MORRIS CODE RETIRED Five-year-old mare Morris Code (Lost Code), an eight-time stakes winner of $745,167, injured her left knee when running a disappointing seventh as the favorite in Saturday's Pan Zareta S. at the Fair Grounds and has been retired. The Kentucky-bred, who was also five times graded-stakes placed, earned her last victory in her first start of the year, taking the American Beauty S. at Oaklawn January 25, but veterinary tests after Saturday's race uncovered the reason for the latest lackluster performance. "The X-rays revealed some degeneration in her left knee," said Robin Wiggins, the daughter-in-law of trainer Hal Wiggins. "It's nothing serious and if she wasn't so special, she could continue to run. She's not in any pain. She's fine, really, but in a way we're glad it worked out like it did. This way, we'll still be able to breed her this year--probably to Seattle Slew."

SOPHOMORES DRILL FOR SAN RAFAEL Three-year-old Silver Charm (Silver Buck), winner of the seven-furlong San Vicente S. in his first start of the season February 8, worked a half-mile in a rapid :46 3/5 with jockey Chris McCarron in the irons yesterday morning and will make his next start in the San Rafael S. March 2. "The work was excellent, unbelievable," said trainer Bob Baffert. "He galloped out the five-eighths in a minute." The grey, who captured the GII Del Mar Futurity in his last start at two last September, is now three-for-four; he stretches out to a mile for the San Rafael. "I wish I had gotten a one-mile race into him before this one," said Baffert. "I'm kind of behind the eight ball there." Also working with an eye toward the San Rafael, last year's champion two-year-old Boston Harbor (Capote) went seven furlongs in a bullet 1:25 over the Santa Anita strip. The colt finished fourth in the mile-and-a-sixteenth Santa Catalina S. February 2 in his three-year-old debut.

Off for two months after running fourth in a Hollywood allowance Nov. 22, Shanawi (Ire) came back in the GII San Marcos H. Jan. 22 and finished fourth behind top turf horse Sandpit (Brz); he was moved up to third via the DQ of original show horse MGISW Marlin. Overlooked despite the lofty company in his last, the chestnut trailed for a half but made his run along the rail on the final bend, then moved to the outside for the stretch drive and outfinished 7-5 Rainbow Dancer (Fr) for his first graded score. Trainer Jenine Sahadi saddled the first two finishers. "I was happy that Shanawi won," she said. "The horse has been training super. I was thrilled with the way Rainbow Dancer ran, too. He had to walk for quite a bit of time after his last race in Europe (second in a listed stakes Dec. 1). He's tired right now; I think he'll get something out of the race."

Why Change, whose latest win came in the GII Jerome H. last September, weakened to finish fourth at 60-1 in the GI NYRA Mile in his most recent outing November 30. Given nearly three months rest after that test, the bay trained for his return with three straight bullet works at Hialeah, then shipped North. Enjoying the chill in the air, he sat off the :45 1/5 half of ROMANO GUCCI (Aaron's Concorde) before sweeping to the lead in deep stretch and drawing clear. "We gave him a rest and brought him back for this race," said owner Marvin Delfiner. "We felt confident. This is the race we've been pointing for." The 9-5 favorite Appealing Skier, with the pace from the start, took a short lead at the top of the lane but couldn't hold off the winner.

HAMILTON CREEK (c, 3, Fortunate Prospect--Rulers Mom, by Irish Ruler) broke his maiden two starts back, then finished a distant sixth in his first try against winners Jan. 8 at Gulfstream. Dismissed at 17-1 odds here, the dark bay colt trailed the nine-horse field for six furlongs, then unleashed a rally that saw him a half-length in front at the finish. Unite's Big Red settled for second in the GIII Tropical Park Derby, then was runner-up once again as the favorite in the Super Bowl S. January 26, both on the grass. Sent off the second choice in this off-the-turf affair, the chestnut popped out to a clear lead as soon as the doors opened and never looked back, holding 4-5 Hurry The Dance safe in the final drive. "He's still a mentally immature horse," said trainer Randy Mills. "He just ran the whole race on his left lead. I'd like to see, when he puts it all together, how he runs."
