. "The next start for her will probably be the Spinster (Oct. 8)."

FUTURITY S.-GI, $150,000, BEL, 9-16, 2yo, 1m, 1:35, ft.

Margins: 2 3/4, 1 1/4, 2. Odds: 3.65, 1.70, 1.55.

Also Ran: Gold Fever, Feather Box, Jamies First Punch, El Amante.

Saratoga Special winner Maria's Mon tasted defeat for the first time in his last when he finished third in the GI Hopeful. Third choice here, the roan settled in behind the leaders early, closed the gap on the turn, then drew off. "I really thought he would go forward off that last race," said winning trainer Rick Schosberg. "He got tired...and didn't have the best of it in the Hopeful. He got a good pace scenario today, and he's been training well." Schosberg added that the Oct. 7 Champagne S. will be next for Maria's Mon, with the Breeders' Cup Juvenile the ultimate goal. Runner-up Louis Quatorze will be rested for a '95 campaign. The 3-2 choice Honour and Glory led through 6 furlongs before tiring.

 Also Ran: Vintage Crop (GB), Double On (Ire), Johansson, Zilzal Zamaan.

After ZILZAL ZAMAAN (Zilzal) had led from VINTAGE CROP (GB) (Rousillon) for much of the way, Moonax, always going well in behind that pair, took the lead briefly entering the final furlong; he was then caught by Strategic Choice, who, after looking an easy winner, had to hold on to withstand Moonax's renewed bid.

 Also Ran: Deed of Love, Harghar, Roi Estate (Ire), Double Oscar (Ire).

An impressive win for Danehill Dancer, who in August won the G1 Heinz 57 Phoenix S. Taking up the running more than a furlong out, he was soon clear of the field and ran on well for his second Group 1 victory.

TDN ANALYSIS

After throwing in a pair of disappointments in the Santa Anita Derby in April and the Illinois Derby in May, Petionville (Seeking the Gold) bounced back to score a narrow victory in the Ohio Derby, then turned in a strong effort to finish third to division leader Thunder Gulch in the Swaps S. Switched to the turf for his latest, the well-travelled colt teamed up with jockey Corey Nakatani for the first time and came away with a victory in the La Jolla H. at Del Mar. Using the turf-to-dirt angle, with the top U.S. jock once again getting the call, we'll pick Petionville to earn his first Grade I here.

Freedom Fleet (Afleet), who missed winning the Queen's Plate by a length after taking the lead, then hanging late, will once again have jockey Todd Kabel in the irons. Kabel, who took the Queen's Plate with Regal Discovery (Regal Classic) after losing this mount to Mike Smith, has been aboard for both of the gelding's career wins; the Canadian-bred is also going turf-to-dirt and shortens up after finishing fourth in the GIC Breeder's S. at 12 furlongs in his most recent start.

The Bet: A $20 exacta, Petionville over Freedom Fleet, and a $5 saver, Freedom Fleet over Petionville.

The Molson Million will be aired on ESPN at 4:30 p.m EDT.

 Coaxing Matt, a two-time graded stakes winner at four finished third, beaten just four lengths by favored Marastani in his last start, but was nevertheless sent off the longest shot on the board here. Undaunted by his odds, the roan rated off the early fractions, moved up steadily to take the lead at the eighth pole, then dug down deep to turn the tables on the crowd's choice.
