MILLKOM RETIRED According to a report in today's Daily Racing Form, Millkom (GB) (Cyrano de Bergerac) has been retired and will stand at stud next season. The four-year-old, rated the highweight three-year-old at nine-and-a-half to 11 furlongs in France last year, won 10 in a row over the course of two seasons before finishing ninth in last year's Arc de Triomphe. A winner once in three starts in France this year, the English-bred shipped to the U.S. for what would be the final start of his career, posting an eye-catching victory in the GI Man o'War S. at Belmont September 16. He came out of the race with a bowed right front tendon. Owner Gary Tanaka, who purchased Millkom just three weeks before the Man o'War, has not made a decision as to where the colt will go to stud.

PERRET POSTS 4,000TH WIN Jockey Craig Perret notched his 4,000th career victory at Turfway Park yesterday, booting home Heloise (Forty Niner) to win the eighth race by three-quarters of a length. The 44-year-old Louisiana native, who has won the Kentucky Derby, Belmont Stakes and three Breeders' Cup races, said of this accomplishment, "I'm just glad I achieved this in Kentucky, since this is my home now. I've got a farm in Florida, and I was flying home every Sunday night for years--that was getting a little tough, so we decided to buy a farm right here."

EUROPEAN INVADERS HEADED TO TURF

CLASSIC A trio of European runners will ship into Belmont Park this week to prepare for next Saturday's GI Turf Classic at a mile and a half. Leading the contingent is Hernando (Fr) (Niniski), second in last year's Arc de Triomphe and France's 1994 highweight older horse at 11 to 14 furlongs. The five-year-old has one win in three starts this year, taking a Group 3 race at Deauville in August; he is scheduled to arrive in New York late this evening. Accompanying Hernando on the flight will be the filly Privity (Private Account), who will also try the Turf Classic. The three-year-old, a Group 2 winner in France this year, has two wins in eight career starts. Set to fly in Wednesday is Rifapour (Ire) (Shahrestani); the three-year-old colt has won half his six lifetime starts, including the Group 2 Prix Hocquart in May.

A near miss in the GI Secretariat S. last out pretty well summed up Mecke's year until this point: always the bridesmaid, rarely the bride. Stakes-placed in six events this year, two of them graded, and fifth in both the Kentucky Derby and Preakness, he had consistently faced the top three-year-olds in the country while winning just one of 11 starts on the season--the Tropical Park Derby in his '95 debut. Still, the crowd sent him off the 2-1 choice and suffered through an anxious moment when he stumbled slightly at the start. Settling off the pace, he came five-wide into the stretch and rocketed through the lane to win going away. "We've had a lot of bad luck this year and it had to turn around sooner or later," said trainer Manny Tortora. "He has run hard this year, and he finally won the big one." Tortora said plans for his next start were indefinite, while owner James Lewis Jr. confirmed that Mecke would not be supplemented to the Breeders' Cup Classic.

Margins: short HD, 2 1/2, 3. Odds: 9.50.

Also ran: Double Trigger (Ire), Admiral's Well (Ire), Epaphos (Ger).

DOUBLE TRIGGER (IRE) (Ela-Mana-Mou {Ire}) set the pace, but was taken on by Moonax early in the straight, and after Moonax seemed to control the race, Always Earnest came from the rear to challenge from the wide outside, snatching victory in the last strides. There was a stewards' enquiry after the head-on film showed the two leaders had bumped inside the final furlong, but the result was allowed to stand, giving the winner's dam, Nettie Cometti, her second graded stakes winner in less than a day (see East Report, p4). "This horse was making a comeback as he had not run since May," said owner/trainer Miriam Bollack-Badel. "I thought the pace was too slow, but he produced a great effort." Double Trigger, winner of the Ascot Gold Cup, Goodwood Cup and Doncaster Cup, appeared not to stay the distance on the very soft ground; his challenge for the Melbourne Cup in Australia in November is now open to doubt.

Margins: 2HF, 2, NK. Odds: 0.80, 3.15, 12.60.

Also Ran: Class Kris, Fashion Star, Overcharger, Upper Noosh, Sweep Honor (Fr).

A perfect seven-for-seven since losing her debut at Belmont in July of '94--Perfect Arc wins her second consecutive GII, adding this to a win in the Diana H. Saving ground while sitting just off the pace, she took over along the inside at the top of the stretch and drew clear. Trainer Angel Penna Jr. said he would not point to the Breeders' Cup this fall. "If she were a four-year-old, I would have tried the Breeders' Cup Mile," he said. "But she is three, and you would be taking a chance of knocking her out. I think the logical choice right now will be the Queen Elizabeth II (Oct. 21 at Keeneland)."

Unraced at two, Swain (Ire) (Nashwan) is undefeated at three, winning all five starts. The colt steps up after taking the mile-and-a-half G2 Grand Prix de Deauville Lancel August 27. Balanchine (Storm Bird), winner of the '94 English Oaks and Irish Derby, nearly lost her life to colic last year but returned in June after nearly a year off. Fifth in her '95 debut, the gallant filly took on males in the G3 Prix Foy last time out and just missed, finishing a head behind Carnegie (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) in the 12-furlong event. Her jockey, Walter Swinburn, partnered the filly All Along to Arc victory in 1983.

