RACING CANCELED AT BELMONT Yesterday's card at Belmont Park was canceled just before the first race due to high winds and heavy rains. The featured GII Jamaica H. was also canceled, and will not be rescheduled. Simulcast wagering on races from Keeneland and Santa Anita, and on the Calder Derby, continued, but patrons at the track Saturday were issued rain checks for admission good any day except Breeders' Cup Day; they also received refunds for parking, and will be able to exchange yesterday's program for a program any day but Breeders' Cup Day. Explained New York Racing Association Chairman and President Kenny Noe, Jr., "The safety of the horses and riders is our primary concern. I apologize to our patrons who made their way out here in tough weather, and hope they understand the reason for this decision."

PELDER AND MISSED FLIGHT TO STUD A pair of European Group winners have been retired and will go to stud next season. Pelder (Ire) (Be My Guest), easy winner of this year's G1 Prix Ganay, will stand at Benham Stud in Berkshire, England at a fee of $4,500. The five-year-old, Italy's highweight two-year-old colt in '92, was also successful in Italy's G1 Gran Criterium at two and G1 Premio Parioli at three. Missed Flight (GB) (Dominion {GB}), first in the G2 Sandown Mile and G3 Prix de Meauray this year, will go to stud for 1996 as well. The five-year-old, also a Group winner at four and twice G1SP in '95, had been expected to make a bid for the Breeders' Cup Mile, but a minor injury sustained in a morning gallop ended his career. "The injury wasn't serious, but it meant he couldn't run again this year. So, after he had such a good season, we thought this would be the best time to find him a place at stud," said his trainer, Chris Wall. Missed Flight will stand at Wood Farm Stud in Shropshire, England for a fee of $2,800.

VIRGINIA CARNIVAL TO FRANKS Virginia Carnival (Carnivalay), a 1/2-length winner of last Saturday's GIII Bay Meadows Derby, has been sold to owner John Franks for an undisclosed sum. The three-year-old colt, who has won five of nine starts, was expected to be shipped to trainer Jack Van Berg's Hollywood Park barn today. Former owners Robert Domush and James Egide purchased Virginia Carnival just two weeks before the Bay Meadows Derby, after the colt had won three straight allowance starts on the East Coast.

Also Ran: Sleep Easy, Rose Law Firm, Upper Noosh, Bail Out Becky, Search the Sea.

Perfect Arc broke on top, establishing a narrow lead down the backstretch under a relaxed hold, began to draw clear of the field on the turn and was clearly best under a sturdy hand ride to earn her third consecutive graded stakes. "She got away with slow fractions and she came home running," said jockey John Velazquez. "About the three-sixteenths pole, I let her know she was going to run--made sure she got the job done." The filly has now won her last eight and all seven turf starts.

Mons, the odds-on favourite, set a moderate pace and still led a quarter-mile out, when he was challenged by Even Top, but that one held the lead only briefly as Beauchamp King made a strong finishing move at the eighth pole and went on to win comfortably. Winning owner/breeder Erik Penser, who paid $23,200 to supplement the colt to the race, said it was money well-spent. "We did some homework and it suggested to us that there would be a small field. Beauchamp King is an improving horse and we intend to aim him for the 2000 Guineas. We will think about the Derby only after we have seen how he gets on at Newmarket." The grey is on offer at around 20-1 for Epsom. Added winning jockey John Reid, "My horse was always cruising here. He goes on any ground, and the Guineas must be a possibility for him. He won this easily." Mons' handler, Luca Cumani, felt the firm ground had a significant effect on his charge. He also felt the mile was perhaps too short for the colt. But Britain's bookmakers have allowed Mons to drift out of the 1996 Derby betting.

A solid second in the GI Super Derby last time out and winner of the Pennsylvania Derby two back, Pineing Patty picked up his second Derby victory here as the crowd's overwhelming favorite. Rated just off the flank of pacesetter Sea Emperor to the top of the lane, the Florida-bred ranged up to challenge as they straightened for home and prevailed in spirited stretch drive. "I honestly felt he was in the right place today," said winning trainer Lynn Whiting. "He had a frustrating two-year-old year, and we were forced to take a lot of time with him. That patience is starting to bear fruit now." The colt will start next in the GIII Clark H. at Churchill Nov. 24.
