TATTERSALLS' AVERAGE SHOWS DRAMATIC INCREASE

Having sold the two highest-priced yearlings in Europe this year and registered significant increases across the board, Tattersalls' Chairman Edmond Mahony expressed satisfaction with the 1995 Houghton Yearling Sale at Newmarket, which concluded yesterday. "This has been a strong sale throughout and we are delighted with the way everything has gone," he said. "The support we have had from our vendors has been tremendous and has helped us to produce a genuinely world class catalogue. The standard of the catalogue has been reflected in the returns. Especially pleasing has been the depth to the market. There has been strong competition at all levels, with pinhookers, trainers, overseas buyers and, of course, the bigger battalions contributing greatly to the sale. The results from Houghton will give renewed confidence to the whole European racing and breeding scene, and provide a platform on which to build for the future." The highest price of Thursday's third and final session was paid for a bay colt by Sadler's Wells--Radiant (Foolish Pleasure). A half-brother to MGSW's Home of the Free (Hero's Honor) and Poolesta (Ire) (Hero's Honor), the colt was consigned by Camas Park Stud, Ireland, and purchased for $893,133 by Darley Stud Management Co. Ltd. Also of note was a bay filly by Sadler's Wells out of Breeders' Cup Mile winner Royal Heroine (Ire) (Lypheor {GB}), who was sold to Mr. Demi O'Byrne, agent, for $284,179. There were 56 yearlings sold Thursday for a gross of $7,377,281 and an average of $131,737. Overall during the three-day sale, 222 horses brought $29,179,315 for an average of $131,437, up a remarkable 33 percent from last year's average of $98,883. Thursday's Top Three Colts and Fillies, p. 6

FULL-CARD SIMULCASTING RETURNS TO CALDER

Calder President Ken Dunn announced Thursday that the Division of Pari-Mutuel Wagering has granted a 90-day full-card simulcasting experiment commencing October 1 and concluding December 29, 1995. "I'd like to thank Deborah Miller (Director of the Division of Pari-Mutuel Wagering), the FTBOA, the FHBPA and, most importantly, the racing fans of our state for their support of full-card simulcasting," Dunn stated. The full-card schedule for the first week includes racing from Belmont and Turfway Sunday, October 1; Belmont and Hawthorne Oct. 2, 5 and 6; and Belmont and Keeneland October 7 and 8.

Rumors were rife before this race that Royal Applause, bidding to become the first horse since 1962 to win the triple of the Coventry S., Gimcrack S. and the Middle Park, had been working without any zest in the past couple of weeks--speculation which caused the horse to drift dramatically in the betting before the start. The rumors proved to be completely unfounded from the moment the stalls opened. Although Kahir Almaydan made the initial running, within a furlong Royal Applause had taken it up and went on to win in impressive style, not allowing any of the other runners to get near him. "This is a really good horse," said trainer Barry Hills. "He was never meant to have more than four races this year. I have just done enough to keep him going. He has such natural ability." Royal Applause is now being quoted at 16-1 for next year's 2,000 Guineas.

BREEDERS' CUP PREVIEW DAY NOTES With the main track at Belmont still drying from rain earlier in the week, trainer Bill Mott elected to postpone until Friday a scheduled breeze for early Jockey Club Gold Cup favorite Cigar (Palace Music). "I decided to wait a day," Mott said. "It doesn't matter if we work him Thursday or Friday." The $750,000 Gold Cup is one of five Grade I stakes to be presented at Belmont during Breeders' Cup Preview Day October 7. Last year's Breeders' Cup Classic winner Concern (Broad Brush), considered a longshot to run against Cigar in the Gold Cup, breezed in Maryland yesterday. "Concern worked really well, going three-quarters in 1:13, and I'm leaning toward sending him in the Meadowlands Cup (Oct. 6)," said trainer Richard Small. Three four-year-old fillies took to the track at Belmont yesterday to prepare for their matchups with champion Heavenly Prize (Seeking the Gold) in the GI Beldame S. Little Buckles (Buckley Boy), third to Heavenly Prize in the GI Go For Wand S. at Saratoga July 23, drilled five furlongs in :58.28. "She's doing real good," said trainer John DeStefano. "Realistically, it would be a shocker to beat Heavenly Prize but if we can be second, that's good money." Cinnamon Sugar (Ire) (Wild Again) covered the same distance in :59.39, and possible starter Dancing With Deb (Cox's Ridge) breezed a half-mile in :48.83. Arlington Million hero Awad (Caveat) will make his first start since that Aug. 27 victory in the GI Turf Classic Invitational, also on Breeders' Cup Preview Day. The five-year-old is scheduled to work over the Belmont turf today. "Nobody will work too fast because the turf is so soft," said trainer David Donk. Announced Thursday as a definite starter in the Turf Classic was French-based Hernando (Fr) (Niniski). Winner of the G3 Prix Gontaut-Biron at Deauville for the second straight year two starts back, five-year-old Hernando, sixth in last year's Breeders' Cup Turf after finishing a close second in the Arc de Triomphe, is expected to arrive in New York Sunday.

