ALHAARTH TOPS IN EUROPE Alhaarth (Ire) (Unfuwain) is "almost certain" to be rated Europe's champion juvenile of 1995 after his impressive victory in Newmarket's Dewhurst S. yesterday. Geoffrey Gibbs, the British Horseracing Board's senior handicapper, said he would be "very surprised if a rating of less than 125" was allotted to the colt following his 2 1/2-length victory in the G1 event. "Unless something puts up a very special performance in one of the races still to come, I would think Alhaarth is virtually certain to be top-rated at the end of the season," said Gibbs. "He hardly came off the bridle to beat previous Group One winners and, although it is just possible that Tagula (Ire) (Taufan) ran a little below his best after his layoff, I think you would have to say the winner was impressive." Britain's bookmakers thought so, offering prices as low as 2-1 for next year's 2000 Guineas and only around 4-1 for the '96 Epsom Derby. The Guineas is expected to be the colt's first major target next spring.

RECORD FALLS AT TATTERSALLS OCTOBER After four days of lively trading, the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale which concluded yesterday established a new record average price and comfortably bettered the sales turnover of the previous three years. A total of 730 lots were sold during this year's auction, bringing in $20,138,373 for a record average of $27,585. Last year, 829 Tattersalls October yearlings sold for $16,418,455, an average of $19,805. "The general consensus among buyers has been that the yearlings have been of exceptional quality," said Tattersalls' Chairman Edmond Mahony. "The strength of the middle market has, in some quarters, been questioned recently, but it has been alive and kicking this week, and long may it last." The sales topper, sold Wednesday, was a colt by Bluebird--Rise and Fall (Mill Reef); consigned by Bishop's Down Farm of Bruce and Virginia Deane, the bay went for a bid of $202,985 to C. Gordon-Watson Bloodstock. The top bid from yesterday's fifth and sixth sessions was brought by Ashtown House Stud's colt by Slip Anchor out of Europe's top-rated two-year-old of 1981, GSW Circus Ring (High Top); the half to SW Lady Shipley (Shirley Heights) was purchased for $138,030 by Mr. W. H. Ponsonby.

Margins: 2 1/2, 1 1/2, 25. Odds: 4-7, 2-1, 13-2.
Also Ran: Albaha.

Alhaarth maintained his unbeaten record in superb style yesterday, becoming the 51st favorite in 93 runnings to win this race. ALBAHA (Woodman) acted as pacemaker and set strong early fractions, but Alhaarth was forced to go on when his lead horse could find nothing more. Winning jockey Willie Carson later said, "I shouted at Michael (Hills, jockey of Albaha) to go on, but he couldn't and I had to let Alhaarth go. He paced himself well, but I had to give him a backhand coming up the hill...he showed a lot of speed." The classy Danehill Dancer, previously unbeaten himself, looked superb in the paddock and had every chance in the race but in the end was no match for the winner. Trainer Dick Hern was full of praise for Alhaarth, saying, "He spoke for himself today. This was a great performance. He races so easily, hence his five outings this season. I doubt he will run again this year. I can't remember having a better two-year-old colt; it helps you through the winter having a horse like this. It's good for the staff, too. He is a very exciting prospect for 1996." Alhaarth is now a perfect five-for-five in his career with four Group victories.

7	Fahal	Morley	Hills	122
8	Tamure	Gosden	Swinburn	122

Frankie Dettori, who begins a 10-day riding ban today, will therefore not be available to partner Epsom Derby runner-up Tamure (Sadler's Wells) in the Dubai Champion S. Ironically, Walter Swinburn now takes the mount. Swinburn partnered Lammtarra to score at Epsom, but was replaced by Dettori when that undefeated Derby hero went on to score in Ascot's King George and Queen Elizabeth S. and Longchamp's Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe before being retired to stud earlier this week. Dettori will, though, be able to ride Presenting (GB) (Mtoto) in the Rothmans International at Woodbine. His ban applies only to days when there is racing in Britain.

Sunday, Woodbine:

Three-year-old Presenting (GB) (Mtoto {GB}), the morning-line choice, looks for his third straight after taking the G3 Westminster Taxi Insurance Gordon S. and the G2 Tripleprint Geoffrey Freer S. in England. Never worse than third in nine starts, the colt was beaten only 1 3/4 lengths by the brilliant Lammtarra when third in this year's Epsom Derby.

Fourstars Allstar (Compliance), 124, gets the services of Hall of Famer Angel Cordero Jr. The winner of this year's GII Bernard Baruch H. and GIII Ft. Marcy H. will try to rebound after finishing third behind subsequent Kelso winner Mighty Forum (GB) as the 3-5 chalk in the GIII Cliff Hanger at The Meadowlands last out. The seven-year-old was fifth to rival My Mogul (Cormorant), 116, in last year's Mohawk. The '94 Mohawk winner has been second in two state-bred stakes since, most recently running three-quarters of a length behind the distaffer Tiffany's Taylor after a troubled trip in the West Point H. at Saratoga.

