BREEDERS' CUP PREVIEW ON NBC TODAY For the fourth consecutive year, NBC Sports will televise the Breeders' Cup Preview from Belmont Park. Today's broadcast will air from 4:30 to 6:00 p.m. EDT, with the GI Turf Classic, GI Moet Champagne and GI Jockey Club Gold Cup telecast live, and the GI Frizette, GI Beldame and GIII Kelso shown on tape. The GII Goodwood H. from Santa Anita will also be televised on the program, which will be hosted by Tom Hammond.

FOURSTARS ALLSTAR TO COOLMORE Fourstars Allstar (Compliance), winner of the 1991 Irish 2000 Guineas, has been acquired by Coolmore Stud, one of the sponsors of that Irish classic, and will stand at the County Tipperary farm in 1996. The seven-year-old New York-bred has won 14 races, including this year's GII Bernard Baruch H., and more than $1.5 million. Fourstars Allstar is a full-brother to millionaire gelding Fourstardave, who was retired this past summer at the age of 10; his stud fee has not yet been announced.

OAKS WINNER TO RACE AT FOUR Epsom Oaks heroine Moonshell (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), out of action since her classic success in June, will be back racing in Europe for 1996. The lightly raced filly, winner of a maiden event and third in the 1000 Guineas in her only other runs, is reported completely recovered from the joint injury which cut short her three-year-old campaign.

NEW HEAD FOR AUTOTOTE Autotote has announced the appointment of Thomas C. DeFazio to the position of President and Chief Operating Officer. DeFazio joined Autotote just six months ago as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. Before joining the wagering equipment company, he was Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer with Smith Corona Corporation and served as Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of General Instrument Corporation. DeFazio will have worldwide responsibility for all domestic and international operating units.

6	Cigar	Mott	Bailey	1-5
7	Jed Forest	Callejas	Chavez	50-1
8	Concern	Small	Brown	20-1

Cigar (Palace Music) has two Grade I wins in his two starts at a the 10-furlong distance of the Gold Cup. "From a mile to a mile-and-a-quarter he has done very well," said trainer Bill Mott. "But his margins of victory have been bigger at a mile-and-a-quarter." Thunder Gulch (Gulch) is the only other Gold Cup contender with more than one win at the route; the three-year-old is a perfect two-for-two with Grade I wins in the Kentucky Derby and Travers.

Saturday, Belmont Park:

8	Hernando	Hammond	Asmussen	4-1
9	Rifapour	Royer	Mosse	20-1
10	Next Endeavor	Tagg	Day	15-1

Turk Passer (Turkoman), originally entered in yesterday's sixth race at Belmont, an allowance event, was scratched from that start when the race came off the grass and will go here. The five-year-old gelding is likely to be on the front end early. "Because there isn't much speed in the race, it was our intention to run," said trainer Scotty Schulhofer. "We were hoping it would come up the way it did." Turk Passer set the pace briefly in the 13-furlong GIII Seneca H. in his most recent outing August 25, but tired to finish ninth. He fared better in the nine-furlong GII Bernard Baruch H., running second from start to finish.

Margins: 2HF, 2, NO. Odds: 2.40, 8.80, 1.60A.

Also Ran: L'Carriere, Looming, Conveyor.

Fresh from victory in the GI Molson Million, Peaks And Valleys took on older horses and picked up his second consecutive Grade I triumph, and his fifth win from his last six starts. Rated just off the pace of Poor But Honest early, the homebred colt slipped up the rail on the far turn and strode away down the lane to become the first three-year-old since Broad Brush, sire of the favorite in this edition, won it in 1986. "He did gallop around pretty handily, the rascal," said trainer Jim Day. "It looked like he saved ground all the way...he never raced on the inside before, but he got a good trip." As for the future, Day said, "We'll have to look at the Breeders' Cup and think about it a little bit." Favored Concern moved up to reach contention a half-mile out but hung late and ended up third. Saratoga Cup winner L'CARRIERE (Carr de Naskra) pressed the pace and tired.

Saturday, Belmont Park:

BELDAME S.-GI, $250,000, 3yo/up, f/m, 9f

PP	HORSE	TRAINER	JOCKEY	ODDS
1	Unlawful Behavior	Martin	Pezua	20-1
2	Heavenly Prize	McGaughey	Day	3-5
3	Incinerate	Jerkens	Leon	20-1
4	Serena's Song	Lukas	Stevens	5-2
5	Lakeway	Jones	D'houssey	3-1

Trainer Gary Jones was pleased with the outside post his filly, Lakeway (Seattle Slew) drew. "In her last two races, she has been stuck down on the rail. I like the post. And I also hope there's a little bit of moisture in the track," he said. The multiple Grade I winning filly, on the board in her two starts this year, is looking for her first win since contracting near-fatal pneumonia following last year's Alabama. "The whole question is to find out if she's back to where she was," said Jones.

