IRA BOMBS CANCEL GRAND NATIONAL

A sell-out crowd of 60,000 had to be evacuated from the grandstands at Aintree racecourse in Liverpool, England Saturday and the 150th running of the Grand National Steeplechase had to be abandoned even as the field of 38 was heading for the post parade after two coded warnings about possible bombs at the track were telephoned in to numbers in the Liverpool area. Police and racing authorities ordered the racecourse and grandstand to be cleared, and the rest of the day's meeting was canceled. Attending the races at Aintree yesterday were Princess Anne, as well as Academy Award-winning actor Gregory Peck, who was celebrating his 81st birthday. The public cooperated perfectly and the evacuation went off smoothly, but the telephone warnings were taken extremely seriously; after the evacuation was completed, the police carried out two controlled bomb explosions at the racecourse. It has been confirmed that the Irish Republican Army is responsible; only last Thursday, the IRA brought many of the motorways in Britain to a standstill after activating security alerts, with two minor explosions taking place. Police would not allow racing fans to return to their cars in the Aintree parking lot until they felt the threat has passed; emergency housing for fans stranded in Liverpool was being arranged. This is the second time in five years that the Grand National has had to be canceled. In 1993 the race was declared void when, after two false starts, more than half the field did race, their riders ignoring calls to return to the start. That race was never rerun, but it is expected that this year's edition, sponsored by Martell, will go off Monday, April 7 as the sole race on the Aintree programme.

SANTA ANITA DERBY IS ON "THE HOUSE" The Kentucky Derby picture is far from black and white four weeks before the race, and in fact may be dominated by shades of grey after yesterday's GI Santa Anita Derby. The $750,000 event saw the dark grey Silver Charm (Silver Buck) and his paler rival Free House (Smokester) battle to the wire, with 7-1 Free House prevailing by a head. It was nearly a rerun of the pair's last encounter, the GII San Felipe S. March 16, when Free House again proved narrowly best, winning that test by three-quarters of a length. "I definitely see the Kentucky Derby in his future," said jockey Kent Desormeaux. Santa Anita Derby news cont. p3

Scratched: King Crimson.

Teaming up again for the first time since they finished fourth in last December's GI Hollywood Futurity, Free House and jockey Kent Desormeaux, who captured last year's GII Norfolk S. together, were overlooked at the windows despite besting second choice Silver Charm in the GII San Felipe S. in their last meeting March 16. The two sat just behind Silver Charm and slight choice SHARP CAT (Storm Cat) as those two battled through hot early fractions, then came with a three-wide sweep at the top of the stretch and just got the better of the runner-up in the final strides. The winner had finished off the board in three straight after his Norfolk win but has regained his form to join the Triple Crown fray. "He's just a big kid," said trainer Paco Gonzalez. "He likes to play all the time. He likes to look around--he watches everything. But he's more into his races now. He's very competitive." Added Desormeaux, "As we turned for home, I asked the big question and he answered tenaciously. He just went right to the leaders, but he's talented enough that once he gets there he's bored and kind of waits on them. But I'll tell you, after the wire (Silver Charm) came back at him and he would not let him by." As for the second-place finisher, trainer Bob Baffert said, "This horse, he needed the route. This horse has so much heart, and he'll really move forward after this. He's really getting fit now. He's a major player and he showed that today. I can tell my wife (Sherry) to order a hat--I think I've got Derby fever." Third-place finisher Hello (Ire) was unsettled in the starting gate and also upset Sharp Cat, causing her to pop open the stall doors before the break; both are still possible for the Kentucky Derby May 3.

Margins: 6HF, 2, 6. Odds: 0.20, 22.50, 4.80.

Also Ran: Southern Playgirl, Glory in Motion, Private Pursuit.

Looking for her fourth straight stakes score after going three-for-three at Gulfstream, Glitter Woman was just as much at home on the surface at Keeneland, sitting second for a quarter before surging to the lead and then steadily increasing her margin to post yet another impressive score. "This race didn't come up exactly the way we wanted," said trainer Shug McGaughey. "I like for a horse to be in front of her because she can get to looking around a little bit. Mike (Smith) said when she turned for home and she heard the crowd screaming, he reached back and hit her one time and she jumped right back into it. There wasn't any doubt." As for what's next, McGaughey left the door open for a Kentucky Derby bid, saying, "Right now, we're pointing for the Kentucky Oaks (May 2), but that's something (owner Joe Allen) and I will sit down and talk about. We'll see what happens (in the Santa Anita Derby). We'll see what happens next Saturday here and in Arkansas and New York--and we'll just take it from there." Eclipse Award winner Storm Song, off the board against Glitter Woman at Gulfstream in her first two starts this year, showed a little more life with an even third-place finish here. "My filly ran real good," said jockey Craig Perret. "We just wanted to get her back on track. That track in Florida was too hard, and she wouldn't finish there. It was just stinging her too much. Now she's trying, so hopefully this will set her up for a big race."

