CAPTAIN BODGIT PULLS RANK IN

FLORIDA DERBY Captain Bodgit (Saint Ballado), who made up 19 lengths to finish just two behind Pulpit (A.P. Indy) when third in the GII Fountain Of Youth S. February 22, had an extra half-furlong to work with yesterday and made the most of it, charging past his more fancied foe to take the GI Florida Derby at Gulfstream Park by a widening 2 1/2 lengths. Racing much closer to the leaders in the early going this time, the Florida-bred dark bay brought the battle to 2-5 Pulpit as they swung into the home-stretch, but as the favorite struggled along the rail to get past 68-1 Frisk Me Now (Mr. Frisky) for second, Captain Bodgit swept on by and under the wire a decisive winner as the 7-2 second choice. "I was following Pulpit all the way around," said winning jockey Alex Solis, who was also aboard the colt last time out. "I thought he was the horse to beat. When we got to the five-sixteenths pole, I asked my horse and man, he just exploded. I switched my stick and hit him at the eighth pole, and he hit another gear." Added trainer Gary Capuano, "I think the rain yesterday helped us. It slowed the track down some to set it up for closers. I think the distance also helped us--the farther he goes, the better." The Maryland-based horseman added that his well-traveled colt will head to Keeneland for his next start. "I want to make sure he comes out of the race good, but we're pointing towards the Blue Grass (April 12)," he said. Pulpit, who suffered his first loss in what was only his fourth career start, outgamed longshot Frisk Me Now, who won the GII Danka Hutcheson at odds of 105-1, to get the place. "He just wasn't the same horse as last time," said his rider, Shane Sellers. "When I asked him for a kick, it just wasn't the same as he has shown in his other races. But I'm still proud of him and I remain confident in his ability." Trainer Frank Brothers was also unshaken by the defeat. "He's a young horse; he's still learning," he said, but admitted, "I'm a little disappointed. It would have been great for the sport if he had stayed undefeated. But if he comes out of the race okay, I think he'll still be in the picture. Hopefully he's fine and he'll go forward." The Claiborne colt is also expected to make his next start in the Blue Grass.

Third to eventual GISW Traitor in his debut at Laurel last July, Captain Bodgit then put together five wins in a row, culminating in the GIII Laurel Futurity at a mile and an eighth last November 2. Purchased privately by Team Valor after a third-place finish in his three-year-old bow, the GIII Holy Bull S. January 18, the colt made up a ton of ground to be third again in his latest, the GII Fountain Of Youth three weeks ago. He returned to the winner's circle with a powerful performance, sitting sixth through a half in a moderate :47 3/5 before circling the field on the far turn and rolling past 2-5 Pulpit and rank outsider Frisk Me Now in the stretch to win going away. "He ran a super race," said trainer Gary Capuano. "The race set up perfect for us. The last three-eighths, he has an awesome kick. I knew when he got to Pulpit, he would grind it out. My horse doesn't like to lose."

Last year's GI Preakness S. winner Louis Quatorze, unraced since finishing a close second in the Oct. 26 GI Breeders' Cup Classic, rolled to victory in his 1997 debut. The prohibitive favorite tracked pacesetter LAUGHING DAN (Premiership) before gaining command in mid-stretch and drawing away for an impressive victory. "I'm very happy," trainer Nick Zito said. "He looks great, he ran great. He did get tested today. He was carrying 121 pounds; he was three-wide. Strawberry Wine gave a quick burst in the stretch, and we came back. You have to be pleased." As for the future, Zito said, "We're going to Keeneland. I'm thinking about the (May 10) Pimlico Special."

Miss Golden Circle was the victor in the Feb. 15 GI Barbara Fritchie H. at Laurel last out and came back to her home base to win again. The 1-2 favorite tracked the leaders early and then advanced three-wide around the turn to prevail after a hard drive. "I think the weight is what got to her, and I don't think she handled the track very well," winning jockey Richard Migliore said. "She's been running good, and I let her do it all by herself." Inquisitive Look contested the pace, digging in gamely in the stretch, but couldn't hold off the winner.

