INCLEMENT WEATHER FORCES RACING

CANCELLATIONS Saturday's live racing cards at Aqueduct, Hawthorne, Suffolk Downs, Beulah Park, Penn National, Charles Town and Philadelphia Park were cancelled due to severe weather conditions including snow, freezing temperatures and high winds. At Aqueduct, light snow early Saturday morning gave way to heavy rains. Bitter cold temperatures and wind gusts approaching 40 m.p.h. forced the cancellation of live racing at Hawthorne. At 12 noon the temperature at Midway Airport (only three miles from Hawthorne) was three degrees above zero. "Because of the combination of frigid temperatures and strong winds, the safety of the jockeys and horses became a factor," said Hawthorne President Tom Carey. "Thus it was in the best interest of all parties to cancel." Racing at all of the above tracks is scheduled to resume today.

SOVEREIGN MEDIA AWARD WINNERS

George Williams was awarded the 1995 Sovereign Award for Best Newspaper Story when the year-end best-of-Canada awards were announced Friday. Williams newspaper story, "Bob F.'s DRF Victory Was Pleasing To The Soul," appeared in the Daily Racing Form October 29, 1995. Winning top honors for Best Feature Story was Bill Tallon for "Hong Kong Simulcasts Begin New Era In Racing," which appeared in the Daily Racing Form April 26, 1995. Ken Villeneuve received the Sovereign Award for Best Photo. His photograph of the E.P. Taylor Turf Course at Woodbine appeared in a promotional packet for the radio show "Racing With Magee." The Outstanding Film/Video/Broadcast Award was given to Morgan Elliott for "Ride For Their Lives," a documentary about jockeys at Hastings Park in Vancouver. The 22-minute documentary aired on "The Sports Network" (TSN) as part of a series entitled "For The Love of the Game."

MATTY G MAY SUPPLEMENT TO HOLLYWOOD

FUTURITY Double J Farm's Matty G (Capote) worked seven furlongs in 1:25 3/5 under Alex Solis Saturday morning at Hollywood Park, and trainer Ron McAnally said the two-year-old colt might be supplemented to the $500,000 Hollywood Futurity (GI), to be run next Sunday, Dec. 17. Matty G, who faded to finish fourth in the GIII Hollywood Prevue Breeders' Cup S. Nov. 19, set splits of :22 1/5, :44 4/5 and 1:08 4/5 in the seven-furlong race before tiring in the stretch. Supplemental nominations to the 1 1/16-mile Futurity cost $25,000, with $12,500 to enter and an additional $12,500 to start. McAnally, who also plans to send out Verne Winchell's Exetera (Forty Niner) in the Futurity, won the 1993 edition with Winchell's Valiant Nature. Early probables for the race also include GII Norfolk S. runner-up Odyle (Alleged), GII Remsen S. winner Tropicool (Carr de Naskra), MGSW Hennessy (Storm Cat) and GIII Generous S. runner-up Ayrton S (Polish Numbers).

PEAKS AND VALLEYS ON THE MEND

Peaks and Valleys (Mt. Livermore), voted the 1995 Canadian Horse of the Year, could be back in action as early as this Spring. The three-year-old colt, who is currently convalescing at breeder/owner Mrs. Josephine Abercrombie's Pin Oak Stud in Versailles, Kentucky, is healing following his last start of 1995, a sixth-place finish in the Oct. 28 Breeders' Cup Classic. Peaks and Valleys developed severely bruised feet and a broken bone on the bar of the foot of his left foreleg during that race. According to Abercrombie, the colt came out of the Breeders' Cup "three-legged lame;" however he is improving well. "The feet are growing down beautifully," Abercrombie said. "We're very optimistic about them. It may be another three months and he might be in good shape. We've just got to get these problems over with right now so we don't have to fool with them anymore." Abercrombie, who is hoping the MGI winner will be able to begin his four-year-old campaign in late Spring, said she is looking forward to running the colt in next year's Breeders' Cup at Woodbine.