The distaff entry of Cherokee Rose (Ire) (Dancing Brave), boasting back-to-back Group 1 victories in her last two starts, and Easy Option (Ire) (Prince Sabo {GB}), three-for-five lifetime, are favoured in the early betting at 5-4. Four-year-old Cherokee Rose looks for her fifth straight win; she captured the Prix Maurice de Gheest two starts back at Deauville, then shipped across the channel to take the Haydock Park Sprint Cup.

◆ NEW YORK ◆

Local News: Belmont Park

Belmont Budweiser Breeders' Cup winner Dove Hunt (Danzig), six-for-10 this year, will make his next start in the Gil Kelso H. October 7. "I couldn't be happier with him," said trainer Neil Howard. Also pointing for the one-mile Kelso is Caress (Storm Cat). Trained by Allen Jerkens, the four-year-old filly, a two-time graded stakes winner, worked seven furlongs Friday, going in 1:27.82.

Local News: New York

WCBS (Channel 2) in New York will feature a report on Autotote and its Sports Haven simulcasting facility in a show entitled "Building America." The program airs Sunday, October 1 at 1:00 p.m. EDT.

Margins: NK, NO, NK. Odds: 10.50, 4.50, 3.75.

Blazing Kadie beat a similar field in her last start at Belmont, when she was a head winner Sept. 15 at a mile. Wheeled right back two weeks later, she sat near the back of the pack early, rallied outside in the drive and got up in time to win by a neck.

10th-BEL, $34,000, Alw, 3yo/up, 8.5fT, 1:44 1/5, gd. ISLAMABAD (c, 3, Red Ransom--Turquoise Gal, by Navajo) earned his first win on the Belmont turf last Sept. in his debut, following it up with a third-place finish in the Gill Pilgrim S. After two off-the-board finishes, he was put on the shelf for almost a year, returning here with an off-the-pace three-length victory at 9-1. He is a 1/2 to Gallant Step (Go Step), MSW, $352,057. Margins: NO, 1, HD. Odds: 6.50, 12.00, 0.60.

Also Ran: Teasing Charm, Delaroy Beauty (Aus), La Turka, Aspiring Proof, My Tombola.

Symphony Lady, who got up to eke out a nose decision in the Eatontown S. at Monmouth in August, came back to finish fifth in the GIII Noble Damsel H. at Belmont but rebounded here for another narrow victory. Allowed to trail the field for a half, the dark bay came flying at the finish to get the nod over Kira's Dancer; she is a half to yesterday's G1 Prix du Cadran winner Always Earnest (see Weekend Results, p2).

Margins: HF, 4 3/4, 2 1/4. Odds: 0.70, 9.90, 3.30.

Maintaining a perfect record, Seacliff was sent off at 3-5 and made it four in a row, but by the closest margin to date in his two-turn debut. "He got the lead and dawdled there at the top of the stretch," said jockey Rene Douglas, adding, "He loves competition. He has a great future--I've been saying since the first time I worked him that he's my Derby horse." Trainer Bill Kaplan, a New York native, said, "Providing he comes back sound, we're planning to go to the Breeders' Cup. I'd be very proud to go home with a horse like this. There is something very special about an undefeated horse--you can dream that you might have a great one."

A late-closing neck winner of her six-furlong debut at Calder Sept. 11, Effectiveness kept to the same running style today; 11th during the early running, she made a move on the turn and swept past the leaders to win going away. "Running her in this race basically went against everything I've ever been taught," said trainer Tom Proctor. "Jumping up this quick to this kind of company, going a distance off just one sprint race." The trainer left his options open for her next start, and while not ruling out the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, appeared to be leaning the other way. Even-money Plum Country was brushed in the stretch by U CAN DO IT (Gold Alert). "She lost her action a bit when U Can Do It touched her," said rider Rene Douglas.

Silken Cat (Storm Cat) puts her undefeated two-for-two streak on the line in her first two-turn event. Her maiden-breaking eight-length win at five furlongs was considered by many locals to be the most impressive of any juvenile filly this year; she bolstered that opinion with a 14-length six-furlong win after a rough start at odds of 1-20 August 30.

Local News: The Meadowlands

GISW Pistols And Roses (Darn That Alarm), who returned to training after serving his first year at stud this past breeding season, could make his next start in Friday night's GI Meadowlands Cup. The six-year-old has started just once since his return, finishing fifth in a Belmont allowance race September 21; he will likely return to the breeding shed in '96.

Also Ran: Caherdaniel, Slew of Damascus, Silver Wizard.

Originally campaigned in Europe, where he was a SW in France and GSP in both France and Germany, Caesour was shipped to California last October and responded by winning his first race on American soil at Santa Anita. He has since added two tallies to that initial victory, including a win in the Turf Paradise Breeders' Cup earlier this year. He earned his first graded win here, prompting the early pace of SLEW OF DAMASCUS (Slewacide) before taking command in midstretch and drawing clear late.

RIVER CITIES BREEDERS' CUP-GIII, $150,000a, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/16mT

Onceinablueamoon (Al Mamoon) ships in off a win in the GIII Hillsborough H. at the same 1 1/16-mile distance over the Bay Meadows turf course. Claimed at Del Mar two starts back by trainer Jack Van Berg for owner Louie Roussel for $100,000, the filly looks for her third straight win after finishing first or second in her last eight starts. She carries high weight of 121 lbs.

Local News: Louisiana Downs

Jockey Tim Doocy earned his 3,000th career victory yesterday, riding May Pop (Chad's By Geo.) to a 3 1/2-length tally in the fourth race on the card. Said Doocy after the score, "I went by 2,000 and 2,500 without noticing, and I'm glad I knew about this one."
