JOCKEY JULIE KRONE REACHES 3,000 WINS

Julie Krone, already America's winningest female Thoroughbred jockey, added another milestone to her career Wednesday at Aqueduct when she won her 3,000th race, according to Daily Racing Form statistics. Krone, 32, reached the milestone in yesterday's fourth race, riding Dustin's Dream to victory in a maiden special weight. It was one of her three winners on the day. A native of Benton Harbor, Michigan, Krone became racing's top woman jockey when she surpassed Patricia Cooksey with her 1,205th victory March 6, 1988 at Aqueduct. Cooksey currently ranks second on the female rider list with 1903 career wins through November 14. "To overcome all these injuries, to have my slump behind me and to have a lot of momentum going into Gulfstream, that makes all of this special," Krone said. There was some confusion over her milestone, however, as according to Jockey Club statistics, Dustin's Dream was only Krone's 2,998th winner.

CHAMPION TALKIN MAN TO WALMAC

Walmac Farm General Manager John T.L. Jones announced Wednesday that 1994 Canadian Champion Two-Year-Old Colt Talkin Man (With Approval) will enter stud at the Lexington, Kentucky farm for a 1996 fee of $7,500 live foal. Talkin Man won the GIC Coronation Futurity last year, defeating eventual Queen's Plate winner Regal Discovery by 6½ lengths. As a three-year-old, the Canadian-bred won the Gil Gotham S. and Gil Wood Memorial S., both at Aqueduct, by a combined margin of 14 3/4 lengths. Bred by Kinghaven Farms and Angus Glen Farm, Talkin Man went postward 10 times, winning five of those starts and earning $677,967. He raced for the partnership of Kinghaven Farms, Helen Stollery and Peter Wall, and will stand as the property of Kinghaven, Angus Glen, Walmac and Wimborne Farms.

KEENELAND SALES RESULTS

GILDED TIME WEANLING TOPS KEENELAND

WEDNESDAY A weanling bay colt by Gilded Time--For Dixie (Dixieland Band) brought top price of $150,000 during Wednesday's fifth session of the 1995 Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale. Silver Oaks Farm of Sorrento, Florida bought the colt, who is from the first crop by Gilded Time, the Champion Two-Year-Old Colt of 1992. The highest-priced broodmare of Wednesday's session was Misspitch (Waquoit), in foal to 1993 Champion Two-Year-Old Colt Dehere. A multiple stakes-winner of $176,898, five-year-old Misspitch was purchased by Upson Downs Farms, agent, for $130,000. Overall, Keeneland sold 281 horses Wednesday for a gross of $8,662,700, an average of $30,828 and a median price of $25,000. One stallion share in Eastern Echo brought an additional $25,000. After five days of the 11-day sale, 1,329 horses have been sold for a total of $118,879,200, an average of $89,450 and a median price of $47,000. The sale continues through Nov. 21.

DANZIG SEASON TOPS STALLION ACCESS A

1996 no guarantee season to Danzig topped Tuesday night's Stallion Access Inc. Fall Sale of Selected Seasons and Shares, held at Fasig-Tipton's Newtown Paddocks in Lexington, Kentucky. The Danzig season was purchased for $128,000. The two second highest 1996 no guarantee seasons were Lot 56—Nureyev and Lot 130—Pleasant Colony, which brought $71,000 apiece. A share in Florida stallion With Approval brought $72,000 to top all stallion shares, with a share in Phone Trick bringing the second highest price of $70,000. Overall, 77 stallion seasons were sold for a gross of $1,604,100 and an average of $20,832. Shares in 16 stallions brought an additional gross of $438,700.

SRI PEKAN TO COOLMORE STUD

Sri Pekan (Red Ransom), a top two-year-old in England last year, is the latest recruit to Coolmore Stud's powerful stallion team. The Kentucky-bred will stand at the Irish stud for a 1996 fee of IRE 7,500 gns ($12,632 U.S.), payable October 1. Sri Pekan raced only at two, posting a career record of five wins and one second-place finish from six starts for earnings of $150,894. His only defeat, in his career debut, came at the hands of an eventual Group 2 winner. Sri Pekan went on to take the G3 Coventry S. at Ascot, the G2 Richmond S. at Goodwood and the G2 Laurent Perrier Champagne S. at Doncaster by six lengths in his final career outing last September.

WOODBINE CANCELS WEDNESDAY NIGHT

CARD Jockeys, horsemen and The Ontario Jockey Club management unanimously agreed to cancel last night's 10-race Thoroughbred program at Woodbine due to track and weather conditions. Woodbine's dirt strip had been deluged by heavy snow and rainfall throughout the day and it was uncertain how the expected below freezing temperatures Wednesday night would affect it. John Whitson, The Ontario Jockey Club's Vice President of Thoroughbred Racing, said all three parties were in agreement to cancel approximately 90 minutes before the first race was scheduled to begin at 6 p.m. Whitson said a decision about Thursday afternoon's card is expected at about 11 a.m. this morning, after the three parties inspect the course once again. The track did remain open for simulcasting last night.

PURSE INCREASE AT REMINGTON PARK

Remington Park purses will see a 10 percent increase when entries are drawn today for Saturday's race card, said Mike Anifantis, director of racing and racing secretary. The across-the-board hike will also be accompanied by an eight percent increase in Oklahoma-bred purse supplements. The Oklahoma-bred purse hike is effective immediately. "It's always a good sign when you are able to increase purses," Anifantis said. "The trainers here have entered their horses this meeting through thick and thin. I'm glad we can give them a little pop before the meet ends." The continued growth of Remington's satellite wagering network and a recent Pick Six carryover of over $129,000 are two factors Anifantis credits for the increase.

