SHAMMY DAVIS TAKES 3-YEAR-OLD DEBUT

Shammy Davis (Temperance Hill), last seen on the racetrack finishing second in the November 11 GIII Nashua S. at Aqueduct, made a winning return to competition in yesterday's fourth race at Gulfstream. Also making his 3-year-old bow in the 1 1/16-mile allowance test was GIII Pilgrim S. winner Accelerator (A.P. Indy), in his first start since finishing third in the December 1 GII Remsen S. Accelerator was sent off the slight 7-5 favorite with Shammy Davis right behind in the betting at 8-5. But on the racetrack, it was all Shammy Davis, who led from start to finish to win by four lengths over the sloppy Gulfstream track. The D. Wayne Lukas trainee Open Forum (Deputy Minister), a $475,000 yearling at the '95 Keeneland July sales, was second and Accelerator, who moved from last early to second entering the stretch, finished third. "He's a talented horse," admitted winning trainer Nick Zito. "The one race we do want to head for is the Kentucky Derby. Right now, we're going to think about the Fountain of Youth (February 22 at Gulfstream)."

ORDWAY HEADS FOR HUTCHESON

Ordway (Salt Lake), winner of the GI Moet Champagne S. last October, will make his seasonal debut in next Sunday's Danka Hutcheson S. Daily Racing Form clockers caught the colt working five furlongs Friday at Gulfstream in :59 3/5. Never off the board in five career starts, Ordway finished third as the favorite in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile S. in his last start at two adding to a second-place finish in the GI Hopeful S. at Saratoga. Ordway will likely be challenged in the February 2 Gulfstream race by GIII Spectacular Bid S. victor Confide (Phone Trick) and MGSW last year and runner-up in the Spectacular Bid Kelly Kip (Kipper Kelly).

ACCEPTABLE WORKS

Acceptable (Capote), second in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile S., worked five furlongs in 1:02.4 Sunday morning at Gulfstream in preparation for the February 22 GII Fountain of Youth. Acceptable was second in the January 18 GIII Holy Bull S., his only start so far this year.

Queen of Money, followed her maiden win in July at Del Mar, with two sixth-place finishes in graded company. Coming off a December 28 allowance win, the filly made a successful return to the stakes ranks with a wire-to-wire five-length score. "She's a speed horse, and I just let her break out of there," winning rider David Flores said after the race. "I got the lead so easy, so I slowed it down a little bit. After the first half-mile, I felt like I had a good shot to win."

Tekken broke his maiden three starts back in his turf debut at Calder and followed that win with a third Dec. 15. Forced back onto the dirt when a January 15 Gulfstream allowance came off the turf, Tekken came into his stakes debut off an eighth-place finish. The bay colt stalked the pacesetters and took charge at the top of the stretch. "Originally, we were looking for an allowance race for him," explained winning trainer Eddie Plesa, Jr. "This race came up a little easier than we thought it would have." After the winning ride, jockey Jerry Bailey said, "He's little-bitty, but he's mighty."

Local News, Gulfstream:

State steward Walter Blum was suspended ten days by the Gulfstream jockey community. Blum snapped off the front two legs of a saw horse while trying to park his car on Sunday morning. Jockeys Mike Smith, Earlie Fires, Jerry Bailey, Pat Day, Shane Seller and Eibar Coa signed the fake suspension. Blum took the kidding in good humor, although he said he had about $500 damage to the front of his car.
