PURSE INCREASE AT AQUEDUCT Effective yesterday, purses at Aqueduct were raised by approximately 4½ percent overall. "The raise is not across the board," said New York Racing Association Vice President of Operations Terry Meyocks. "The amount of the raise will vary by classification. In general, we will try to reward the classification of horses that will be racing here this winter. The purse raise is a result of legislation passed last summer by the Assembly and Senate and signed by the Governor. It is due to their efforts that our horsemen will enjoy better purses this winter."

OGYGIAN SALE COMPLETED Foxfield has completed the sale of Ogygian (Damascus) to the San-Ai Club of Urakawa, Hokkaido, Japan for an undisclosed sum. Ogygian is scheduled to leave for Japan within a week. The 12-year-old won seven of 10 starts, including three GI stakes: the Futurity, Dwyer and Jerome. He earned $455,520. The sire of five crops to race, his runners have earned over $6 million. "I regret that Foxfield and other American breeders will be losing a stallion with such great brilliance and physical quality," said Foxfield Director of Operations Rob Whiteley. "I believe that trainers are just now figuring out how to manage Ogygian's babies successfully, and I believe several of his young horses will make a significant mark in the near future."

JOCKEYS INJURED IN AQUEDUCT SPILL Jockeys Jose Trejo and Frank Alvarado were injured in a spill when their horses, Eryn's Abby Girl (Herat) and Cherokee Maid (War Secretary), fell during the running of the first race at Aqueduct Wednesday. Eryn's Abby Girl stumbled early in the race, causing Cherokee Maid to fall as well. Both horses were uninjured. Trejo, who complained of pain in his lower back, was sent to North Shore Hospital in Manhasset, N.Y. for precautionary X-rays. "It appears he was stepped on, but fortunately it was in opportune spots," said Dr. Andy Samma, the hospital's Emergency Department Director. Alvarado suffered a contusion of the front of his lower right leg and an abrasion on his right elbow and was sent for X-rays of his right leg.

"He's doing very well," said trainer James Ryerson. "We backed off him following the Juvenile. He's been walking for four weeks. The gray colt is expected make his three-year-old debut in the Feb. 4 GII Hutcheson S. before starts in the Feb. 24 GII Fountain of Youth and the GI $500,000 Florida Derby March 16.

RETAMA CONSIDERS BANKRUPTCY Just seven months after opening, the owners of Retama Park have voted to consider bankruptcy because of $2.3 million in unpaid bills, according to a story in yesterday's Fort-Worth Star Telegram. Track officials voted Monday to shut down live quarter horse racing at the track immediately. "All of this is a step-by-step process that could lead to bankruptcy," said Retama Development Corp. President Andy Iosue to the San Antonio Express-News. "We're going to spend the next week or so with our insolvency proceedings and see if bankruptcy reorganization is the most expedient route."

ISRAEL COHEN TO DISPERSE STABLE Fasig-Tipton will disperse the racing stable of Israel Cohen at its Mixed Sale at Timonium, Maryland Monday, Dec. 4 at approximately 5 p.m. The 25 horses of racing age will comprise the final offerings of the two-day sale and are featured as an addendum to the catalogue. The group includes 10 two-year-olds, only two of which have raced to date. Cohen and his longtime trainer, Dean Gaudet, have campaigned a stable from Laurel for many years. "Mr. Cohen's deteriorating health has required his advisors to take steps to put parts of his holdings in order," said Mike O'Farrell of Ocala Stud, who will help to coordinate the dispersal, "and the Midlantic December sale was an opportunity to deal with the racing stable. The dispersal includes all his racehorses with the exception of the multiple stakes-winning mare Mixed Appeal (Mighty Appealing). She will be offered as a broodmare prospect at Fasig-Tipton's January 7 Mixed Sale in Lexington." A separate catalogue will be distributed by Nov. 23 and horses may be inspected at Laurel by appointment only with Gene Leach at 301-776-4670.

CONCERN HIGHLIGHTS FAIR GROUNDS

OPENING WEEK The Fair Grounds in New Orleans, Louisiana opens today for its 124th season with the featured $50,000-added Thanksgiving Day H., but will save the opening week's biggest attraction for Friday when 1994 Breeders' Cup Classic winner Concern (Broad Brush) heads a $25,000 stakes-caliber allowance field. The Fair Grounds' 88-day season will run through March 25. Highlights include the $300,000 Louisiana Derby March 17 and the $200,000 New Orleans H. March 10.

AQUEDUCT RELEASES WINTER/SPRING

SCHEDULE The April 13 $500,000 GII Wood Memorial heads 38 stakes worth $3,485,000 on the Aqueduct winter/spring stakes schedule released yesterday. The total includes 22 graded stakes. Other highlights include the $200,000 Gotham Mile Saturday, March 30, two weeks before the Wood. "We felt we had to shorten the time between the Gotham and the Wood because of the uncertainties of weather," said Racing Secretary Mike Lakow. "With perfect weather last year, we were able to open up the main track on time," he said, adding that the goal was to run the Gotham on the main, rather than inner, track. "With the Gotham to be run March 30, I believe we have better protection that the main track will be open and that horsemen will be able to train towards the date and distance of the race. I think it's a well-balanced schedule which gives all divisions, with the obvious exception of turf horses, multiple opportunities to compete in, and win, stakes events."

HUSBAND TO NEW YORK Husband (Diesis {GB}), winner of the 1993 GI Rothmans Ltd. International S. at Woodbine and the 1993 Prix de Reux in France, has been sold to John Nerud and will enter his first season at stud in 1996 at Pleasant Valley Farm in Goshen, New York. The five-year-old stallion, winner of three of 10 starts for earnings of $753,386, is a half-brother to MGSW and $1.6 million earner Simply Majestic (Majestic Light), GI winner in North America and Italy Alwuhush (Nureyev), and French stakes-winner Pia Bride (El Gran Senor).

Local News, Aqueduct:

New York-based trainer Rick Schosberg said of the injured two-year-old colt Maria's Mon (Wavering Monarch), "He arrived in Ocala Tuesday. By mid-February we'll do a little getting some muscle tone back in him and we're looking to resume training in March. Right now there's a zero percent possibility of getting him to the Triple Crown. You don't run in the Derby off a nine-month layoff. We're looking at the Riva Ridge, the Jim Dandy and the Travers." Maria's Mon, winner of four of five career starts including the GI Moet Champagne S. and GI Futurity S., both at Belmont, suffered a non-displaced condylar fracture of the left front ankle during a routine gallop Oct. 16.
