UNBRIDLED'S SONG TRIUMPHS IN '97

BOW Making his four-year-old debut as the 4-5 choice in the seven-furlong Olympic H. at Gulfstream yesterday, Unbridled's Song (Unbridled) returned to the winner's circle for the first time since April with a 3 1/4-length victory under jockey Mike Smith. Rated just off the flank of 7-5 second choice Appealing Skier (Baldski) for a half, the grey took command as they straightened into the stretch and drew away at will. "You can never be totally confident going into a race, but I was extremely happy with the way he was training," said Nick Zito, who took over as the colt's conditioner after his ninth-place finish in the Arlington Citation Challenge July 13. Unbridled's Song ran just once for Zito last year, finishing second in an Aqueduct allowance November 30. "It doesn't matter what kind of race you're in, a lot of times the horse needs a race," said Zito. "I think it's safe to say that's what happened in this horse's case. With a horse like this, you have to watch every little thing. When we got to Florida, we watched every detail and it paid off. He responded. We all know what a great horse he is. The main thing is keeping him mentally right." Unbridled's Song makes his next start against 1996 champion three-year-old Skip Away (Skip Trial) in the GI Donn H. February 8. (Olympic H. chart, p.2)

MORE COLD-WEATHER CANCELLATIONS

Racing was called off after the first race at Suffolk Downs Sunday afternoon due to the freezing temperature and sub-zero wind chill. The track remained open for simulcasting, and live action is expected to resume this afternoon. Philadelphia Park also canceled yesterday, losing its entire card for the second straight day. The track is scheduled to get back in action today.

Scratched: Special Eyes.

Winner of the GII Dahlia H. in her most recent start December 15 at Hollywood, Sixieme Sens was looking for her fifth victory since flying over from France at the end of her 1995 campaign. Picking up just one pound off her Dahlia win, the dark bay was the 3-1 second choice but made her run from fifth to edge favored Alpride (Ire) under jockey Corey Nakatani. "The last time she ran at Hollywood Park, she handled a really soft surface, then won on firm going today," said Nakatani. "She's a nice mare, tries hard and she beat a group of competitive horses in this race. Hopefully, she can replace Wandesta." Nakatani was the regular rider of last year's Eclipse-winning turf mare. Trainer Bobby Frankel also compared the mare to former charge Wandesta. "She's improving--she looked good today," he said. "I thought she won fairly easily. Corey never really got after her--he just got her out and she sort of ran like Wandesta did in the Matriarch." As for the future, Frankel said, "We'll pretty much run her through the program here." Runner-up Alpride finished willingly to just miss. "I thought I had a great shot when I turned for home," said her jockey, Chris McCarron. "She kicked on and gave me one more little spurt when (Sixieme Sens) got to my saddle towel. I thought she was going to hold her off, but the last eighth of a mile was a little too fast for old Alpride."

River Deep (Riverman), a Group 3 winner in England, was off for two years between his last start in Britain and his first in the States. Off the board in his first three U.S. outings, the six-year-old then reeled off three straight before rallying for second in the nine-furlong GII San Gabriel H. last out New Year's Day. With numbers which have improved as he has stretched out, the Kentucky-bred makes his first start at a mile and a quarter. Veteran Sandpit (Brz) (Baynoun {Ire}) makes his first appearance since running third in last year's GI Arlington Million August 25. The eight-year-old has worked well for his return and has shown a fondness for this course in the past, finishing first or second in four-of-five Santa Anita grass starts; he has never been off the board at a mile and a quarter.

Today, Santa Anita

EL ENCINO S.-GII, $125,000a, 4yo, f, 8.5f

10	Tootie Cook	Whittingham	Pedroza	15-1
11	Housa Dancer (Fr)	Cecil	Stevens	12-1

The consistent Goulash (Mari's Book) has won six of her 11 lifetime starts. The four-year-old, claimed for $50,000 at Del Mar last August, has since won three-of-five under new management, including a stakes at Fairplex; she was also second by a neck to El Encino favorite Listening (Night Shift) in the GIII Linda Vista H. at this track and distance in October. The morning-line choice, Listening is three-for-three at Santa Anita and at a mile and a sixteenth; she goes for her third straight.

Margins: 3 1/4, 2 1/4. Odds: 0.80, 1.50, 2.50.

Looking for his first win in nine months, millionaire Unbridled's Song looked like a million bucks winning here. The grey, winner of last year's GI Florida Derby over this track, sat just off Appealing Skier through a half in :45.92, moved to the lead at the top of the stretch and dominated his two rivals in the final furlong to win in hand. "He wanted to run more and was frisky when we came back," said jockey Mike Smith. "I'm just so excited about the way he's come back. Hopefully we'll be able to go on to bigger and better things." Gulfstream offered trifecta wagering on the race despite the three-horse field; the $6.40 payoff was the lowest in track history.

Winless in seven starts last year, Mystic Union had been on the shelf since running seventh in the Shocker T. H. at Calder July 13. Ignored at the windows in her return, the bay mare was content to rate midpack through a half in a rapid :44 4/5 but demonstrated a solid late kick that caught pacesetter Wind Drinker in the last jump for the victory.

Sent off at 3-1, the 1/2 to Silver Deputy (Deputy Minister), undefeated SW & Sire, tracked the leaders to the top of the stretch before taking control and striding away to a 4 3/4-length score. Visiting her third track in as many American outings, the Irish-bred was bet down to 4-5 to find the winner's circle this time; she rallied from seventh under jockey Jose Santos to score by a length and a quarter. Bet down to 7-2 off that effort, the Lone Star State-bred miss settled in fifth for the opening fractions, moved into contention at the top of the lane and outfinished 16-1 NIECE OF REGAL (Regal Classic) for a half-length score; 97-1 FINA GARUA (Prince of Fame) was another neck back in third. Facing that nemesis once again in her Gulfstream bow, the 2-1 Tomisue's Delight rallied strongly from midpack to get past 6-5 Buckeye Search in the final strides for a neck victory. Fifth with a mild bid in her Gulfstream bow January 6, the $47,000 KEESEP yearling this time dropped way back early but came flying at the finish to win going away by 4 1/4 lengths at 7-2. The winner is a 1/2 to Bad Gerty (Explodent), MSW, $184,311; she was a $75,000 FTSAUG yearling. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $18,300.

Meteor Cap had no trouble handling maidens at Philly Park in her career debut January 5, winning by 7 1/2 lengths, and found the jump into stakes company an easy transition as well. Sent to the lead right out of the gate, the Buckland homebred was never threatened and won handily. "She showed me she could really run, so I gave her a chance (in the stakes)," said trainer Eugene Weymouth, who added that the filly would make her next start in the Dearly Precious S. at Aqueduct February 9.
