SANTAGATA IMPROVES Jockey Nick Santagata, injured in a spill at Aqueduct Friday, has had his condition upgraded to "stable but guarded." The 38-year-old rider remains hospitalized at the North Shore Hospital in Manhasset, New York. According to Dr. Stephen J. O'Brien, director of the New York Racing Association's Emergency Medical Care Team, Santagata suffered a fractured sternum and multiple rib fractures. O'Brien speculated that Santagata could be out of action for three months. "The hospital has been flooded with calls," said a grateful Santagata. "Please thank everybody for their calls and concern, and a special thanks to the people in the ambulance who took me to the hospital."

BAY MEADOWS CANCELS After meeting with trainers and jockeys Saturday morning, Bay Meadows officials decided to cancel Saturday's card because of unsafe track conditions. Friday night's program was scrapped after the first race when the jockeys who rode the opener determined there were uneven spots on the track, which was labelled muddy. Track Superintendent Robert Turman said he was confident racing would resume Tuesday as scheduled, adding that he expected the track to be in "excellent condition" after the holiday break.

VIRGINIA HORSEMEN REACH AGREEMENT WITH COLONIAL DOWNS Colonial Downs, Virginia's first pari-mutuel racetrack which is scheduled to open its gates for its inaugural Thoroughbred meet in 1996, has reached an agreement with the Virginia Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association after a meeting between representatives of the two parties last week. The agreement is scheduled to go before the members of the Virginia HBPA January 11.

Interim (GB) was looking for a second straight win after taking the Dec. 2 Waya H. at Hollywood in her last start. The filly was well back early, rallied along the inside and drew off. FORMER DANCER (Dynaformer) sprinted out for the early lead but broke down leaving the far turn, causing a number of bumping incidents. The 5-2 favorite DANISH (Ire) (Danehill) got caught up in the traffic jam and finished fifth. Her jockey, Jose Santos, said, "The horse broke a leg in front of me. I never had a chance to move my horse...never had a chance to make a move. We were just coming in the clear and we were right on top of her." Bobby Frankel, trainer of Interim, said the Orchid (March 10) at Gulfstream might be next for his charge.

Highweight Caress (Storm Cat) makes her first start for new trainer Charles Whittingham. The four-year-old filly, whose five wins this year have all come in stakes, drops back to a mile-and-a-sixteenth after weakening to finish 12th (beaten only 4 3/4 lengths) in the GI Matriarch S. at a mile and a quarter last time she ran. Didina (GB) (Nashwan), a listed stakes winner and successful in three of six starts in England, made her U.S. debut November 19 and came away with a two-length allowance win at Hollywood at this distance. She makes her second Stateside start. Miami Sands (Ire) (Ela-Mana-Mou {Ire}), winless since beating colts in a Santa Anita allowance in October, 1993, makes her third start after taking nearly a year and a half off; the five-year-old, GISP at three and MGSP at four, was a solid second in the 12-furlong Waya H. at Hollywood December 2 in her second start off the layoff.

Chaposa Springs won back-to-back graded races at Saratoga and the Meadowlands before finishing second in the GI Top Flight in her last outing, Nov. 24. The filly set the early fractions while pressured by IGOTRHYTHM (Dixieland Band). She opened up into the stretch and went on to win by two lengths. Trainer Marty Wolfson said, "I was going to scratch her...she doesn't like any kind of wet track. The Shirley Jones (Feb. 3) is probably her next start, but she's so versatile I think she can go long and run on grass. We'll look at everything."

Claimed for $50,000 in August, Cold Execution had won his two previous efforts coming into the Gravesend and was one-for-one over the Aqueduct inner track. Stepping up into stakes company after an overnight handicap score, the colt moved to challenge pacesetter JESS C'S WHIRL (Island Whirl) turning for home, took the lead a furlong out and kept his advantage under brisk handling to the wire. The 3-2 favorite DEMALOOT DEMASHOOT (Bold Ruckus) tired to finish eighth. Cold Execution will now be heading to Florida, according to trainer Frank Martin.

Margins: 7, 1, 3. Odds: 0.80, 32.75, 6.00.

Restored Hope had been off since suffering her first career defeat when third to Inside Information and Sky Beauty in the GI Shuvee in May. The filly worked impressively up to her return and went off the 4-5 favorite in the field of eight. She went right for the lead, set all the fractions and came home unthreatened.

4th-AQU, $37,275, Alw, 3yo/up, f/m, 6f, 1:10 2/5, ft.

BEAUTY'S SAKE (f, 4, Lyphard's Ridge--Miss Rock Island {SP}, by Explodent) tired to finish fourth after setting the pace in the Dec. 2 Garland Of Roses. The bay filly went off at 6-1 off that effort and battled for the lead throughout; she just missed as JOE'S WORKINGGIRL (Air Forbes Won) won by a nose, but Joe's Workinggirl was subsequently disqualified and placed sixth, giving Beauty's Sake her first win of the year. Alcovy won the Gill Falls City H. last year and finished second in that race this year in her last outing. The mare travelled four-wide just off the pace down the backstretch, rallied three-wide on the turn and dueled with pacesetter Mystic Union to the wire. Trainer William Huffman was a little surprised at the route his charge took to the winner's circle, "I was very nervous down the stretch. That's not really like her, she usually shows a little more speed than she did today. We're really pleased with the win, but I really didn't think she was going to catch that filly." Huffman indicated that Alcovy would race once or twice more in Florida and would then be bred in the spring.
