FRENCH DEPUTY MAY SKIP 'CUP' FOR

BELMONT SATURDAY French Deputy (Deputy Minister) may be scratched from tonight's Meadowlands Cup if the rain which has been falling in the New Jersey area since Wednesday continues as forecast, according to trainer Neil Drysdale. The undefeated three-year-old colt has also been entered in the fourth race at Belmont Saturday, a $46,000 one-mile allowance. "I'm worried about the track conditions in both places," said Drysdale. "This gives us another alternative. I just want to see what the weather does." Drysdale was not concerned about getting the colt ready for the Breeders' Cup off the allowance race. "I think he'd be okay if he were to run at Belmont," said Drysdale. "I'm trying not to lose sight of the fact our primary goal is the Breeders' Cup."

HOLLYWOOD DERBY GETS SPONSOR The 54-year-old Hollywood Derby has been renamed the Crown Royal Hollywood Derby. The announcement was made after Hollywood Park signed a sponsorship agreement with The House of Seagram, a division of Joseph E. Seagram & Sons, Inc. The $400,000 Crown Royal Hollywood Derby, a 1 1/8-mile grass event for three-year-olds, will be contested November 26 during Hollywood Park's Autumn Meeting, which opens Nov. 15. Inaugurated in 1938, the Derby's rich history includes victories by such champions as Itsallgreetome (1990), Affirmed (1978), Crystal Water (1976) and Swaps (1955).

LARRY THE LEGEND'S COMEBACK ON HOLD

Larry the Legend (Local Talent)'s comeback from knee surgery has been placed on hold, owner/trainer Craig Lewis said Thursday. The three-year-old colt, who gained national prominence early this year after winning the GI Santa Anita Derby and GI San Rafael S., had been in light training for a winter/spring campaign at Santa Anita before suffering a recent setback. "His status is unknown," Lewis said. "We were walking him after a gallop the other morning and we didn't like what we saw." Lewis said the problem is in the colt's left front knee--the same knee from which the Illinois-bred had chips surgically removed this past April, causing him to miss the Triple Crown. "We're in the process of having the knee examined by a least a half-dozen veterinarians and surgeons," Lewis continued. "After that, we'll make a decision regarding the horse's future. This much is for sure; we won't compromise with a valuable horse like him."

Saturday, Belmont Park:

JOCKEY CLUB GOLD CUP-GI, $750,000, 3yo/up, 10f

PP	HORSE	TRAINER	JOCKEY	WT

7	Jed Forest	Callejas	Chavez	126
8	Concern	Small	Brown	126

Bill Mott, trainer of morning-line favorite Cigar (Palace Music), seemed unconcerned about the possibility of an off track Saturday. "He's a little careful when he trains on an off track in the morning," Mott said. "He's not as aggressive. He doesn't stumble or bobble or have a bad way of going, but he doesn't use himself as much." D. Wayne Lukas, trainer of probable second choice Thunder Gulch (Gulch), remained undaunted at the prospect of facing top handicap horse Cigar. "There is a nationwide movement to ban smoking and I'll be glad to extinguish any Cigars I see--just trying to help the movement," said a straight-faced Lukas yesterday.

Saturday, Belmont Park:

5	Lakeway	Jones	Delahoussaye	123

A stellar performance in the Beldame could earn last year's Champion Three-Year-Old Filly Heavenly Prize (Seeking the Gold) a trip to the Breeders' Cup Classic. "If Heavenly Prize wins the Beldame, I don't know what else we could do for her to not win another Eclipse Award," said her trainer Shug McGaughey. "Then it might be just the time to take a chance with her in the Classic because it's almost a no-lose situation."

Trainer David Donk does not feel the rainy weather will be a problem for Arlington Million winner Awad (Caveat) in the Turf Classic. "I was impressed with his race in the Million," said Donk. "Soft ground isn't a problem for him." Awad's last effort over a yielding turf course was in the July 1 GII Bowling Green H. at Belmont, in which he finished second by 3/4-length.

MOET CHAMPAGNE S.-GI, $500,000, 2yo, 1 1/16m

Hennessy (Storm Cat), second by a head in his career debut at Hollywood Park in June, has won four straight since, including three graded stakes. In his most recent effort Aug. 27 at Saratoga, the chestnut colt was a 3/4-length winner of the GI Hopeful S.

Golden Attraction (Mr. Prospector) will try to win her third straight Grade I test after taking the GI Spinaway at Saratoga and GI Matron at Belmont in her last two outings.

