CAPTAIN BODGIT TO WOOD Florida Derby winner Captain Bodgit (Saint Ballado) will make his final start before the Kentucky Derby in Aqueduct's April 12 GII Wood Memorial. The Team Valor colt was originally scheduled to start in Keeneland's Blue Grass S. that same day, but a nominating snafu forced the change in plans. "Keeneland never received our nomination for the race," said Barry Irwin, president of Team Valor, "so we have had to change our plans. Oddly enough, we faxed nominations the same day to Hialeah for the Flamingo and to Turfway for the Jim Beam and they got there fine. But for some reason the Blue Grass nomination didn't make it." Captain Bodgit will leave Hialeah next weekend and train up to the Wood at trainer Gary Capuano's home base, Bowie race track in Maryland. Following the nine-furlong Wood Memorial, plans call for the colt to fly to Louisville. "I think my trainer likes this idea better," Irwin said. "He was worried about the sharp turns at Keeneland."

MANDELLA PAIR ARRIVE FOR WORLD CUP Trainer Richard Mandella's pair Siphon (Brz) (Itajara {Brz}) and Sandpit (Brz) (Baynoun {Ire}) arrived safely in Dubai Thursday morning after their flight from California via Amsterdam. Both are now settled in the quarantine center in Dubai, along with Australia's flag-bearer, the Gai Waterhouse-trained Juggler (Aus) (Jugah, by Northern Dancer), who also arrived yesterday, having traveled from Sydney via Hong Kong. The Japanese contender Hokuto Vega (Jpn) (Nagurski) breezed a half-mile over the Nad Al Sheba Racecourse yesterday.

HALL OF FAME NOMINEES ANNOUNCED The National Museum of Racing announced yesterday its nominees for this year's induction into the official National Thoroughbred Racing Hall of Fame. Ogden Phipp's champion Easy Goer is one of three nominees in the Modern Male horse category. Others in that category are Exceller, who defeated Triple Crown winners Seattle Slew and Affirmed in the 1978 Jockey Club Gold Cup, and D & H Stable's Kentucky Derby winner Needles. Jockeys nominated for Hall of Fame induction in 1997 are Gary Stevens, who won the Kentucky Derby on Winning Colors and Thunder Gulch, the recently retired Jacinto Vasquez, another two-time Derby winner and regular rider of Ruffian, and the late Jack Westrope, who led the nation's riders as an apprentice at 15 in 1933. Nominated trainers are Willard Proctor, Phil Johnson and Virgil "Buddy" Raines. Bold 'n Determined, a winner of six Grade I races in 1980, two-time champion Bowl of Flowers and three-year-old champion of 1963 Lamb Chop were nominated in the Modern Female horse category. The Horse of Yesteryear category--for runners who made their last start at least 50 years ago--is made up of Endurance by Right, who won 16 of 18 races at two; Granville, the first winner of the Horse of the Year balloting in 1936, and Princequillo, who rose from a $2,500 claimer to become a distinguished stayer in the mid-1940s. More than 100 racing journalists, historians and commentators will participate in the balloting and results will be announced at Churchill Downs during Kentucky Derby week. The Hall of Fame induction ceremony will be held 10:30 a.m. Monday, August 4 at the National Museum of Racing in Saratoga Springs, New York.

The beautifully-bred colt Canyon Creek is set to aim higher on his next start. Winning trainer John Gosden said: "He had knee trouble last year and we treated him very sympathetically, giving him only one race, which he won. We plan to find him a Group race in France for his next outing." Canyon Creek broke his maiden on his only previous start at Pontefract 7th October last year, beating 13 other runners.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a + will denote winners who are first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a © for maiden claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.

◆ NEW YORK ◆

Local News, Aqueduct:

Effective April 1, the New York Racing Association will permit the use of one-quarter inch "bends" for racing horseshoes, according to Mike Lakow, NYRA's racing secretary and handicapper at Aqueduct and Belmont Park. Turndowns--shoes with the ends turned severely down in an effort to provide traction--have been outlawed at NYRA tracks since 1994. Turndowns are considered to be any shoe with a bend of more than one-quarter inch.

Aqueduct parking and admission gates will open at 10 a.m. Saturday, March 29. Simulcast wagering on the Dubai Duty Free and Dubai World Cup will be accepted at SAM machines. Post time for the Duty Free is 10:30 a.m. and 11:15 for the World Cup.

◆ FLORIDA ◆

Local News, Ocala, Florida:

Traitor (Cryptoclearance), getting ready for his three-year-old debut, worked a half-mile in :50 over the Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's training track yesterday morning. The Grade I winner, off since running second in the 1996 Moet Champagne last October, is entered in the $100,000 OBS Championship S. Monday, March 24. "If everything goes well, he'll start Monday," said trainer Mary Eppler, who was in the saddle for yesterday's breeze. The Alfred Vanderbilt runner may be cross-entered for Sunday's $150,000 Tampa Bay Derby, but is likely to remain in Ocala for his season opener. Plans call for the colt to head to New York for his second start of the campaign in the Gil Wood Memorial at Aqueduct April 12, and then to Churchill for the Kentucky Derby.

Local News, Gulfstream Park:

Graded stakes-winner Look Daggers (Diesis {GB}), who suffered a fractured pelvis in Sunday's GII Orchid H. at Gulfstream, is getting better but is not out of danger. Trainer Bill Mott said yesterday that the five-year-old was improving every day but was not yet "out of the woods." With the stable set to ship out of Gulfstream April 1, the mare may have to be left behind at the track until she is well enough to travel.

Ampulla (Chief's Crown), the 4-5 favorite in the Orchid, injured her left hind suspensory in the race. The six-year-old mare is expected to race again, but not before this summer's Saratoga meet.

Local News, Kentucky:

Equibase Company is sponsoring in-depth online coverage of the second running of the March 29 Dubai World Cup with a special World Wide Web site, accessible through the Company's home page at www.equibase.com. Equibase will be posting full past performance information when entries are drawn March 25, with result charts to follow after the races.

Dr. A. Gary Lavin, longtime Kentucky owner, breeder and veterinarian, has joined the Board of Stewards of The Jockey Club, filling the position vacated by James E. Bassett III, Chairman of the Board of Keeneland Association, at the expiration of his four-year term of office. Lavin, a member of The Jockey Club since 1994, is the former president of the American Association of Equine Practitioners and the Kentucky Thoroughbred Association. He owns Longfield Farm near Goshen, Ky.

Local News, Churchill Downs:

Four members of Churchill Downs's Board of Directors were nominated for reelection to serve as Class I directors at yesterday's quarterly Board meeting. The nominations of William S. Farish, G. Watts Humphrey, Jr, Arthur B. Modell and Dennis D. Swanson as Class I directors to serve for a period of three years, were approved and are subject to the election of the Company's stockholders at their annual meeting June 19, 1997. The Board also strongly endorsed Churchill Downs's aggressive new marketing plan which concentrates on retaining existing patrons and turning them into ambassadors of the track. The marketing program will kick off with the beginning of the Spring race meet April 26.