D. WAYNE LUKAS HONORED BY KENTUCKY OWNERS

Multiple Eclipse Award-winning trainer D. Wayne Lukas was honored Tuesday night as the Warner L. Jones Jr. Horseman of the Year by the Kentucky Thoroughbred Owners Association at a banquet at the Kentucky Derby Museum. "What's significant is that this comes from within," said Lukas. "It's not from a media group. It's from people you deal with and work with every day in the ownership realm of this sport. And the fact that it bears Warner L. Jones Jr.'s name makes it even more special, because he was such a good friend."

HOLLYWOOD PREVUE BREEDERS' CUP S.-GIII, $100,000a, 2yo, 7f

Breeders' Cup Juvenile runner-up Hennessy (Storm Cat) is scheduled to arrive in Southern California from Kentucky today. Jockey Gary Stevens, who paired with the D. Wayne Lukas-trainee for victories in the GI Hopeful S. at Saratoga in August and GI Hollywood Juvenile Championship S. in July, has the call. After Sunday's race, plans are for Hennessy to be pointed to the $500,000 GI Hollywood Futurity Dec. 17. GSW Cobra King (Farma Way), winner of the Sunny Slope S. at Santa Anita in his last start Oct. 25, drilled a half-mile in a bullet :46 2/5 at Santa Anita Tuesday. Trainer Ron McAnally was at Santa Anita Wednesday, where he sent Verne H. Winchell's GSP Exetera (Forty Niner) five furlongs from the starting gate in a bullet :58 3/5; and Double J Farms' Matty G (Capote) five furlongs in 1:00 3/5. Also probable for the Prevue are Jazzmanian Devil (Jazzing Around) and MSP Zipped The Message (Unzipped).

Local News, Churchill Downs:

Training at Churchill Downs was cancelled for the second time in four days Wednesday after unseasonably cold weather in Louisville left the main track frozen.
 According to track superintendent Raymond V. Lehr, live racing will go on as scheduled, including races on the turf course.

A benefit raffle is being held for veteran jockey agent
 Don "Hee Haw" Alvey, who recently underwent surgery to remove his kidney. Raffle tickets are available for $5 each from any jockey agent at Churchill Downs or in the track's horsemen's lounge. Offered on the ticket is a weekend for two at Louisville's Seelbach Hotel, dinner at either Porcini's or Timothy's and a day at the races.
 The drawing will be held Nov 22 during the race day.
 The winner need not be present.

Local News, Thistledown:

Thistledown's 1996 racing schedule was approved Wednesday by the Ohio State Racing Commission. The 196-day schedule will break from the gate Friday, March 1 and continue through Monday, December 16. "The 1996 schedule offers a lot to be excited about between the Ohio Derby, numerous stakes races and plenty of opportunities for fan interaction," said Thistledown's General Manager and Vice President Michael G.
 Mackey. "We are pleased to continue the 7 & 7 Plan with Beulah Park and River Downs."

Feb. 4 on Santa Anita's main track. The chestnut filly then took a nine-month break from the races with some minor ailments, including a sore shoulder and a skin rash. Returning to the grass course here as the 3-2 favorite, she proved up to the task with an off-the-pace, 1 1/4-length tally. "This was a very easy race today," said winning jockey Gary Stevens. "She just galloped around there and had things under control the entire way. I never had to give her any encouragement at all." The 1993 Champion Two-Year-Old Filly PHONE CHATTER (Phone Trick) pressed the pace early then tired to be seventh.

Local News, Hollywood Park:

Trainer D. Wayne Lukas will be returning to his Southern California base today with four of his star two-year-olds. Cara Rafaela (Quiet American), Hennessy (Storm Cat), Honour and Glory (Relaunch) and Golden Attraction (Mr. Prospector) will all be leaving Churchill Downs for California. Hennessy will run in Sunday's GIII Hollywood Prevue Breeders' Cup S.; Lukas is considering racing his other charges at Hollywood Park in the coming months as well.

Advancing Star (Soviet Star), who blazed six furlongs in 1:08 4/5 in taking her debut at Santa Anita Oct. 21, breezed five furlongs at that track Tuesday in 1:01 2/5 for trainer Richard Mandella. The two-year-old filly is the probable favorite for Saturday's $100,000a, seven-furlong Maker's Mark S. at Hollywood Park.

Joanne Nor's five-year-old mare Desert Stormer (Storm Cat), who posted a wire-to-wire, upset victory in the Oct. 28 Breeders' Cup Sprint, may start next in the $100,000a Vernon O. Underwood Breeders' Cup S. Dec. 9 at Hollywood, trainer Frank Lyons said. "She came out of the (Breeders' Cup) so well that we might bring her back a little earlier than we had planned," said Lyons. "The Underwood is a possibility, but the only race I'd say is definite is the Santa Monica H." The GI Santa Monica H. at seven furlongs will be run Jan. 27 at Santa Anita.

Our Gatsby (Strike Gold), winner of the Great West S. and Budweiser S. at Remington Park last spring, will start next in the GI Crown Royal Hollywood Derby Nov. 26. The three-year-old colt suffered a chipped ankle while finishing seventh in the May 20 Preakness S., but returned from the injury to win two straight allowance races at Keeneland in October. "He had the chip in the Preakness and other than that he's been very consistent," said trainer Donnie K. Von Hemel. "He's won two of three races on turf and if he makes a big showing in the Hollywood Derby, his future options really expand."