MAID OF THE MIST S., $100,000, (S), 2yo, f, 1m

The field of 10 is headed by Three Pack (Stacked Pack), who totes 121 pounds after taking the restricted Joseph A Gimma S. in her last. The John Becker home-bred is two-for-two against state-bred fillies. She faces English import Lac Dessert (Lac Ouimet), 116, who makes her dirt debut after going two-for-three across the Atlantic.

SLEEPY HOLLOW S., $100,000, (S), 2yo, 1m

Carrbine Special (Carr de Naskra), 122, rallied with blinkers on last out to take the New York Breeders' Futurity at Finger Lakes by a head over Out To Win (Carr de Naskra), 122. That order of finish was reversed in the Bertram F Bongard S. two starts back.

IROQUOIS H., $125,000, (S), 3yo/up, f/m, 7f

Lottsa Talc (Talc) shoulders top weight of 123 pounds after back-to-back wins in an open money allowance and the restricted Schenectady H. The five-year-old has won six of 12 starts this year. Madder Than Mad (Carr de Naskra), 117, missed by just a neck in the Schenectady; the Allen Jerkens trainee, shipped in from California this summer, has been first or second in seven of nine starts this year.

TICONDEROGA H., $150,000, (S), 3yo/up, f/m, 8.5fT

Twice a graded stakes winner this year, Irish Linnet (Seattle Song), 126, has taken nine races over the Belmont turf while earning more than $1.1 million, but she finished third at 3-5 to rival Putthepowdertoit (Talc), 118, in this event last year. Last year's Ticonderoga winner was beaten just a half-length in each of her last two starts, both open allowance races.

HUDSON H., $125,000, (S), 3yo/up, 6f

Three-year-old Bid Baby (Loustrous Bid), 113, is two-for-two at Belmont and has won his last three starts at this distance. Never worse than second in seven starts, the gelding was beaten only a neck in the nine-furlong New York Derby, his lone stakes try. Corma Ray (Cormorant) tries for his second straight in this race; the consistent five-year-old totes top weight of 123 pounds.

EMPIRE CLASSIC, $250,000, (S), 3yo/up, 9f

Highweight Itaka (Jade Hunter), 119, will try for his second in a row in the Classic; he has been off the board his last four starts while racing mainly in Grade I company, but took the open Clarinet King S. in July. Richmond Runner (Personal Flag), 118, six-for-nine at Belmont, took a state-bred money allowance trying Lasix for the first time in his latest.

Today's Preview: Best Of Ohio, Thistledown ENDURANCE CHAMPIONSHIP, $150,000, (S), 3yo/up, 10f

Three-year-old Major Adversary (Mighty Adversary) tops the field; the colt has won 10 of his 14 career starts, including eight stakes. He faces four-year-old Defense Witness (Skip Trial), winner of the Best Of Ohio Juvenile in 1993 and third in this race last year. He has six stakes wins to his credit.

DISTAFF CHAMPIONSHIP, $100,000, (S), 3yo/up, f/m, 9f

Sporting a record of nine wins from just 13 career starts, Cut The Cuteness (Cut Throat {GB}) takes on her elders. The three-year-old filly has won five of six starts, all of them stakes, this year; she took the Best Of Ohio Juvenile Fillies last year.

JUVENILE CHAMPIONSHIP, $100,000, (S), 2yo, 8.5f Sandi's Silverhope (Silver Wraith), with a record of four wins in just six starts, goes for his fourth lifetime stakes win. The colt has won two stakes over the Thistledown strip.

JUVENILE FILLIES S., $75,000, (S), 2yo, f, 8.5f Foxy d'Or (Tour d'Or), three-for-five lifetime, has notched two stakes wins, but she was third behind rival Mighty Emy (Mighty Adversary) in the Miss Ohio S. Mighty Emy has been first or second in all four starts.

SPRINT H., $50,000, (S), 3yo/up, 6f Banker's Forbes (Bold Forbes) goes for his 20th career win and his first stakes score. The six-year-old was third in this event last year. SW St. Croix Ray (Sovereignty), seven-for-29, is already stakes-placed this year.

MARYLAND MILLION LASSIE, $100,000, (R), 2yo, f, 7f

A full field of 14 is headed by Mystic Rhythms (Citidancer), 119, winner of the Jersey Jumper S. at The Meadowlands in her most recent start; the bay was also fourth in the Gill Sorority S. in August. Im Out First (Allen's Prospect), 119, three times stakes-placed, set the pace but tired in the Belle Star S. over the grass at Dueling Grounds September 16; the country's leading rider Corey Nakatani gets the call.

MARYLAND MILLION OAKS, $100,000, (R), 3yo, f, 9f

Urbane (Citidancer), 119, winner of the GI Ashland S. and never off the board in seven starts, makes her first appearance since running second in the GI Kentucky Oaks May 5. The filly flies in from California, where she has been working steadily for new trainer Randy Bradshaw; Nakatani also makes the trip.