Atticus ended 1996 with a sixth-place performance in the Nov. 30 GI NYRA Mile H on the main track. He started 1997 with a world record-setting performance in winning the Mar. 1 GII Arcadia H. on the turf at Santa Anita, going a mile in 1:31 4/5. The third choice ran up close the pace the entire way, slipped past the pacesetter on the inside to grab the lead after a half-mile, opened up on the turn and increased the margin in the stretch. "Unlike Siphon, Atticus has never had to have the lead," assistant trainer Gary Mandella said. "This horse is very ratable." Second choice Isitingood, whose record Atticus broke, sat off the pace, moved into contention around the far turn, but couldn't gain ground in the stretch. "I was happy with my position as we went around the first turn," jockey David Flores said. "On the backside, he wanted to back out of there a little, and I had to start riding him more than I wanted to going into the turn." Favorite Tejano Run trailed the field early, advanced in the stretch but never was a threat. "He's a millionaire now," trainer Kenneth McPeck said. "The race track at Hialeah, where he ran a big race in the Widener, is much deeper than Oaklawn. That was his kind of track. Our next start likely is the Pimlico Special." VICTORY SPEECH (Deputy Minister) pressed the early pace but faded in the stretch. EDITOR'S NOTE (Forty Niner) tired nearing the far turn and finished last.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a + will denote winners who are first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races, and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.

ON "THE HOUSE" cont. Kent Desormeaux picked up the winning mount on Free House in the Santa Anita Derby after David Flores chose to stick with Isitingood for the Oaklawn H. "He ran super," said the jockey. "What a luxury for a jockey to just, at will, put him everywhere we needed to be. I needed him to move up and I'd just ask a little bit and he'd move that length and then just cruise again. It was a wonderful effort. I'll tell you, nasty, nasty fractions. He had every right to cave in, but he was the most tenacious to the wire. He's got the kind of capabilities and the kind of mind you want to go a mile-and-a-quarter." Owners John Toffan and Trudy McCaffery, whose Mane Minister finished third in all three Triple Crown races, are looking forward to another crack at the series. "We just got over the last one, which was six years ago, but Paco (Gonzalez) knows how to handle it this time," said Toffan. Silver Charm, pressed from the outset through fractions of :45 and 1:09 by the filly Sharp Cat (Storm Cat), held on with determination in his second two-turn start. "He was coming back," said his jockey, Gary Stevens. "I thought I was going to get it back, I really did." Sharp Cat, facing colts after four straight wins against fillies, tired from her early effort and finished sixth. "I thought she ran well," said trainer D. Wayne Lukas. "More than anything, this was the first time she had that pressure pushing and banging on her. It's a growing experience." As for the Derby, Lukas said, "I think Richard Mulhall, the Prince and I will get together--it will be a discussion. If you're thinking of the Oaks, you can make a decision on Wednesday or Thursday (of Derby week). So we'll just take it one step at a time." Carmen's Baby (Iam the Iceman), fifth at 62-1, pulled up lame and was vanned off. He suffered ruptured left front suspensory ligaments. "It's probably career-ending, but it's not life-threatening," said Los Angeles Turf Club veterinarian Dr. Ray Baran. Saturday's handle at Santa Anita, $20,621,422, was a record for Derby Day and the third-highest in track history; handle on the Grade I event was a record $3,886,607. Yesterday's attendance was 36,625, up 12.6 percent over last year's Santa Anita Derby crowd.

Private Song (Private Account), imported from England after winning one of eight starts, was intended to begin his U.S. campaign on the turf but found a new home when that Santa Anita allowance test came off the grass and he took his dirt debut January 12. Third after a stumbling start in his next, the Juddmonte home-bred came back to win again March 14; he makes his American stakes debut here. Del Mar Dennis (Dixieland Band) goes for his fourth straight in this event; the seven-year-old millionaire has not won since taking last year's edition, but finished a solid third in his two starts this season, including The Wicked North S. March 22.

3--Gotha, 113, h, 5, Jade Hunter--Flying Girl (Fr), by Rusticaro. $11,440.

Margins: 3/4, 3, HF. Odds: 2.80, 2.60, 7.70.

Michael's Star, a graded-stakes winner at three and runner-up in the GII Hawthorne Gold Cup last year, had been off the board his first three outings of this campaign racing at Turfway and Gulfstream but showed marked improvement with a return to Chicago. The bay rated off the pace of The Clan's Chief for six furlongs but closed to challenge as they straightened for home and outfinished that rival for the win. The 2-1 favorite, millionaire RECOUP THE CASH (Copelan) pressed the pace but tired to finish eighth.

Diablo Won won despite showing his inexperience in his first two starts, taking an Oaklawn maiden event March 8 and an allowance test over the track March 23. Stepping up to stakes company for his third start, the Florida-bred was with the leaders from the start, put a head in front after a half and held off the late bid of favored Dusting Pass to remain undefeated. The colt will try two turns for the first time in his next start, the $250,000 Lone Star Derby at the inaugural Lone Star Park meet April 20. Favored Dusting Pass pulled up lame.