FIRST STAKES WINNER FOR BLACK TIE

AFFAIR Blacktie Bid (Black Tie Affair {Ire}) became the first stakes winner for her freshman sire with a 1½-length win in Wednesday night's $49,500 Black Swan S. at Fairplex Park. The two-year-old filly, who covered the 1 1/16-miles in 1:46 4/5, was earning her second win in four starts. Nine-year-old Black Tie Affair, who earned $3,370,694 and was voted 1991 Horse of the Year and Champion Older Horse after capping off his year with a win in the Breeders' Cup Classic, stands at Vinery in Midway, Kentucky. He has been represented by 11 winners from his first crop for earnings of $248,862 to date.

TRIPLE CROWN PRODUCTIONS ANNOUNCES 1996 NOMINATION DATES At its annual Board of Directors Meeting held at Churchill Downs Wednesday, the Directors of the Triple Crown Productions Board elected Edward P. Seigenfeld to the position of Executive Vice President. Seigenfeld had previously served as Executive Director. The Board re-elected Thomas H. Meeker as President, Joseph A. De Francis as Vice President and Treasurer and Kenneth Noe Jr. as Vice President and Secretary of the Corporation. In addition, the Board announced there will be no changes in the rules and regulations of the 1996 races and there will be no change in the nomination fees for the series. Early nominations will be $600 and will close Saturday, January 20, 1996. Late nominations will be $6,000 will close Saturday, March 30, 1996.

CORDERO RETURN RESCHEDULED FOR SUNDAY The return of Hall of Fame jockey Angel Cordero Jr. has been rescheduled for this Sunday, October 1 at El Comandante Race Track in Puerto Rico. Cordero will be riding imported champion Bandit Bomber (Prosperous) in a $22,000 seven furlong allowance and Kentucky-bred filly Precious Heredity (Big Mukora) in the $100,000 Clásico Wiso G. at 1 1/16-miles. These will be Cordero's first two rides since sustaining multiple injuries in a four-horse spill at Aqueduct 3½ years ago.

MEADOWLANDS CUP WEIGHTS ANNOUNCED Kentucky Derby winner Thunder Gulch (Gulch) has been assigned topweight of 123 pounds for the GI $500,000 Meadowlands Cup, to be run Friday, October 6 at The Meadowlands. Racing Secretary Mike Dempsey weighted 31 horses ages three and up for the 1 1/8-mile event. Concern (Broad Brush), last year's Breeders' Cup Classic winner, and GI Pacific Classic victor Tinners Way (Secretariat) are next in the weights at 122 pounds. Last year's Meadowlands Cup winner Conveyor (Sharpen Up {GB}) will return to defend his title carrying 115 pounds. Undefeated three-year-old French Deputy (Deputy Minister), who captured the Jerome H. in his last outing, will tote 114 pounds. Other horses considered possible for the event are GI Whitney H. winner Unaccounted For (Private Account), 117 pounds; GI Molson Million winner Peaks and Valleys (Mt. Livermore), 116; MGIII winner Poor But Honest (Nasty and Bold), 116; Saratoga Cup H. winner L'Carriere (Carr de Naskra), 115; Looming (Broad Brush), 113; Northern Trend (Sunny North), 111; Call Me Anytime (Phone Trick), 110; and Relentless Star (West Coast Scout), 109. Conveyor, a perfect 4-for-4 over the Meadowlands surface, drilled five furlongs in :58 4/5 Thursday.

The Georgia-bred was hustled early to make the lead, showed the way through quick fractions of :22 1/5, :45 and 1:09 3/5, then was ridden out to take her third stakes by five lengths.

Local News, Oklahoma:

A pair of retired jockeys and one of the most well-known owners/breeders in the state are on the latest list of nominees into the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame. Nominated for induction into the Hall of Fame in 1996 are jockeys Bobby Ussery and John Lively and owner/breeder Don McNeill. Ussery, one of the top riders in the nation in the 1960's, is best known for his winning ride aboard 30-1 longshot Proud Clarion in the 1967 Kentucky Derby. Lively, a native of Westville, Oklahoma, won the 1976 Preakness S. aboard Elocutionist. McNeill bred and raced Clever Trevor, the 1989 Remington Park Derby winner who retired with over $1 million in earnings.
