McGAUGHEY FILLIES TO BE CROSS-ENTERED

Still weighing his options, Shug McGaughey will pre-enter Heavenly Prize (Seeking the Gold) and Inside Information (Private Account) in both the Breeders' Cup Distaff and Classic when those pre-entries are taken tomorrow, but McGaughey admitted yesterday he would probably keep both fillies with their own sex. "I haven't made up my mind, but I'm leaning toward running both in the Distaff," McGaughey said.
"I still want to see how both horses are doing and I want to talk to the Phippses more about it. The Distaff is very important. If I were absolutely positive that Inside Information would win the race, maybe I would opt for the Classic for Heavenly Prize." Inside Information's head victory in last Sunday's GI Spinster S. at Keeneland has given McGaughey some room for pause, he said. "Her race at Keeneland was not her best, but she had a big excuse," said the trainer. "Still, I want to make sure that it was that--a big excuse."

SIXTY NOMINATED TO JAPAN CUP A total of 60 foreign horses have been nominated to next month's Japan Cup. Heading the list of 21 from the United States is Sandpit (Brz) (Baynoun {Ire}), who is expected to make the trip. The six-year-old was second as the favorite in the GI Oak Tree Invitational last time out. Arlington Million winner Awad (Caveat), Oak Tree Invitational victor Northern Spur (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and Turf Classic winner Turkpasser (Turkoman) are also nominated. There are also a pair of Canadian nominees, including last year's Horse of the Year in that country, Alywow (Alysheba). Europe's representatives, topped by Arc runner-up Freedom Cry (GB) (Soviet Star), consist of 15 from France, six from England and three from Germany; there are also eight Australian and five New Zealand nominations.

FUTURE QUEST INJURED Future Quest (Relaunch), winner in three of his four starts and first in the GII Norfolk S. in his latest, suffered a fracture in his right front leg during the race and will miss the Breeders' Cup Juvenile. "He will not need surgery, but obviously it's going to require some time off," said trainer Ron McAnally.

Margins: 2, HD, 1 1/2. Odds: 5-1, 7-2, 25-1.

Also ran: Tamure (Ire), Bahri, Fahal, Germany, Environment Friend (GB).

This year's 2000 Guineas winner Spectrum, reserved at the rear of the field for a mile, found a gap on the rail and had too much finishing speed for his rivals, going on to an impressive win. Said winning trainer Peter Chapple-Hyam, "This is possibly the best moment of the year for us. He had bad problems after the Epsom Derby with a deep muscular back problem. But we nursed him back and he was at his best again today. I was very confident before the race because he had been working so well at home. The plan before the race was to keep him in training as a four-year-old and I hope that is still the case." TAMURE (Sadler's Wells), who beat Spectrum when they last met when getting seven pounds, did not look at his best before the race and disappointed. BAHRI (Riverman) hung badly in the final two furlongs, showing his best distance is a mile, but his fifth-place purse money enabled his trainer, John Dunlop, to overtake Saeed bin Suroor as the season's leading trainer in Britain and he now looks certain to take the title for the first time, as the Dubai horseman is unlikely to have any more runners.

EXCHANGE RETIRED Sidney Craig's multiple Grade I winner Exchange (Explodent), winner of 15 races and $1,269,950, has been retired and will travel to Kentucky in November to begin her career as a broodmare. The seven-year-old had not raced since March, when she took the GII Orchid H. at Gulfstream Park. "Her ankles are getting a little bigger. She isn't sore or lame or anything like that, but perhaps she's a bit arthritic. It would have been tough to get her ready for the Matriarch," said trainer Bill Spawr. Winner of that race last year, Exchange was claimed for $50,000 in 1991 and went on to win nearly 25 times the investment.

Fourth in the GI Vosburgh in his most recent effort, Golden Gear was sent off at 3-5 to handle this field and did so with ease despite a rough start. Breaking from the rail, the bay swerved into BOONE'S MILL (Carson City) (5th) when the doors opened, then raced along the inside before finding room at the top of the stretch and sprinting clear to a handy score. The winner will make his next start in the Breeders' Cup Sprint.

Margins: 3, 3, 1HF. Odds: 6.10, 4.60, 2.45.

Unraced as a four-year-old, Sky Carr had been out just seven times this season, winning one of those starts while keeping this event as his main goal. Sitting in striking position, he swung to the outside on the turn and kicked clear through the stretch. "We've been pointing toward this race for a very long time," said trainer H. James Bond. "This was Sky Carr's day."

Irish Linnet, third in the Gill Violet H. at The Meadows last out over a yielding course, earned the role of overwhelming favorite as the winner in three of her last four over firm turf, including a pair of graded stakes scores. After breaking a step slowly, the veteran racemare settled just behind the leaders through the opening fractions, moved to put a head in front as they straightened for home and drew clear under jockey John Velazquez. Trainer Leo O'Brien said that he would ship his millionairess cross-country for her next start, the GI Matriarch at Hollywood November 26.

Carrbine Special, whose lone loss came when he finished second to Out To Win in the Bertram F Bongard S. two starts back, looked to benefit when that colt scratched here but still had to fight for his fourth career win. The heavy favorite in the eight-horse field, the chestnut hooked fellow Carr de Naska colt Tropicool at the quarter pole and exchanged the lead with that rival to the wire, prevailing by a neck in the final strides. The runner-up was making his stakes debut after breaking his maiden last time out.
