LASSIGNY, TURK PASSER OUT OF

JAPAN CUP Lassigny (Gone West), winner of last month's GI Rothmans International at Woodbine, and GI Turf Classic victor Turk Passer (Turkoman) have both been scratched from Sunday's 15th running of the Japan Cup. Lassigny came out after bruising his right front hoof earlier this week. Said his trainer, Bill Mott, "He is still sore and we have decided to withdraw. He will be fine in around 10 days and, after coming so far, we are disappointed not to be running. But Lassigny's bruising will not be helped by the race, so he misses the Cup." Turk Passer injured the suspensory ligament in his left front leg, but trainer Scotty Schulhofer said the injury did not appear career-threatening. "He will recover in time, and I hope we will be able to be invited to the Japan Cup again next year," said Schulhofer.

ONLY ROYALE RETIRED Only Royale (Caerleon), dual winner of the G1 Yorkshire Oaks, has been retired and will leave trainer Luca Cumani's Newmarket yard next week to travel to owner Frank Stronach's farm in Kentucky. She is scheduled to be bred to Holy Bull. The six-year-old, who amassed nearly $600,000 in earnings during her racing career, also captured the G2 Jockey Club S. at Newmarket and the G3 Prix Foy at Longchamp. Said Cumani, "She was a wonderfully enthusiastic racemare and a joy to train. I will be sad to see her leave."

ESPN TO TELECAST MATRIARCH AND HOLLYWOOD DERBY ESPN will telecast Sunday's $700,000 Matriarch and $400,000 Crown Royal Hollywood Derby, both Grade I events, in a one-hour show that airs from 3 to 4 p.m. (PST). The Matriarch will be the sixth race on the Hollywood Park program, post-time 3:12 p.m. (PST). The Derby goes as race seven, with a post-time of 3:42 p.m. (PST).

Our Emblem (Mr. Prospector), sixth in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint last time out, bids for his first stakes win. The four-year-old Phipps-bred was beaten a nose in the GI Carter H. last May and two noses in the GI Vosburgh in September, both at seven furlongs. "I'm proud of the big races he's run," said trainer Shug McGaughey. "The only thing that really bothers me is he's leaving a lot of money on the table. That's why it would be really nice to win this one. Maybe a mile will be what he wants." If the colt wins, he will give his dam, champion Personal Ensign, her third Grade I winner from four foals to race.

Overcoming a rough start and a near-wheel as the horses left Aqueduct's mile chute, Twist Afleet showed her heart, racing head-and-head with favored Choposa Springs to the stretch, then edging clear to take her fourth in a row. The filly, winner of the GII First Flight H. at Belmont last out, is now four-for-four at Aqueduct. Recounting his trip, winning jockey Mike Smith said, "She stumbled at the start and I was happy to stay on. Then she saw the horsepath that she'd walked over (to the paddock) on, and thought that's where she had to go. I almost fell off--I had only one toe in the irons."

Rapunzel Runz, second last time out in Belmont's Suffolk H. Oct. 27, was allowed to sprint off to an uncontested early lead. The chesnut filly was challenged briefly by Great Lady Mary, but was able to put 2 1/2 lengths between herself and that rival at the wire.

YANKS MUSIC (f, 2, Air Forbes Won--Traipsing, by Darby Creek Road) won her only previous start by 9 3/4 lengths and had a similiarly easy time in this effort. The filly rated quietly for much of the race before mounting a challenge on the outside to take the lead in midstretch and draw off to win by 3 3/4 lengths. More To Tell, who notched two stakes wins at Aqueduct last winter, missed by a nose against allowance company last time out at 17-1. The filly was restrained just behind the leaders early in this effort but gained the lead a furlong from the finish to win by 1 1/2. The 1-2 favorite LAKEWAY (Seattle Slew), in good striking position throughout, never fired and finished fourth.

The family of John Sikura, a prominent Thoroughbred owner and breeder who was killed a year ago in a car fire on his Toronto farm, is suing General Motors for $120 million. Sikura, 60, died last November 25 when he was trapped inside his 1994 Cadillac Seville, which had caught fire. A report by the Toronto metro police department apparently indicated that an electrical malfunction in the car's engine caused the tragedy. The Ontario coroner's office has recently notified Sikura's family of the results of their investigation into the case, which will be made public next week. The lawsuit, which was filed Wednesday in the Covington, Kentucky district court, seeks $40 million in compensatory damages and $80 million in punitive damages.
