KEENELAND DAY TWO: USER

FRIENDLY BRINGS $2.5 MILLION

User Friendly (GB) (Slip Anchor {GB}), the top filly in Europe at three and winner of both the Epsom and the Irish Oaks, brought a bid of $2.5 million to top yesterday's second session of Keeneland's 1995 November Breeding Stock Sale. The now six-year-old, believed in foal to Mr. Prospector, was consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, Agent XVIII; she was purchased by Kazuo Nakamura. Aki Kato, agent for Mr. Nakamura, who stands Breeders' Cup Classic winner Arcangues in Japan, said, "She's one of a kind. It's hard to find." The second-highest price Sunday was paid for Salchow (Nijinsky II), an unraced five-year-old consigned by Lane's End, agent, who produced her first foal, a colt by Mr. Prospector, this year. In foal to Woodman, the half-sister to champions Machiavellian and Coup de Genie was sold for $1,250,000; although Josh Collins of B.B.A. (England) signed the ticket, the purchase was reported to be a buy-back for her original owner. The top weanling Sunday was a daughter of Mr. Prospector out of Embellished (Seattle Slew). Consigned by John R. Gaines Thoroughbreds, agent, the half-sister to MGSW Seattle Dawn (*Grey Dawn II) was purchased for $650,000 by B.B.A. (England). "I thought she was a beautiful filly," said Josh Collins. "The way the mare trade is here today, if she never saw a race course, you could bring her back here and get all your money back." A total of 276 horses sold at Keeneland Sunday, bringing in $40,438,500, an average of $146,516. (Top five broodmares and weanlings, p2)

WOODBINE CANCELS SUNDAY The 10-race program at Ontario's Woodbine was called off Sunday after the jockeys refused to ride on the frozen racetrack. The strip froze after a late-morning snowstorm hit the Toronto area. The track should be ready for Wednesday's card, provided the severe weather does not continue; plans for rescheduling Sunday's feature, the GIIC Autumn H., have not yet been decided.

Alpride, the top two-year-old filly in Italy and a Group winner at two and three in that country, made her American debut in July and bested Possibly Perfect in the GI Beverly Hills H. The bay finished behind that filly in her two subsequent starts but found the winner's circle once again when her nemesis was scratched, racing off the flank of Bold Ruritana to the stretch, then wresting the lead from that rival and digging down deep to hold off French import Angel In My Heart for the victory. "She couldn't have been coming up to this race any better," said jockey Chris McCarron. "She had filled out, just looked sensational; I was optimistic even before Possibly Perfect scratched." Explaining how he came to buy the filly, trainer Ron McAnally said, "French agent Emmanuel de Seroux was at the last Breeders' Cup at Churchill Downs, and I asked him if he knew of anything in Europe worth looking at. This filly was one, and, believe it or not, the other one was Northern Spur. When (Alpride) came on the market, I flew over to see her. We tried to negotiate with her previous owner, but he wouldn't budge an inch. So, we wound up giving him the bucks." McAnally added that a rematch with Possibly Perfect in the Matriarch is a possibility.

The five-year-old returns from a four-and-a-half month layoff following a fourth-place finish in Hollywood's Jim Murray H.; he teams with jockey Eddie Delahoussaye for the first time. Stablemate Hidden Source (Mr. Prospector), also a Juddmonte homebred, started his career in France. The three-year-old has been on the board in three of six turf starts; he makes his first appearance since running sixth, beaten just 2 3/4 lengths for the win, in the GI Secretariat S. August 27.

Caress, coming off a win in the Oct. 27 Suffolk H. at Belmont, kept her perfect Aqueduct record intact, winning her fourth race in four starts at the track. Despite the race's change to the dirt and her impressive turf record, the filly went off the 2-1 second choice, stalked the early leaders for six furlongs and then took over leaving the turn and held off the challenge of Manila Lila. Winning trainer Allen Jerkens was impressed with his runner's effort. "I thought she ran a gutsy race. Obviously this is not her favorite going and she showed she has a lot of class."

The Aqueduct crowd sent the chestnut colt off as the 8-5 favorite in the field of nine. After taking the lead in upper stretch, the winner had just enough left to hold off second-place finisher JO RAN EXPRESS (Gate Dancer). Backed down to 2-1 off that effort, the roan was content to trail early but came flying at the finish to break her maiden by a length and a quarter, becoming the sixth winner for her freshman sire.