CALDER SETS NEW HANDLE RECORD Saturday's combined mutuel handle (on-track, inter-track and inter-state) at Calder Race Course's Tropical at Calder meet shattered the old record which had just been set last Saturday. A crowd of 7,912 wagered $1,318,348 on-track, while patrons of inter-track wagering facilities pumped in an extra $676,147. But it was an incredible $5,197,843 that was handled through the many inter-state sites that helped to establish the new record of $7,192,338. The record set last week was $5,622,304. The total commingled pool on the co-featured Gill What a Pleasure S. was $798,461. And one lucky Calder fan hit a record-making superfecta on that race: $38,772.90 on a $1 ticket.

LOCOCHÓN CAPTURES CLÁSICO DEL CARIBE

Mexican-bred Locochón (Mex) (Contempt) emerged a convincing winner in the 28th Clásico Internacional del Caribe, but it was the Dominican Republic's El Incorruptible who brought a crowd of some 20,000 to its feet and, literally, onto the racing strip with a victory in the Copa Confraternidad at Quinto Centenario Racetrack in the Dominican Republic Saturday. Dominican racing reached record heights as over RD$3,360,000 was wagered on an eight-race card that featured two international-caliber stakes. The previous high for the recently inaugurated Quinto Centenario was RD$1,800,000. Candice Stable's El Incorruptible, the leading money-winner at Quinto Centenario Racetrack, responded to the pleas of his fans, rallying from well off the pace to win the $75,000 (U.S.) Copa Confraternidad. The victory marked the first ever win for a Dominican-bred in the event. Police could do little to contain a throng of self-designated grooms who took to the track to guide El Incorruptible back to the winner's circle. Panamanian-bred Patricio (Pan) (Donzel), the 1993 Confraternidad winner, was second with Venezuela's Mariawaleska third. Verset's Jet (Tri Jet), winner of the 1993 Clásico del Caribe and 1994 Copa Confraternidad, was unable to retain his crown, tiring late to finish fourth. Later on in the program, the $255,000 (U.S.) Clásico Internacional del Caribe turned out to be a showcase for Locochón, last year's Champion Two-Year-Old Colt in Mexico. With Javier Matías in the irons, the colt pressed the leaders from the start and drew away easily to score the win. Venezuela's Lucky Metal and Clever Dancer (Ven) (Roberto's Dancer) occupied the second and third spots.

Cat On Tour, coming off a 2-length win in the $37,000 City of Miami S. Nov. 11, stalked the early pace of favored Beefchopper and Tour's Big Red before taking command in the stretch and drawing off to win by 1 1/2. "He responded well today when I called on him, once I got him on the outside," winning jockey Gary Boulanger said. "He took off like a shot. At this point, I don't know how good he is." Beefchopper, winner of the $100,000 Hawthorne Juvenile H. in his last start Nov. 19, was sent straight to the front by jockey Craig Perret and held on to the lead until midstretch, where he gave way. "He got beat fair and square," said Perret. "Actually, it's a tough, deep track to compete on if you're not used to it. It felt like he had about forty pounds of shoes on coming down the stretch and he just plain got tired."

Plum Country, claimed for $50,000 when winning a maiden claimer at Calder by nine lengths in July, went on to win the Susan's Girl division of the Florida Stallion S. Sept. 9 for her new connections. Most recently, the bay filly was second in the Gill Astarita S. at Belmont Oct. 28. Coming into this race after posting a bullet five furlong work at Calder Dec. 5, she sat in behind the leaders on the first turn and into the backstretch, angled out five-wide to make a run on the far turn and drew clear in the drive for her second stakes victory.

