MR. PROSPECTOR MARE TOPS KEENELAND SATURDAY Sun Valley Farm paid a top price of $57,000 for Line (Mr. Prospector), in foal to Devil's Bag, during Saturday's session of Keeneland's November Breeding Stock Sale. Waterwild Farm, agent, sold the unraced seven-year-old mare, whose first foal, Danger Within (Devil's Bag) is a winner at two and three (in 1995). A colt by Phone Trick--Excitable Gal (Secretariat) brought the highest bid for a weanling yesterday; consigned by Eaton Sales, agent, the half-brother to SW Edgy Diplomat (Deputy Minister) sold for $50,000 to Andrew K. Jones, agent. A total of 280 horses went through the ring Saturday, bringing $3,973,100 for an average of $14,190. The sale ends Tuesday. (Top three broodmares and weanlings, p2)

FLORIDA PARI-MUTUELS AT IMPASSE Florida's pari-mutuel industry may have lost one of its biggest supports after a less-than-productive meeting yesterday at Calder. After the meeting, Florida Congressman Steve Geller (D-Hallandale), chairman of the Regulated Industries committee which oversees the pari-mutuel industry, said, "I've done my level best to bring the leaders of the pari-mutuel industry together, and they just don't seem to want to cooperate." Attending the session, which was called by Geller, were Calder President Ken Dunn, Gulfstream Park President Doug Donn, Florida Thoroughbred Breeders' and Owners' Association President Stanley Ersoff and Florida Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association President Scott Savin and Executive Director Kent Stirling. "Every time I offered a suggestion, someone in the group would find a reason why it wouldn't work," said a frustrated Geller. "Everybody wants simulcasting, but to get it the dog industry wants card rooms. The Thoroughbred tracks say they want card rooms, but only if they can operate at night and take simulcast after 7 p.m. (the time when live Thoroughbred racing must be completed). The breeders are afraid of card rooms but want phone wagering. The dogs and jai-alai don't want phone betting. The one thing I learned from this meeting is that I'll be able to spend more time with my family over the holidays, rather than running off to unproductive meetings over pari-mutuels." News cont. p2

Margins: (NK), (1), 1HF. Odds: 1.05A, 5.80, .
Also Ran: Easy Miner, Diplomatic Jet, Doctor Disaster, Usman, Humbel, The Wild Irishman, *Boyce. DNF: Same Old Wish.
*BOYCE (Lord Avie) finished second but was disqualified and placed last after drifting in and creating a traffic jam midstretch which caused SAME OLD WISH (Lyphard's Wish {Fr}) to clip heels and fall.
Flag Down, who checked while in tight on the far turn but was able to avoid the spill in midstretch, was coming off a troubled second-place finish in the Gill Knickerbocker H. Overcoming his problems here, the Canadian-bred colt swung to the outside at the top of the stretch and came flying at the finish to nail Boyce in the final strides for the win. "You need to time his run perfectly," said winning trainer Christophe Clement. "I wanted to make sure that he didn't see daylight until the quarter pole. It worked, although we were almost too late getting there." Added jockey Jose Santos, "He handled the course fine. At this time of year, with the turf so soft, it's a case of slowly but surely. He had been running with better, and I thought he was the best horse in the race. He proved it today." The runner-up was placed last for causing interference in the stretch.

After two straight allowance wins at Belmont this fall, Yourmissinthe point finished second in his last outing, the GIII Stuyvesant H. Oct. 28 at Belmont. He was the 2-1 choice of the Hawthorne crowd for his 15th effort of the year. The colt rated along the rail in second position for much of the race before taking over the lead from the rail, then prevailed over Basqueian in a stretch duel. Jockey Mark Guidry said, "I thought he had given me everything he had and next thing, he had dug down and given me a little bit more. He's very competitive, which makes him a winner."

NEWHALL ROAD (f, 2, Dixieland Band--Maiden Lane, by Roberto), who showed speed but tired going seven furlongs his last two starts, dropped back to six and wired this field for a decisive 10-length score at 4-1. The 6-5 favorite PRICELESS (Red Ransom), a first-time starter, ran evenly to be fourth. Lifetime Record: 5-1-1-1, $27,900. O/B-James W & Joan G. Phillips (KY). T-James J Toner.

Today's Preview: Aqueduct

Flat Fleet Feet (Afleet), winner of the GII Adirondack S., heads a field of 10 two-year-old fillies in Sunday's $50,000a Meritus S. at six furlongs; she will try to bounce back from a seventh-place finish in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies. "She's been training very aggressively since the Breeders' Cup," said trainer John Kimmel. "I'd be surprised if she doesn't run well."

Local News: Aqueduct

Flying Chevron (Carson City), winner of the GII Pegasus H. against three-year-olds, will take on older horses in the GI NYRA Mile November 25. The colt comes off an eventful trip when fifth in the Discovery H. Also possible for the NYRA Mile is the Mike Hushion trainee Golden Larch (Slew o'Gold), third in the GI Woodward. "He will only run if there is a small field," said Hushion.

Also Ran: The Administrator, Spire, Strawberry Reason, Sweet Briar.

Rogues Walk gave Angel Cordero Jr. his first graded stakes win as a trainer in Monmouth's GII Reeve Schley S. back in June and returned to New Jersey seeking her second graded score. The filly was the highweight in the field of seven and went off as the 5-2 second choice. She took the lead with a three-wide move on the turn and then prevailed in a battle to the wire with Full and Fancy. Cordero, who rode Rogues Walk in her last start, a fifth in the Iroquois H. at Belmont, was impressed with his charge's performance. "She likes a fight like that, but she did make me sweat a little. She's been training great. I wish she was training that way when I rode her. She made me look bad. She just doesn't run for me." Cordero added that the filly would have one more race before heading to Ocala for a winter vacation.

The Women's Thoroughbred Action League and the Calder jockeys have organized a visit to Jackson Memorial Hospital, set for Wednesday, November 22. The jockeys visited with patients at Joe DiMaggio's Children's Hospital last month. A total of 19 riders will make the trip, distributing gifts, signing autographs and answering questions. "It seems that no matter where you go, children just naturally like horses," said trainer Jeanne Kolarik, president of the WTAL. "And to meet real-life athletes, it's just a big treat for them."

Super Derby winner Mecke (Maudlin) will make his next start in the Gil McKnight H. at Calder Dec. 16.

PIRATE'S GULCH (c, 3, Gulch--Stylish Lass {SP, $103,615}, by Captain Nick {GB}) hadn't hit the board in his last four after two third-place showings in his first two starts, both at Hollywood Park. Sent off at 7-1, the colt moved past the dueling leaders in midstretch and won under a strong hand ride by a half-length. The 1-5 favored entry of CONTENDER (Saragoga Six) and RIPPLEMAN (Riverman) finished second and third, respectively. Lifetime Record: 7-1-0-2, $32,475. O/B-Marguerite F & Thomas M Cavanagh. T-D Peterson.

Local News: Hollywood Park

Three-year-old Matiara (Bering {GB}), winner of the G1 Dubai Poule d'Essai des Pouliches at Longchamp and first or second in seven of eight career starts, is scheduled to arrive at Hollywood from France Tuesday to prepare for next Sunday's GI Matriarch.
