LURE NEGOTIATIONS STALLED Ireland's Coolmore Stud, which since August has been in negotiations with the insurers who now own two-time Breeders' Cup champion Lure (Danzig), announced yesterday that plans for the stallion are up in the air. The two parties have been unable to resolve what Coolmore called "fundamental differences" over the agreement to stand the stallion at Coolmore for the 1996 season. Lure became the property of the insurers after failing to get more than 60 percent of his mares in foal last season.

BEST PAL BACK IN ACTION WEDNESDAY Golden Eagle Farm's Best Pal (*Habitony), who hasn't raced since finishing fifth behind Cigar in the $1 million Hollywood Gold Cup July 2, will return to action in Wednesday's featured Skywalker S. at Santa Anita. The seven-year-old gelding, whose bankroll stands at $5,793,895, blew out for the race yesterday, going a half in :47 1/5. The Cal-bred is prepping for the November 11 $250,000 Wells Fargo Cal Cup Classic; he faces fellow Grade I winner Slew Of Damascus (Slewacide) in the mile test for three-year-olds and up.

TEAM VALOR TO FORM GENERAL PARTNERSHIP Team Valor partners Barry Irwin and Jeff Siegel, whose groups have raced major winners Star of Cozzene (Cozzene) and Prized (Kris S.), have announced they will form a limited partnership to buy, race and sell horses over the next five years, and that they will no longer syndicate horses. A California corporation owned wholly by Irwin and Siegel, Team Valor will be the general partner of the limited partnership. Two-hundred units at $25,000 each will be offered in the partnership before the closing date of Nov. 22. "Our goal is to convert to a corporation and go public in the year 2000," said Irwin.

SILKEN CAT TO MISS BREEDERS' CUP Undefeated Silken Cat (Storm Cat), an impressive winner of all three of her starts in Canada including the Mazarine S. in her last outing by 3 1/4 lengths, will not be pointed for the Oct. 28 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, according to trainer Mark Frostad. "She is sore behind," explained Frostad. "She missed a week's training. We X-rayed her and couldn't find anything else, so it must be kind of like a muscle pull." Frostad said that Silken Cat would be given the winter off and brought back next year.

3--Hasten to Add, 126, h, 5, Cozzene--Beau Cougar, by *Cougar II. O-Pin Oak Stable; B-Pin Oak Stud (KY); $119,762.

Margins: HF, 2, 1HF. Odds: 7.70, 7.10, 18.95.
Also Ran: Talloires, Boyce, Commoner, Volochine (Ire), Jet Freighter, Alywow, Next Endeavor, Born Wild, Charlie's Dewan, Mt. Sassafras, Presenting (GB), Poliglote (GB).

Last away from the gate, Lassigny was shuffled back shortly after the start but started picking off horses during the run down the backstretch. Set down on the turn, he swung out into the clear and finished up with good run. Emmanuel deSeroux, racing manager for Sultan al Kabeer, said that a decision would be made today on whether Lassigny would be pre-entered for the Breeders' Cup Turf or pointed for the Japan Cup next month. "I'd be quite surprised if Mr. Mott would run him back in two weeks in the Breeders' Cup," said Pat Day of the colt, who is now 2-for-2 on Lasix since bleeding during his 6th-place finish in the Arlington Million. "But if he were to run him in there, I'd certainly be very happy to ride him." The runner-up is also possible for the Turf. "I had to check him just slightly when we were sweeping for home," said jockey Jerry Bailey. "It probably cost him some momentum and he got beat only a half-length. He ran a great race." The 5-2 favorite, PRESENTING (GB) (Mtoto {GB}), "never ran a race," according to Frankie Dettori, who finished 14th aboard the colt.

Also Ran: Alice Springs, Northern Emerald, Morgana, Warning Shadows (Ire), Truly a Dream (Ire), Take Liberties (GB), Danish (Ire), Hey Hazel, My Marchesa, Overcharger.

Beaten only once while racing in Ireland and France, Timarida flew across the Atlantic after a decisive score in the G2 Prix de l'Opera on the Arc undercard and proved equally formidable on this side of the ocean. Allowed to settle in sixth for a half, the grey three-year-old launched a bid as they headed into the far turn that carried her to a clear victory under jockey Frankie Dettori. "She seems to be getting better every time she runs," said her trainer, John Oxx, who was not in Canada but listened to the race on the telephone from Ireland. "This filly's got a terrific constitution. She seems to thrive on racing." The winner will return to Ireland for a well-deserved vacation; she is likely to race again as a four-year-old.

Also Ran: Le Triton, Astor Place (Ire), Committal (Ire), Dark Nile.

An Andre Fabre 1-2 finish in the Grand Criterium, with Loup Solitaire just holding off the strong late finish of Manninamix after he had taken the lead from pacesetter LE TRITON (El Gran Senor). Eternity Range finished well between the Fabre pair to be beaten only a length. Alec Wildenstein, son of the owner, said, "We've always thought this was a nice horse. He was second on his first start and then was only third in a maiden at Saint-Cloud, but we decided to supplement him for this race as Andre Fabre said that he just didn't handle the left-handed track at Saint-Cloud."

Also Ran: Mutakddim, Neverneyev, Anabaa, Wessam Prince (GB), Branston Abby (Ire), Myself (GB), Young Ern (GB).

The Breeders' Cup Mile, if the going is firm, or the Breeders' Cup Sprint, if it is not, are next on the agenda for this Andre Fabre winner, who was always travelling well in behind the early leaders. On the turn, Poplar Bluff began his challenge, hit the front a furlong out and always had enough in hand to withstand the strong late finish of Bin Ajwaad, who came from far off the pace to be second.
