MECKE AIMS FOR DUBAI CUP James Lewis, Jr.'s five-year-old Mecke (Maudlin), has been nominated to the March 29 Dubai World Cup. Trainer Manny Tortora said, "I don't think he will have any trouble getting into the race. If he goes, Jerry Bailey will get the mount." Mecke worked four furlongs in :48 on January 28 at Calder in preparation for his next start in the February 8 GI Donn H. A multi-millionaire, Mecke has earned grade one wins on both turf and dirt. He was victorious in last year's GI Arlington Million and GI Early Times Turf Classic. In his lone start this year, the bay won the the GIII MacDiarmida H.

SKIP AWAY WORKS TOWARD DONN The 1996 3-Year-Old Champion Skip Away (Skip Trial) worked Wednesday morning from the gate with jockey Rick Wilson up. The now 4-year-old worked five furlongs in :58 3/5, and went out three-quarters in 1:11 2/5, in preparation for the February 8 GI Donn H. Skip Away hasn't run since defeating Cigar in the GI Jockey Club S. last October 5. To date, the grey colt has won seven races from 18 starts for earnings of $2,787,360.

CHAPMAN HANGS UP HIS TACK Jockey Tom Chapman has announced his retirement from race riding. "I'm done," said Chapman. "I don't miss riding. The only thing I really miss is the people." During his 19-year career, Chapman rode 20,505 races, collecting 2,584 wins, 2,547 seconds and 2,613 thirds. His mounts earned $36,681,346 in purse money. He was the leading apprentice rider at all major Southern California tracks in 1977-78 and captured the 1984 Hollywood Oaks aboard Moment to Buy. The 1984 Jack Robinson Memorial Award recipient, Chapman won the riding championship at Golden Gate Fields in 1989 when he rode 114 winners. Chapman is enjoying his new career as a professional artist, which, he's finding, is a lot less taxing on the body. "For the first time in 19 years, I feel healthy." During his career, Chapman suffered his share of serious injuries--including a fractured skull and three fractured vertebrae.

Margins: 1 3/4, 3, 3/4. Odds: 0.50, 4.90, 13.00.

Also Ran: Scenic Point, Polish Spring (Ire), Flying Concert, Race Artist.

Rare Blend captured the January 15 GIII Joe Namath H. when the race was taken off the turf in her last start. The filly stalked the pacesetters, rallied to gain a narrow lead at the top of the stretch and drove to her second straight graded win. "She's a game horse and runs her race every time," said winning trainer Shug McGaughey. "She's an easy horse to be around and an easy horse to train. The last two weeks I just gave her open gallops and blew her out yesterday. It worked out good." Winning rider Jerry Bailey said, "My job is not difficult with her. She settles and then kind of gets herself in a stalking position." McGaughey added that the Rampart H. on Sunday, February 23 will likely be next for Rare Blend.

Local News, Kentucky:

The first foal by the Vinery stallion Shuailaan (Roberto) is a bay colt born Jan. 28, 1997 at Mr. and Mrs. Ben P. Walden Jr.'s Vinery near Midway, Kentucky. Out of Matilda the Hun (Young Bob), the foal is a half-brother to Drummer Boy (Steady Beat), a stakes-winner of $557,296, and is owned by Vinery and Leslie Hammond. Eight-year-old Shuailaan stands at Vinery for a 1997 stud fee of $5,000 live foal.

Oscar Benavides has announced that Imperial Ballet (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) will stand the 1997 breeding season at his Montesacro Farm near Georgetown, Kentucky. "We think Imperial Ballet offers an excellent opportunity to breed to a miler of impeccable bloodlines at an affordable price," said Benavides. "He is a very correct horse and his stud fee is $2,500 live foal, but as we wish to get the best possible book for this young stallion, special consideration will be offered approved mares." Eight-year-old Imperial Ballet, a winner of four of seven starts in England including the Royal Hunt Cup at Royal Ascot, initially entered stud at one of the leading farms in Venezuela, where his first crop are two-year-olds of 1997.

1996 FRESHMAN SIRE WRAP-UP

At the beginning of 1996, we asked a panel of experts in the bloodstock industry to predict which freshman sires would top the charts. Two of our eight contributors—trainer John Kimmel and bloodstock consultant Alan Porter—correctly predicted that Salt Lake would lead the pack in terms of 1996 progeny earnings. “The farm gave me a bribe,” joked Porter, who added, “Salt Lake was not only the top freshman sire last year, but he finished fifth overall as a sire of two-year-olds, which is a great start for a horse whose first-year stud fee was only $5,000.” Kimmel said he chose Salt Lake to head the list because of the “appearance of his crop on both the yearling and two-year-old market, their physical confirmation, the way they moved on the racetrack. His first crop also did very well on cardiac assessments.”

A son of Deputy Minister—Take Lady Anne (Queen City Lad), Salt Lake sired two 1996 stakes-winners in his first crop—GI Moet Champagne S. winner Ordway and High Heeled Hope, victorious in the Maker’s Mark S. and Indian Summer S. High Heeled Hope made her three-year-old debut Sunday, finishing third as the 7-5 favorite in the Gill Santa Ynez S. at Santa Anita. Eight-year-old Salt Lake stands at Walmac Int’l in Lexington, Kentucky for a 1997 stud fee of $7,500 live foal.
