CARNEGIE TO JAPAN Carnegie (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), winner of the 1994 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp and third last time out in the Breeders' Cup Turf, has been retired to stand at a Japanese stud. The colt will remain the property of his owner Sheikh Mohammed's Darley Stud Management Company. But his career as a stallion, with a covering fee of approximately $45,000, is due to begin at Japan's JS Company Stud in 1996. A statement issued during the weekend by Darley's Newmarket, England office said, "The decision to stand Carnegie in Japan demonstrates once again the importance Sheikh Mohammed attaches to Japan in the international racing and breeding context."

CRIMSON PUT DOWN Crimson (Alleged), the 8-5 favorite in Saturday's Discovery Handicap at Aqueduct, was humanely destroyed after fracturing both right front sesamoids during the race. The horse had been riding a four-race winning streak and was considered one of the more promising new faces in the three-year-old division. "They were shattered," said trainer Angel Penna Jr. "It was like a broken windshield. We put him down about an hour and a half after the race. We took x-rays and saw that there was a very slim chance that we could save him. It would have been a very painful process. Whenever you have to put one down, it's a very difficult decision, but sometimes it is best for the horse. He was really a very nice horse." Owned by Lazy F Ranch, Crimson broke down on the first turn of the nine-furlong race. His only loss had come in his career debut, when third in a maiden race at Gulfstream. He was making his stakes debut in the Discovery.

CUT THE CHARM RETIRED Kathy Jo Stable's Cut the Charm (Cutlass) has been retired from racing. The four-year-old filly, winner of eight of 22 starts for earnings of $600,962, won seven stakes from ages two to four including the $400,000 My Dear Girl S. at Calder and the Gill Davona Dale S. at Gulfstream. "She just isn't training the way I'd like her to," trainer Jim Bracken reported. "There isn't any serious injury or anything, but she has been too good to us to risk her any further when she's not doing well. She'll go to Kentucky and hopefully will be bred to either Deputy Minister or Seattle Slew in the spring."

Also Ran: Roy's Boy's, King's English, Cobb's Creek, Black Tie Dinner, Hello Henry.

Ide, winner of his last three outings at Turfway Park and Keeneland by a combined 22 lengths, took Keeneland's Fort Springs S. by eight in his most recent effort Oct. 20. Sent off the odds-on choice here to repeat that form, the chestnut colt provided his backers with few anxious moments, taking the lead at the start and never looking back, striding under the wire four lengths the best under a mild hand ride. "I'm looking forward to his three-year-old year," said winning jockey Craig Perret, who has ridden Ide to all four of his victories. "He's naturally quick and when you push the button he hits gears. He showed talent and has a side that wants to explode. We'll see if we can capture that and put it under a lid and get him to run a distance."

"He ran really good today," Davis said. "The blinkers moved him up and he was able to show a bit more speed. He loves to run at a horse and I tried to give him a target. It all worked out good."

Sent off the 5-2 bettors' choice here to turn the tables on that rival, Helmsman obliged with an off-the-pace tally under regular rider Chris McCarron.