News cont.*NTA UNVEILS CHANGES TO BUSINESS PLAN

The Board of Directors of the National Thoroughbred Association yesterday announced revisions to its Preliminary Business Plan. The changes came in response to suggestions received during a 10-week "industry comment period" that followed the release of the plan in December, and include lowering the price of the NTA's simulcast signal (the weekend pooled interstate simulcast rights of NTA affiliated tracks) from 6.5 percent to 5 percent; and introducing a $5 million NTA bonus program, funded by nomination fees and television and sponsorship revenues. "Overall, the reaction to the core concepts of the Preliminary Plan--particularly the need for centralized marketing of the weekend interstate simulcast signal to fund national advertising and marketing programs for the sport--has been overwhelmingly positive," said NTA Chairman John Gaines. "As we anticipated, however, the Plan has been strengthened and improved by the input and constructive criticism of a number of groups." Added Tim Smith, the NTA's Interim Executive Director, "Our preliminary analysis is that...we can accommodate the Board's suggested changes and still preserve adequate initial funding for the NTA's core programs. These would include, in year one, a $25 million national advertising budget, 30 new hours of major network TV coverage of live racing, a weekly cable television magazine show, multi-week national print promotion, a professionally staffed national office, meaningful initial purse bonuses and a significant initial revenue-sharing program with NTA participating tracks." The NTA has also added 14 "Founding Members" to its rolls. Joining the association in the first two weeks of March were Prince Khalid Abdullah, Joe Albritton, Craig Bandoroff, Emmanuel de Seroux, Kevin Doyle, Edward Evans, Robert Folsom, Leonard Green, Stanley Gumberg, Georgia Hofmann, Stuart Janney, D. Wayne Lukas, Paul Orefice and Alec Wildenstein. A total of 61 horsemen have agreed to lend the NTA $50,000 apiece to fund the planning and start-up costs for the organization; the goal is 100 "Founding Members."

Facing the first two finishers from that allowance here, the Kentucky-bred bay pressed the pace to the stretch, then ranged up to hook the runner-up from his previous start, Donthelumbertrader, and prevail in the fight to the finish for a narrow win. First in the allowance, Volochine (Ire) closed some ground here but could do no better than third.

Added trainer Ben Perkins Sr., "He'll run in a seven-eighths race (GIII Lafayette S., April 9) at Keeneland. Whether we try him further in the future, we'll have to see." Blushing K.D. captured the Fair Grounds Sales Derby by 20 lengths Feb. 9 and the Feb. 22 Davona Dale S. by three lengths and won the Fair Grounds Oaks for her third consecutive stakes victory at this track. The favorite trailed the field early after hopping at the start and then made a run for the lead around the far turn, capturing control a furlong out. "I was thinking I should just save ground and sit behind the other horses," winning jockey Lonnie Meche said. "I just kept her out of trouble and she finished up great." Said winning trainer Sam David, "Our next move is probably the Fantasy at Hot Springs (Oaklawn) or the Ashland at Keeneland."

Tomisue's Delight dropped back to last down the backside and made a four-wide move around the far turn but could not catch the winner.

Never off the board in 10 prior starts over this track and a two-length winner of the Essex H. last out, No Spend No Glow was content to trail the field for six furlongs but came flying at the finish to catch Essex runner-up Illesam and then outgame that rival in a duel to the wire. Trainer Don Von Hemel said the GI Oaklawn H. April 5 would be next. "I wouldn't haul from Little Rock to face those kind of horses, but right now this is home and with an honest pace, he'll have a chance to win," he said.

Debit My Account ran ninth last time out in the Feb. 23 GII Rampart H. but found the competition easier at Turfway, where she is now five-for-six lifetime. The favorite sat off the early pace, began to rally around the far turn, took the lead at the furlong pole and held off second-choice Princess Eloise. "We threw out her last race, and brought her back to the track she loves," winning trainer Murray Johnson said. "Tony D'Amico (winning jockey) does a great job with her. Latin Dancer tried turf for the first time in the Pirate Cove S. last out and finished a creditable second with a solid late kick. Ignored at the windows despite that effort, the Maryland-bred bay belied his odds with yet another strong finish, sweeping wide into the stretch, lugging in slightly near the eighth pole, then going on about his business to take the lead late and draw clear. "He got a little unbalanced when he switched leads," explained winning jockey Corey Black of the midstretch swerve. "But once I got him straightened away...he ran away from them nice." The 2-1 favorite KLINSMAN (IRE) (Danehill), making his second U.S. start after racing in Ireland at two, grabbed the lead at the top of the lane but weakened late and finished fourth.

In against open allowance foes last out, the filly wired the field going seven-eighths, and she made it three straight stretching out once again in this test. A sandier surface consisting of new binding materials combined with a lower content of silt and clay will be unveiled on Hollywood's half-mile training track when the surface opens this month. Looking to develop a track surface for the future, Hollywood, Del Mar and the Oak Tree Association have been working together on the project. The new blend is already in place in a chute at Los Alamitos, and has received favorable reviews. Products called Sports Grids and Stabilizers bind the track while giving it the ability to absorb water. "The horses seem to run well over it," said trainer Richard Mandella, chairman of the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association's track committee. "I think this project is the most important we face. If it does not prove to be the best surface, we will continue to search for new alternatives." Dennis Moore, track superintendent at Los Alamitos and a consultant on the project, said that with the new surface "we won't have to do all the ripping and tilling that we have to do now. All that allows for a much more consistent track, and that's what we're shooting for."
