HALL OF FAMER MACK. MILLER RETIRES

Forty-five years after saddling his first winner, trainer MacKenzie Miller sent out the last starter of his training career at Aqueduct yesterday. Prodigal Son (Devil's Bag), who finished second as the even-money favorite in yesterday's sixth race, represented the last horse Miller will run before beginning his retirement. The division of the Rokeby Stables under Miller's care in New York will go before the auctioneer Tuesday in Fasig-Tipton's horses-of-racing-age sale at Belmont.

BAHRI ARRIVES AT SHADWELL Bahri (Riverman), the three-year-old colt likely to be named England's champion miler for 1995, has arrived at Nashwan Stud, the stallion facility at Shadwell Farm, Inc., where he will enter stud in 1996. "He arrived in fantastic condition," said Rick Nichols, Shadwell's vice president and general manager. "We are excited to have him come home. He was a brilliant miler, has excellent conformation and an outstanding pedigree." Bahri will stand for $20,000, live foal.

JOANNE NOR NAMED TOBA'S OWNER OF THE MONTH

Joanne Nor has been honored with the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association Owner of the Month award for October. Nor earned her first Breeders' Cup win with her first starter when Desert Stormer earned a hard-fought neck decision in the Sprint at Belmont Park October 28. A native of Dallas, Texas, Nor became involved with Thoroughbreds 20 years ago; she currently owns about 80 horses, most of which are part of her breeding operation at Norfield Farm in Frankfort, Kentucky. The developer of Norfields Magnetic Health Care Products, she has 20 horses in training with Frank Lyons, who saddled Desert Stormer to victory.

LAUREL ANNOUNCES 1996 STAKES SCHEDULE

The GII Barbara Fritchie H. and the GII General George H. head the list of 29 stakes, including 12 overnight events, set for the 1996 Laurel Park winter stakes program. The $200,000g Barbara Fritchie, for fillies and mares going seven furlongs, will be run Saturday, February 17, while the $200,000g General George at the same distance will be run Monday, February 19. The schedule also features the Gill Snow Goose S. for distaffers at a mile and an eighth, which will headline the card Saturday, March 23.

GISW Twist Afleet (Afleet), winner of the First Flight H. last time out, is likely to make her next start in the Gl Top Flight H. at the Big A November 24. "(The Top Flight) was a very easy race for her and she came out of it in good shape," said trainer John Kimmel. "I think she's on top of her game right now." The four-year-old bids for her fourth straight. Slated for a start in the Gl NYRA Mile November 25 is Sport Page H. victor Siphon (Brz) (Itajara {Brz}). The four-year-old, who shipped back to California after his last win, will return to New York two or three days before the race. Typically Irish (Metfield), winner of the Gl Oak Leaf S. but sixth in the Gl Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies in her last, will headline the Gl Demoiselle November 25. Her trainer, D. Wayne Lukas, will also saddle Marlin (Sword Dance {Ire}), an 11-length allowance winner on the grass in his most recent outing, for the Gl Remsen on dirt the same day.
