ANOTHER TRIUMPH: LAMMTARRA

TAKES ARC Sweeping though his fourth victory in just four lifetime starts, undefeated Lammtarra (*Nijinsky II) stalked frontrunning Luso (GB) (Salse) to the final turn in the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, then powered to the lead and held off a strong late bid from Freedom Cry (GB) (Soviet Star) to post a three-quarter length score at Longchamp yesterday. Luso faded to 13th. It was a wonderfully game victory for Lammtarra, who becomes the first horse since Mill Reef in 1971 to win the Epsom Derby, King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. and the Arc in the same season. Said winning rider Frankie Dettori, 24, "This horse is a lion, a fighter. He's so tough, so hard. He doesn't want to lose. He always wants to win. I adopted different tactics with him this time. He's still immature and I wanted to keep him up with the pace. He's a real champion racehorse. He would have won by three lengths in another 50 yards. This is the best dream of my life." Lammtarra becomes the first British Arc winner since Carroll House in 1989, and gives Dettori, champion jockey in England last year, his first Arc victory. The three-year-old may ship across the Atlantic for what could be the final start in his short but brilliant career. "It is up to Sheikh Mohammed (the owner's father, oldest of the four Maktoum brothers and ruler of Dubai) where the horse will run next, but he may possibly go for the Breeders' Cup Turf," said Sheikh Mohammed al Maktoum, adding. "It is almost certain that he will be retired to stud at the end of the season and, if he stays in Britain, he will stand at Dalham Hall Stud in Newmarket. If he retires to the U.S.A., he will go to Gainsborough Farm in Kentucky."

Always well placed behind the leader LUSO (GB) (Salse), Lammtarra moved to second on the second turn, came to challenge the pacesetter fully two-and-a-half furlongs out, led into the straight and then had to battle hard for his victory. Giving eight pounds to the younger winner, Freedom Cry finished with determination but had to settle for second. "I thought I had the race halfway up the straight," said his jockey, Olivier Peslier. The filly BALANCHINE (Storm Bird) never threatened, finishing 10th. "She was never happy, never traveling well," said rider Walter Swinburn.

CORDERO RIDES AGAIN In a dramatic and emotional return to riding, Angel Cordero Jr. made it back to the track and to the winner's circle yesterday at El Comandante Racetrack in his native Puerto Rico. Cordero, 52, had not ridden a race since January 12, 1992, when he was involved in a near-fatal spill at Aqueduct. Victory came aboard Puerto Rican champion Bandit Bomber (Prosperous), who won a seven-furlong allowance race by 12 1/4 lengths, posting his 29th victory in 31 career starts. Adding to the excitement, the 1-20 favorite completed the distance in 1:21 2/5, breaking the track record set by Mr. Frisky in 1990. "This horse is so good, he can carry me at my age and win," said Cordero. "If he had lost, the only excuse would have been that the jockey was too old." Cordero added that his comeback was not without mixed emotions. "I felt a lot of pressure, more than I thought I would," he said. "I now realize that I have lost the love I always had for riding, which is very sad. It was something that I loved so much, and that's gone." Cordero, who finished second in a photo aboard Precious Heredity (Big Mukora), his only other mount on the day, said he still hopes to participate in the Breeders' Cup October 28, and that he would like to ride once or twice more before the big event. Bandit Bomber will ship to New York for the October 27 Sport Page H., but it has not been announced who will be in the saddle for that start.

FIRST STAKES WINNER FOR ACADEMY

AWARD Freshman sire Academy Award (Secretariat), a graded stakes winner of $226,943, had his first stakes winner Saturday when Winning Actress captured the $120,050 Illinois Breeders' Debutante S. at Hawthorne. Sent off the 8-5 choice, the New York invader claimed a three-quarter length victory in the mile-and-a-sixteenth event. Academy Award, who stands for a fee of $2,000, live foal, at Claiborne Farm in Lexington, has sired seven winners from his first crop.

Solar Crystal set a good pace on the soft ground and still led entering the straight, but she was soon challenged by Shake The Yoke, who looked the probable winner until Miss Tahiti came from the rear of the field, found a gap and stormed through to win comfortably from the favorite. Alec Wildenstein, son of owner Daniel Wildenstein, said, "We love Arc Day. This was our second winner already. This filly is very progressive. She has a very long action and we thought she might get unbalanced on this ground, but Olivier Peslier managed to get her balanced early in the straight and she then ran perfectly."

PRIX DE L'ABBAYE DE LONGCHAMP-G1, $166,210, Longchamp, France, 10-1, 2yo/up, c/f, 5fT, :57.70, vy sf.

A brilliant performance from the filly Hever Golf Rose, who took over the lead from Eveningperformance at halfway and strode home to win easily. She has now won Group races in England, France, Germany, Italy and Sweden this year. "This was an amazing effort," said trainer Joe Naughton. "She seems to be getting more professional and sharper with each race. She seems to thrive on travel. I'd like to go to the Breeders' Cup Sprint with her." Added winning jockey Jason Weaver, "I'm over the moon. She had a bad draw, but Lochsong won from there (last year). This filly thinks she's unbeatable."

Oxford Scholar was sent against stakes company in New Jersey after breaking her maiden at Saratoga Aug. 25, and just missed in that try, finishing second by a neck. The 4-1 fourth choice in this field of five proved up to the task here, however, slipping up the inside to best a field of more proven stakes performers. "Every horse that has beaten her is a stakes winner and it's good to see her join the club," said trainer Mark Hennig. The 8-5 favorite, CRAFTY BUT SWEET (Crafty Prospector), winner of the Gill Sorority at Monmouth this summer, ran an even fourth.

A winner of her first two starts by a combined 22 lengths, Silken Cat made her first start beyond six furlongs here and proved she could stay the ground. Breaking in second position, she was quickly sent up after the lead, was challenged by Miners Mirage on the turn, but opened up again heading for home and was never seriously challenged thereafter to earn her first stakes win and keep her perfect record intact. She will be pointed next for the Oct. 28 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies at Belmont, and trainer Mark Frostad thought this experience would come in handy there. "That was an important win," said Frostad. "She had some company up front this time. They were going pretty quick early, and she slowed down pretty good in the end, but I think she got a lot out of the race and that's the important thing."
