RECORD WAGERS ON CIGAR, INSIDE

INFORMATION The total figure of $1,798,673 bet on Cigar (Palace Music) to show in Saturday's Woodward S. at Belmont is believed to be the most money ever wagered on a horse in a single win, place or show pool in the history of New York racing. Of the total show pool of $1,841,884, $1,193,910 was wagered in Las Vegas. Cigar's victory created a total minus show pool of $335,607, also a New York record. The mark Cigar broke was short-lived; the previous high was believed to be the $1,594,176 bet to show on Inside Information (Private Account) in the Ruffian H. earlier on the Super Saturday card. Of the total Ruffian show pool of $1,642,953, $1,127,648 was wagered in Las Vegas. Those bets created a minus show pool of $292,796. It is rumored that one Las Vegas bettor made $500,000 show wagers on both horses at the Las Vegas Club Race Book.

FRENCH DEPUTY EYES OPTIONS French Deputy (Deputy Minister), the winner of the Sept. 4 GII Jerome H. at Belmont Park, will make his next start in either the Sept. 30 $750,000 Super Derby or the Oct. 6 $500,000 Meadowlands Cup, according to trainer Neil Drysdale, who said that a decision will be made shortly. "I'm not eager to face Cigar (Palace Music) any time soon," said Drysdale, who has ruled out the Oct. 7 Jockey Club Gold Cup as a possible start. "I don't think it would make much sense to run against Cigar at a mile and a quarter right now. French Deputy hadn't run in seven months, and (the Jerome) was a pretty strong race, so I think it's a pretty good idea to give him time between his races."

DUELING GROUND CANCELS Sunday's four-race card at Dueling Grounds in Franklin, Kentucky, was cancelled after heavy rains soaked the turf course. "After walking the course early Sunday morning, we decided it would be in the best interest of everyone involved to cancel the races, work the track, let it dry and concentrate on Monday's eight-race program," said Gary Wilfert, Dueling Grounds general manager and director of racing. Sunday's feature, the Jim Bowie S. for two-year-olds at a mile, has been rescheduled for next Sunday. Post time for today's eight-race card is 1:00 p.m.

This was the first English-trained winner of the Salamandre in 18 years. "I fancy this horse a lot," said winning trainer John Gosden. "He was beaten first-time out because we are not hard on our two-year-olds; he then won his next two very easily. He could go for the Dewhurst S. or the Grand Criterium next."

After a win in the Gill Derby Trial this spring, trainer Jimmy Day thought he had a serious Derby contender in Peaks And Valleys, but the colt never made it to the race after a piece of gravel in his hoof led to a quarter crack. The three-year-old has been plagued with hoof problems throughout the season, but Day credited the removal of his bar shoes with this dominant come-from-behind performance that earned him his first GI win. "We took the bar shoes off this week and you could just see the change in this horse," said Day.

SARATOGA PURSES TOP DEL MAR The New York Racing Association yesterday announced that the daily average purse distribution at the 1995 Saratoga meet surpassed Del Mar as the highest in the country. While the Southern California track averaged just over $402,000 daily this season, Saratoga purses set a record at $404,958 per day.

NEW MOUNT FOR CORDERO Angel Cordero Jr. is still scheduled to make his return to the saddle next Sunday at El Comandante Racetrack, but he will have to find another horse to ride. Cordero was scheduled to make his comeback yesterday aboard Bandit Bomber (Prosperous) at the Puerto Rican track, but postponed his appearance by one week when told racing would be canceled due to Hurricane Marilyn. Track officials decided, however, to hold racing after all when the storm spared much of the island; the two-time Puerto Rican champion defeated three rivals in a betless event without the Hall of Fame rider yesterday.

The high-earner in the field, Lottsia Talc was nonetheless sent away the 3-1 second choice behind California invader Madder Than Mad, but earned her eighth stakes victory and third consecutive Schenectady H. with a rail-skimming ride from jockey Diane Nelson. "The rail seemed to dry out and we got the good trip that we needed to win," said Nelson. "She ran her usual game race and she never gave up."

Winner of a division of the Gill Jaipur S. at Belmont in June but unplaced in a pair of starts since, Mighty Forum was not heavily bet in his Meadowlands bow. Fourth for a half, the English import moved to within striking range on the far turn, went up to challenge from the inside, then had to check sharply when the pacesetter Joker came in on him in deep stretch, finishing second. The stewards took a look at the tape and disqualified Joker, placing him second. "I had dead aim on the winner...he was out in the middle of the track and came right back down and shut my horse off," said jockey Herb McCauley, who benefitted from the DQ. Mighty Forum picked up his first graded win visiting his 10th U.S. track in 12 starts since shipping Stateside.