3--Lone Eagle (Ire), 114, c, 4, Alzao--Cellophane, by Coquelin.

Margins: HF, 3, NK. Odds: 3.20, 2.60, 8.00.

Blushing Richard won an allowance race at Gulfstream in January, 1996, then was sidelined for more than a year before resurfacing to make it two in a row in another Gulfstream test January 29. Given another break after that score, the chestnut came back once again for trainer Bill Mott and posted an impressive late rally to catch Value Investor in deep stretch. Last year's GIII Saranac S. winner HARGHAR (El Gran Senor), making his first start since running fourth in the GIII Keeneland Breeders' Cup Mile October 12 and his third since shipping over from Ireland, was last after three-quarters but closed ground late to be fourth.

Margins: HF, 1HF, HF. Odds: 1.80, 2.00, 3.90.

Barn Swallow ran seventh in a Mar. 12 Gulfstream allowance in her previous start. The favorite raced just off the pace, moved into contention around the final turn and held off the late charge of Status Quo.

Confide (Phone Trick), impressive winner of the Gill Swale S. March 15, picked up a nail in his left front hoof on his way back to the barn after breezing Saturday and has been taken to Lexington's Rood and Riddle Equine Hospital as a precautionary measure. "We're trying to kill the infection," said trainer Ben Perkins. "That's the main thing right now." With jockey Mike Smith in the saddle, the colt worked a bullet five-eighths in :59 2/5; he will miss Wednesday's Gill Lafayette S.

Pacific Fleet won the Jan. 12 Gill Aqueduct H. but followed that up with poor efforts in the Feb. 17 Gill General George H. at Laurel, where he finished ninth, and a sixth-place finish in the Mar. 16 Toboggan H. at Aqueduct. Rebounding here, the winner sat off a fast pace and then went wide around the far turn to take command and draw clear late. "I had a perfect trip, and all I had to do was to make one big run from the three-eighths pole," winning jockey Frank Alvarado said. The favorite Stalwart Member was part of the speed duel and then tired late.

Ormsby trailed in the Mar. 2 Hollie Hughes H. for state-breds at Aqueduct but turned it around in this spot. The favorite sprang out of the gate on top to open up a clear lead and kept increasing that margin; he jumped tire tracks in the stretch but that did not slow him down en route to an eye-catching score. Trainer Sue Alpers indicated that Ormsby may run next in an open-company stakes race.

Local News: Aqueduct Racetrack

Undeclared three-year-old Banker's Gold (Forty Niner), a son of the talented GISW Banker's Lady who took his third straight with a nose win in an Aqueduct allowance test Friday, will likely make his next start in the Gill Withers at Aqueduct May 3. "With these young horses, I've always found that they do better if you give them a little respite from time to time," said his trainer, Hall of Famer Allen Jerkens. "The Withers would give us just over four weeks between races and that should be plenty of time."

Purses at the recently concluded Aqueduct winter meet showed gains in both average overnight purse and daily average distribution. The average distribution was up 4.5 percent, from $246,991 during last year's winter meeting to $258,212 this year. Overnight purses averaged $27,571, up 7.1 percent from the average of $25,732 a year ago.

Making his first start since a half-length victory in the GII American H. at Hollywood July 4, Labeeb (GB) ran his U.S. record to three-for-four. The lightly raced runner sat just off the pace through six furlongs in 1:12.12, moved into contention at the head of the lane to take over in midstretch, then dug down despite the layoff to outrun Talloires to the wire. "Last year, I was getting him ready for the Arlington Million and he hurt his foot--a bad bone bruise," said trainer Neil Drysdale. "We decided to give him the rest of the year off and get him ready for this year. His next goal is probably the Hollywood Turf H. (May 26)."

First Intent had been running for a tag, stringing together five consecutive second-place finishes before earning a victory against $62,500 claimers March 23. Jumping into the graded stakes ranks off that effort, the veteran was the rank outsider; last through a half in :43 3/5, he swung to the far outside for the drive and closed stoutly to take the lead inside the final furlong and draw away to a belated first stakes score. It was also the first graded win for trainer Jack Carava. "It feels good," he said. "This horse is doing so good right now--a completely different horse since I've had him." He claimed the gelding for $40,000 March 16, 1996.

Frisk Me Now shocked the crowd at Gulfstream when he took the GII Danka Hutcheson at 105-1 February 2, then faltered at 44-1 in the GII Fountain Of Youth February 22. Sent off at 68-1 in the GI Florida Derby last out March 15, the colt showed his good form once again to be third after racing with the pace from the start, finishing just 2 3/4 lengths behind winner Captain Bodgit. Facing no such rivals here, the bay was bet down to 4-5 and did not disappoint, closing from fourth to win going away. "I liked what I saw," said trainer Bob Durso. "He got shuffled back a little into the first turn, but he showed his versatility to relax and then come on. I won't make a decision about the Derby, probably for a week. I want to see the races next weekend, and see who is going to be in the field."