MOET CHAMPAGNE S.-GI, $500,000, 2yo, 1 1/16m

PP	HORSE	TRAINER	JOCKEY	ODDS

7	Diligence	Zito	D'houssey	6-1
8	Unbridled's Song	Ryerson	Smith	12-1
9	Maria's Mon	Schosberg	Davis	3-1

Trainer Jim Ryerson hopes to make it to the gate with the Unbridled's Song (Unbridled), who was once again scratched from yesterday's Huntington S. Said Ryerson, "We were a little concerned about the muddy track (yesterday), but I think it should be fast (today). Of course, his experience level is a concern, but with a better track, we're planning on running." The roan has started once, taking a Saratoga maiden race by 8 1/2.

FRIZETTE S.-GI, $250,000, 2yo, f, 1 1/16m

PP	HORSE	TRAINER	JOCKEY	ODDS

3	Flat Fleet Feet	Kimmel	Smith	7-5
4	Mountain Affair	Patton	Davis	12-1
5	Golden Attraction	Lukas	Stevens	3-5

My Flag (Easy Goer), third in the GI Matron last time, will try to follow in the hoofsteps of her dam, champion Personal Ensign, who earned her first stakes win in the 1986 Frizette. Her trainer, Shug McGaughey, also took the race three years running, 1991-1993. Trainer Jose Martin, who saddles longshot New York-bred Thunder Achiever (Thunder Puddles) for her open company and stakes debut, has three Frizette wins to his credit, scoring with 64-1 Golferette in 1978, as well as Lakeville Miss ('77) and Molly Ballantine ('74).

5	Typically Irish	Lukas	Pincay Jr.	4-1
6	Ecstasy	Cenicola	Almeida	15-1
7	Saratoga Flower	Orman	Valdivia Jr.	20-1

"We're taking it one race at a time, but of course our goal is to make the Breeders' Cup," said trainer Bob Baffert, who sends out favored Batroyale (Batonnier). "It all depends on what happens (today). Undefeated in four starts, the Cal-bred makes her two-turn bow.

The gelding was moved to the turf in June because of foot problems, and has blossomed since. Said trainer Eddie Gregson of the GII Del Mar Invitational H. winner, "He's bred to be a turf horse, and we know he can get the distance. Whether he's good enough to beat a horse like Sandpit (Brz) (Baynoun {Ire}), I don't know."

News cont.

EPSOM STARTER EYES ROTHMANS Presenting (Mtoto), third in the G1 Epsom Derby, is set to challenge for the Rothmans International at Woodbine October 15. Presenting was made the favorite for this year's St. Leger, but was scratched when the course came up soft. The colt was similarly withdrawn from consideration for races in Italy and Ireland. Owner George Strawbridge is looking beyond the Woodbine race, saying, "I would very much like a Japan Cup invitation for Presenting." A Breeders' Cup Turf bid is also being considered. As the Rothmans gained one possible starter it lost another as Only Royale (Ire) (Caerleon), dual winner of the G1 Yorkshire Oaks, has been counted out of the race. The filly, third to Carnegie in the Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud in July, has been sidelined with a foot injury, forcing trainer Luca Cumani to call off both her trip to Canada and her possible Breeders' Cup bid. Cumani still hopes Only Royale will recover in time for the Japan Cup, "It's nothing serious at all--just an abscess--but it is taking a long time to clear up. Japan, however, remains a possibility."

ENGLISH 2000 GUINEAS WINNER ARRIVES AT VINERY Mister Baileys (Robellino) arrived Friday morning at Vinery in Midway, Kentucky, where he will begin stud duties next year. As a 2-year-old, the colt won England's G3 Lanson Champagne S. and the G2 Royal Lodge S. Last year at three, Mister Baileys won the G1 Madagans 2000 Guineas, recording the fastest time in the 180-year history of the race. The stallion will stand for a fee of $10,000 live foal, payable November 1.

GOFFS WRAP-UP A son of Last Tycoon (Ire)--Perfect Alibi (Ire) (Law Society) brought a bid of $252,217 to top the Orby II session of the Goffs Irish National Yearling Sale, held Tuesday through Thursday at Ireland's Kildare Paddocks. Consigned by Westerlands Stud, property of Mr. M. L. Page, the colt was purchased by John Ferguson, Esquire. In all, a total of 450 yearlings were sold during the three days of the Orby II session for a gross of $9,737,273, an average of $21,638.

NOSEDA HEADS FOR AMERICA Trainer Jeremy Nosedo, 31, who has played an important role in the conditioning of Sheikh Mohammed's Godolphin string, is now ready to set up a public stable in California. Nosedo, former assistant to both John Dunlop and John Gosden, was originally offered the chance to train for the Sheik in France, but turned it down because of difficulties with his application; he expects to have his American operation running after the Breeders' Cup.

SANTA ANITA TO LIMIT TURF RACING Santa Anita track management, concerned that the growth of the new $2.3 million turf course has been hampered by extremely high temperatures, will reduce the number of turf races originally planned for the 32-day Oak Tree meet which began Wednesday. "Through the end of the month, which takes us through the second condition book, we will only run stakes on the turf course," said Thomas S. Robbins, Director of Racing. "Our intention is to give the course a chance to mature. If all goes well, beginning with condition book three (November 1), additional races will be written daily for the inside oval."
