THUNDER GULCH INJURED, RETIRED

Following an injury suffered in Saturday's Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont Park, this year's Kentucky Derby and Belmont Stakes winner Thunder Gulch (Gulch) has been retired. The three-year-old colt will stand alongside his broodmare sire Storm Bird at Ashford Stud in Versailles, Kentucky. Thunder Gulch's injury, a condylar fracture of the left front cannon bone, marked the end to an exceptional racing career, which had seen the chestnut win nine races and $2,915,086 in 16 career starts. In addition to the Kentucky Derby and Belmont S., the Kentucky-bred was victorious as a three-year-old in the GI Travers S., GI Florida Derby, GI Swaps S., GI Fountain of Youth S. and Kentucky Cup Classic, and recorded a third-place effort in the Preakness S. He also showed flashes of brilliance as a juvenile, taking the GI Remsen S. at Aqueduct and finishing second in both the GI Hollywood Futurity and GI Cowdin S. "We discovered after the Gold Cup and watching him blow out after the race that he was very uncomfortable," said the colt's trainer D. Wayne Lukas. "There was no filling or heat in his leg, but he looked very uncomfortable--we knew something was bothering him. So we had X-rays taken. After examining the X-rays, we discovered he has a condylar fracture of his cannon bone in his left front. The bone is not displaced. I think it's fair to point out that if you look back in the last decade and pull the records on three-year-olds, he should stand with them. He had a marvelous three-year-old campaign. He danced every dance. People thought he couldn't win the Swaps after the Triple Crown and not only did he win the Swaps, but he won the Travers as well. If there's one thing we want in a racehorse, it is the consistency he had, his heart and the way he tried. He really was a world-class racehorse. This horse is going to have a marvelous stud career." Owner Michael Tabor said after deciding to retire Thunder Gulch, "Obviously, I'm shellshocked. I hoped to run him as a four-year-old. I think the public really enjoyed watching him run. But I think this is the right thing to do."

Inside Information, winner of 12 of her 15 previous starts including an 11-length tally in the GI Ruffian H. at Belmont Sept. 16, notched her fifth GI victory here as the overwhelming 1-2 choice. Fractious in the gate prior to the start, the bay filly broke in a tangle and bobbed at the start, was taken in hand and kept close while four wide into the first turn, eased in a bit on the backstretch, was put to a drive nearing the five-sixteenths, put a head in front right before the eighth pole then was ridden hard to prove best. "It wasn't her best race by any means, but it was a good, hard race for her," said winning jockey Mike Smith. "If she gets away good, she's probably going to be loping on the lead." 3-2 second choice Mariah's Storm, who upset Saturday's GI Beldame winner Serena's Song in the GI Turfway Park Budweiser Breeders' Cup in her last, pressed the pace early then tired to be third in the 4-horse field. "To me, she just didn't act like she was getting a hold of the racetrack," said Mariah's Storm's jockey Robert Lester.

Northern Spur, a G2 winner in France last year, had been 0-for-2 since coming to the U.S., finishing 3rd and 10th in the GI Eddie Read H. and GI Arlington Million in his only 2 stateside outings. Using Lasix for the first time here, the bay colt tracked pacesetter and 4-5 favorite Sandpit to the top of the stretch, where he took over for the victory. Northern Spur was purchased early this year by current owner Charles Cella for $1.3 million.

"He was second to the Arc winner last year (Carnegie) and we thought that was good enough," said trainer Ron McAnally. "And he had the breeding and Charles Cella was willing to pay for quality." McAnally said the Breeders' Cup Turf will probably be next for the four-year-old. Jockey Corey Nakatani said of last year's Oak Tree Invitational winner Sandpit, 2nd in the Arlington Million last out, "He never got comfortable today. He ran on his left lead the whole way. He ran a good race, just the same. He just got beat today."

Margins: 2HF, 2HF, 2. Odds: 0.90, 21.50, 7.40.

Also Ran: King's English, Beefchopper, Never to Squander, Cobb's Creek, Roar, A. V. Eight, Knights Image.

Third in his stakes debut in the GI Belmont Futurity last out after getting off a step slowly, Honour and Glory came away nicely in his second stakes outing and graduated with something left. Going up for the lead early, he took command down the backstretch, lost the lead briefly at the quarter pole, but quickly recovered it to win going away. "He's still a little bit green," said jockey Pat Day. "He's still learning. When I turned for home and called on this colt, he responded gamely and drew off at the wire."

Also Ran: Careless Heiress, Trust the Dream, Summer Squeeze, Hello Rachel, Nastassja, Myth, Hugsie.

Second in her stakes debut last out when she fell just a neck short of eventual Frizette winner Golden Attraction in the Matron, Cara Rafaela found no such tigers in this field. Stalking the leaders during the early running in her second stakes outing, she took the lead on the turn, lost it briefly at the top of the stretch, but soon drew away under a hand ride to give D. Wayne Lukas a juvenile sweep at Keeneland. "I think she'll have some say in the outcome of the Breeders' Cup (Juvenile Fillies)," said rider Pat Day. "I think she's certainly got room for improvement. She's going in the right direction and should be right in the thick of things up there."

The winner of the GII Del Mar Futurity in his last start, Future Quest was made a slight favorite over Kentucky Cup Juvenile winner Editor's Note and led almost every step of the way for a game victory despite bearing out at the top of the stretch. "I touched him with the stick and it was like saying 'boo' to a kid in the dark," explained jockey Kent Desormeaux. "It took him a good sixteenth of a mile to find his legs again and level off." Connections of the top four finishers said no firm decisions had been made regarding starts in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile.