Broadway Bit was making only his second career start after breaking his maiden at Churchill Downs Nov. 23 by 3 1/2. The colt saved ground behind the leaders here before making a four wide move into the stretch and wearing down Blow Out despite being bumped repeatedly by that eventual second place finisher. Trainer Anthony Reinstedler is looking forward to Broadway Bit's future races, "He's going to be a very useful three-year-old next year, and I think he'll stretch out a lot further," said Reinstedler. "Broadway Bit's next race will probably be in New Orleans -- maybe in the Risen Star." The Risen Star S. will be run over 1 1/16-miles at the Fair Grounds Feb. 25.

Local News, Fair Grounds:

During yesterday's fifth annual Louisiana Champions Day, the New Orleans Fair Grounds recorded the second highest overall mutuel handle in its 124-year history. The day featured 11 races restricted to Louisiana-breds, including seven Thoroughbred races, three Quarter Horse events and a match race between a Thoroughbred and a Quarter Horse. The on-track crowd bet $297,493 and, combined with $2,641,923 wagered off-track, a total of $2,939,416 was bet overall. That trailed only the $2,948,864 bet March 13, 1988 when Risen Star won the Louisiana Derby. In the $15,000 Match Race, the Thoroughbred mare Athrillforjill (Plain Dealing) swept to a 5½-length victory over the Quarter Horse Lotta Tea. Athrillforjill was clocked in :47 3/5 for the 870 yards as the 3-10 favorite.

Powis Castle, winless in six starts since taking the GII Malibu S. at Santa Anita in December '94, finished a close fifth in the GIII Hollywood Turf Express in his last start Nov. 24. Back on the main track here, the bay colt raced well behind the quick early fractions of :21 1/5 and :43 2/5 set by Lucky Forever, was caught three-wide leaving the turn and into the stretch, drifted out a bit in midstretch, then drifted in while closing gamely to nail Lucky Forever at the wire. "When I saw the :21 1/5 then I looked at my horse, I said 'We'll get the money.'" said winning trainer Rodney Rash. "I still think his best distance is seven furlongs. But he's a stakes-winner around two turns; he's multiple group-placed at a mile-and-an-eighth and he just ran 1:08 2/5 for six furlongs. He's such a versatile horse. You just don't find many that can do this."

8th-HOL, $36,000, Alw, 2yo, 1 1/16mT, 1:42, fm. STRANGELOVE (c, 2, World Appeal--Lizette, by Diplomat Way), who rallied to be 4th in the GIII Generous S. at Hollywood in his turf debut Nov. 25, remained on the grass here and closed from mid-pack to win by a neck as the 2-1 favorite. Lifetime Record: 6-2-1-0, $63,325. O-Seawind Stables & Ward. B-Sally Hartley (FL). T-Wesley A. Ward.

Luzette was making her second start in the U.S. in this race. She finished third behind a dead-heat in the Gill Jockey Club H. at Bay Meadows in her last outing Nov. 4. The mare went off the 8-5 favorite, stayed behind the early pace and then made her move on the second turn. She split horses in midstretch to take the lead and then fought off Norcliffe Dancer to the wire.

4th-HOL, $31,000, Msw, 3yo/up, 6 1/2f, 1:14 3/5, ft.

KNIFEMAKER (c, 3, Affirmed--Fine Outing, by Full Out), a $82,000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga August yearling and $230,000 Barretts' Equine Sales March 2yo, had finished second in both his previous starts, one in 1994 and the last at Santa Anita Oct. 29. The colt was the 3-5 favorite and dueled for the early lead before getting in front in midstretch and drawing off to win by five. Lifetime Record: 3-1-2-0, $30,050. O-Rick Barnes. B-Charles T. Wilson Jr. & Foxfield (KY). T-Gary Jones.

Local News, Hollywood Park:

Jockey Corey Nakatani has picked up the mount on Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies runner-up Cara Rafaela (Quiet American) for next Saturday's GI Hollywood Starlet. GSW Cara Rafaela last raced Nov. 4 in the Pocahontas S. at Churchill Downs, finishing fourth under Donna Barton. Nakatani has won two of the last three runnings of the Starlet--taking the 1994 running with Serena's Song and the 1992 edition with Creaking Board.