MARYLAND MILLION SPRINT H., $100,000, (R), 3yo/up, 6f

Preup (Smarten), 120, winner of this race last year, comes into the '95 edition off a sharp Belmont allowance score going a mile September 9. The Grade I winner has jockey Jose Santos in the saddle. Who Wouldn't (Baederwood), 120, runner-up in '94, reeled off five straight wins from November to February but returned from a seven-month layoff to finish a well-beaten sixth in a Laurel allowance last out. The six-year-old makes his second start off the extended vacation.

MARYLAND MILLION NURSERY, $100,000, (R), 2yo, 7f

Count On Numbers (Polish Numbers), 122, has put together three straight wins since breaking his maiden July 2. The Carlos Garcia charge came back to take the five-and-a-half furlong Primer Breeders' Cup and the six-furlong Bernard Bond S. at Pimlico; he stretches out another eighth. Way Out Front (Opening Verse), 122, has started just once, breaking his maiden at Pimlico going a mile and a sixteenth for owner/breeder Alfred Vanderbilt. The chestnut blew out in a bullet :47 2/5.

MARYLAND MILLION LADIES, $125,000, (R), 3yo/up, f/m, 9fT

The 1994 winner Mz. Zill Bear (Salutely), 123, took back-to-back stakes in Maryland before finishing fourth over a yielding course in the Chrysanthemum H. last out. The six-year-old has been favored in her last eight starts, winning three of them. Icy Warning (Caveat), 123, runner-up last year, took two in a row in the Midwest before falling victim to traffic trouble in her last two in New York; she fell just a half-length short when fourth in a Belmont allowance in her latest.

MARYLAND MILLION TURF, $100,000, (R), 3yo, 9fT

Rose Law Firm (Mr. Goldlust), 116, takes on the colts in her second start since April. The bay filly came back to finish third despite a rough start in a Pimlico allowance at nine furlongs on the grass September 24. Earn My Keep (Hay Halo), 119, on the board in five-of-six on the turf, will try to bounce back after finishing well back in a pair of starts in the slop his last two.

MARYLAND MILLION CLASSIC, $200,000, (R), 3yo/up, 9.5f

Three-year-old Oliver's Twist (Horatius), 121, came back from a three-and-a-half month layoff to take a Laurel allowance October 6. Runner-up to Timber Country in the GI Preakness, the winner of the Gill Federico Tesio has won four-of-five over this track, finishing second in his only loss. Veteran Ameri Valay (Carnivalay), 126, fourth in the Gill Polynesian S. at Pimlico in his most recent outing, has won 13 races at Laurel, including a 4 1/4-length score in the Walter Haight H. three starts back.

Today's Preview: Woodbine

PRINCESS ELIZABETH S.-GIC, $100,000, 2yo, f, 8.5f

The field, in order, will be: Winning Spurs (Buckley Boy), Bethley; Silky Oaks (Regal Intention), Penna; Native Resolve (Time for a Change), Dos Ramos; Mooncoin (Conquistador Cielo), Bahen; Sammie'sidledady (Island Whirl), Attard; Muskrat Suzie (Vice Regent), McAleney; Silver Joy (Silver Deputy), Kabel; and Beau Nanza (Beau Genius), Ramsammy. Local News: Santa Anita Ignacio E. Lozano, Jr., president of the Santa Anita Foundation, has announced the organization's contribution of a $500,000 grant to Methodist Hospital in Arcadia, California. The grant, subject to approval by the California Horse Racing Board, is comprised of funds raised at Charity Racing Days at Santa Anita; Methodist Hospital will receive $100,000 per year for five years.

Local News: Bay Meadows

Jockey Russell Baze began a five-day riding suspension yesterday which will temporarily stall his bid for an historic fourth consecutive 400-win year. Baze, who already has 353 victories in 1995, would become the first rider ever to win 400 races in a year four times; he and Kent Desormeaux are currently the only two jockeys to reach that mark for three straight years, and only three other riders--Chris McCarron, Pat Day and Sandy Hawley--have ever won 400 or more races in a year three times.

Horsemen are reminded they can nominate two-year-olds to three stakes--Gill $100,000 California Juvenile, 1m, set for Dec. 26; Gill $200,000 El Camino Real Derby, 1 1/16 miles, Jan. 20; and $150,000 Golden State Derby, 1 1/16 miles, to be run during the '96 spring meet--for a total of $100. The early-bird nomination deadline for the three stakes is Oct. 18.

Thursday's Late Result:

7th-BMX, $25,000, 10-12, 2yo, f, 1m, 1:36, ft.

RAISE THE PRIZE (f, 2, Prized--Raised Clean, by Raise a Man), the second choice at 2-1, dueled for the lead for six furlongs before drawing off commandingly to score by nine lengths over favored BAH BYE (Mamaison). Lifetime Record: 5-3-1-1, $59,750.