News Continued.AFTERNOON DEELITES BACK ON TRACK

Afternoon Deelites (Private Terms), winner of five of seven career starts including the GI Hollywood Futurity, GII San Felipe S., GIII San Vicente Breeders' Cup S. and GIII Hollywood Prevue Breeders' Cup S., returned to trainer Richard Mandella's barn Saturday and is ready to begin training for a winter/spring campaign. The three-year-old colt has been sidelined almost five months since being diagnosed with a slight tear in the tendon of his left foreleg. "He came in last night," said Mandella Sunday. "He looks great." Burt Bacharach's colt hasn't started since finishing eighth in the May 6 Kentucky Derby, and had been turned out at Sid Craig's Rancho Paseana in Rancho Santa Fe, California. Mandella said he hopes to have Afternoon Deelites ready to race by the beginning of 1996.

CORDERO TO RIDE AT BELMONT SATURDAY

Angel Cordero Jr. will ride this Saturday at Belmont Park, making his first appearance as a jockey in New York in 3 1/2 years, he reported yesterday morning. Cordero plans to ride a filly he trains, Rogues Walk (Ends Well), in the $75,000 Ticonderoga H. during New York Showcase Day. The best horse Cordero trains, Rogues Walk, winner of seven of 10 starts including the GII Reeve Schley Jr. S. at Monmouth in June, will be among the favorites in Saturday's race. Cordero, 52, expects he will get at least one other mount on the card but, if so, he will have to turn in his trainers license temporarily.

FLORIDA RUNNERS HEADED TO PERU A trio of Calder-based horses will be making a trip to Lima, Peru to compete in races October 20 and 21. Invitations to the connections of MSP Honest Colors (True Colors), Buck Call (Buckaroo) and Joe's Slupy (Slew The P) have been accepted by Tuli Hanflink of the Jockey Club Del Peru, which will underwrite all transportation and accommodation expenses for the runners and their connections. The three will race at Monterrico Race Track; Joe's Slupy, owned and trained by Joe Fabrizio, runs in a five-furlong dash on the straight for a purse of $40,000 to the winner; he is expected to be ridden by Gary Boulanger. Armand Delaperriere's Honest Colors, trained by Eddie Plesa, goes 1 1/2-miles for $100,000; Boulanger has the call. Marissa Olivares' Buck Call, trained by Luis Olivares, will go a mile for a winner's purse of $40,000; Jose Rivera II is scheduled to ride.

After a spring and summer which included wins in the GI Carter H., GII Tom Fool and GII De Francis Dash, Lite the Fuse (Buckaroo) looks to redeem himself following two consecutive losses in the Forego and Vosburgh in his last two starts. "It was only six weeks ago that he was a champ," said owner/breeder/trainer Dick Dutrow. "Now he's a chump. Does it bother me? Not at all." After a scope of the colt revealed blood in his lungs after the Vosburgh, Lite the Fuse will run on Lasix for the first time Saturday; he drilled five furlongs in :57.51 on the diuretic Sept. 25 at Aqueduct.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a + will denote winners who are first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.

Classy Mirage, winner of the GI Ballerina S. at Saratoga two starts back, finished 3rd as the even-money favorite in the Gill Meadowlands Budweiser Breeders' Cup H. in her last outing Sept. 8. Bet down to 3-5 here, the classy filly put a head in front at the start, extended her advantage to as many as 4 lengths in midstretch then had enough left to hold off a late charge from Dust Bucket to win by ½. "She was very honest today," said winning trainer H. Allen Jerkens. "She did what she was supposed to do. She went to the lead as planned then had to really ride hard to the wire. She did well today considering she carried a lot more weight than everyone else."

Gomtuu, winner via DQ of the Victoria S. (GIIC) in his career debut at Woodbine in May, tried turf for the first time in his last start and responded with a 6th-place effort in the Sept. 10 Summer S. (GIC). Back on the main track here, the chestnut dueled for the lead with Kingcanrunallday until the top of the lane, where he took control and drew clear to win his first graded stakes. "He's got a lot to learn," said winning rider Dave Penna. "He doesn't know how to run yet; he's out there because he loves to run. He'd be a better horse if he could settle into his races, but that just comes with age. He's a big, strong boy. If he puts his mind to it, he can be somebody." Trainer Dominic Polsinelli said immediate plans for Gomtuu include some rest and relaxation before shipping to Florida for the winter. 2-1 bettors' choice HANDSOME HANSEL (Hansel), winner of his only previous start, never fired, finishing 8th.

A winner of his first two starts in New Jersey, each as the even-money choice, Appealing Skier sported a bullet work at Laurel since his last win and enjoyed his easiest victory to date here as the 1-5 choice. Breaking on top, he increased his advantage at every call to win in hand and while trainer Ben Perkins said that the Breeders' Cup Juvenile was "a consideration," a start in that race is by no means definite. "It's not number one on our priority list," said Perkins. "Having a nice horse in the spring is number one with us. He could go in the (Oct. 29) Cowdin (at Belmont)."

Northview Stallion Station has purchased a 75 percent interest in the eight-year-old stallion Rakeen (Northern Dancer), a 1/2-brother to Rahy. Rakeen, whose first foals are 2yo's this year in South Africa, has stood a full book for the last three years at Mr. and Mrs. G.W. Landon's Aldora Stud. The Landons have retained a 25 percent interest in the stallion, a G2 and G3 winner in South Africa. Currently in quarantine in Newburgh, New York, Rakeen is expected to arrive at Northview by the end of November. His stud fee will be $7,500. Dr. Tom Bowman, who visited the horse in quarantine, said, "Rakeen is a beautifully balanced individual with a knock-out pedigree that will complement Northview's current stallions."