Tonight, The Meadowlands:

MEADOWLANDS CUP-GI, $500,000, 3yo/up, 1 1/8m

PP	HORSE	TRAINER	JOCKEY	ODDS
1	Unaccounted For	Schulhofer	Day	5-1
2	Peaks and Valleys	Day	Krone	7-2
3	French Deputy	Drysdale	Delahoussaye	5-2
4	Conveyor	Perkins Sr.	Bravo	15-1
5a	Looming	Small	Brown	2-1
6a	Concern	Small	Smith	2-1
7	Poor But Honest	Rojas	Butler	15-1
8	L'Carriere	Bond	Bailey	6-1

A steady rain has blanketed the New Jersey area since Wednesday night, causing the possible defection of French Deputy (Deputy Minister), who has been cross entered in a Belmont allowance race (see news). "He's trained on a wet track a little, but not much," admitted trainer Neil Drysdale. Another possible scratch from the GI event is Unaccounted For (Private Account). The Scotty Schulhofer-trainee is also entered in Saturday's GI Jockey Club Gold Cup. The morning line favorite for the race is the entry of Concern (Broad Brush) and Looming (Broad Brush). Trainer Dick Small has no problem with the forecast for continued rain. "All the Broad Brushes I've had love an off track," Small said.

Saturday, Santa Anita:

OAK LEAF S.-GI, $200,000, 2yo, f, 1 1/16m

PP	HORSE	TRAINER	JOCKEY	WT
1	Gastronomical	Jones	Desormeaux	115
2	Ocean View	Mulhall	McCarron	115
3	Cosmic Fire	Stute	Solis	115

5	Typically Irish	Lukas	Pincay Jr.	115
6	Ecstasy	Cenicola	Almeida	115
7	Saratoga Flower	Orman	Valdivia Jr.	115

Does trainer Gary Jones believe Gastronomical (Sunshine Forever)--a maiden breaker--can beat undefeated GII Del Mar Debutante S. winner Batroyale (Batonnier)? "Basically, no," Jones said. "But, and this is a key with two-year-olds, we've already been a distance of ground and Batroyale hasn't. Gastronomical is a nice filly with a good mind who wants to run all day. The farther they run, the better she'll get. But whether she's ready for the Batroyales of the world, I don't know. We'll have to wait until Saturday to find out."

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a + will denote winners who are first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.

Local News, Washington:

Construction on the new Emerald Downs Thoroughbred track in Auburn, Washington, which began in May, is progressing smoothly, with the building of 11 large barns most evident among many projects on the 166-acre site. "We're very pleased with progress to date," said Ron Crockett, president of Northwest Racing Associates, builders of Emerald Downs. "As each day goes by we're a step closer to seeing major Thoroughbred racing return to Western Washington in a world-class facility." Barn area construction is scheduled for completion early next year.

Sent off at 2-1, the Bill Mott trainee briefly lost her frontrunning advantage in midstretch to 9-5 favorite WINNER'S EDGE (Seeking the Gold), but battled back to hand that rival a 2 1/2-length defeat; it was another 11 lengths back to 16-1 CRAFTY LADY (Crafty Prospector) in third. Local News, Maryland:

More than 125 horses, including graded stakes-winners Urbane (Citidancer), Prenup (Smarten), Who Wouldn't (Baederwood), Calipha (Two Punch), Ameri Valay (Carnivalay) and Oliver's Twist (Horatius), have been pre-entered for the 10th Maryland Million Day, slated for Saturday, October 14 at Laurel Park. "It's an important day in Maryland racing," said Jim McKay, Maryland Million Ltd. chairman and famed ABC broadcaster. "It's a true showcase event." The 11-race program, which is limited to the progeny of Maryland sires, offers over $1,000,000 in purse money.

Local News, Woodbine:

Alywow (Alysheba), Canada's Horse of the Year in 1994 and second by a length in last year's Rothmans Ltd. International S. at Woodbine, will make a return appearance in the 1½-mile turf race next Sunday, Oct. 15. Trainer Roger Attfield said yesterday the four-year-old filly is ready to take on the boys in the GI event. "Alywow is in great shape, doing very well and right on course for the Rothmans at this point," Attfield said. "I'm very pleased with her."

Another confirmed entrant for the Rothmans is three-year-old Mt. Sassafras (Mt. Livermore), third in the GI Molson Million in his last start Sept. 17. The chestnut colt breezed five furlongs in 1:02 2/5 over a "good" Woodbine track Thursday. "He's kicking the barn down; he's never felt better," said trainer Barb Minshall.

Lucky Forever (Lucky North), winner of the six-furlong Bay Meadows Breeders' Cup H. in his last start Sept. 16, blew out three furlongs in :36 2/5 Thursday at Santa Anita for trainer Gary Lewis.
