TRAITOR DEFECTS FROM TRIPLE CROWN

TRAIL Off his feed recently, Traitor (Cryptoclearance) has been removed from the Triple Crown trail. Trainer Mary Eppler reported yesterday that her horse has not been eating well and has lost a considerable amount of weight in recent weeks. "He's not eating properly," Eppler said, "I would say he's lost 200 to 300 pounds. You can't go into a race if you're not 110 percent. If we were going to make the Derby, he wasn't going to be able to miss any of the preps." Eppler said she believes Traitor has lost the weight because the stable had been rushing to try and make the Derby after the horse was injured in an incident on the Hialeah backstretch. "He missed three weeks and we had to play catch-up and condense his training. By doing that, he slowed down in his eating and lost weight." Eppler said the entire Triple Crown series is out and that Traitor may return to the races by June.

JACK KENT COOKE DEAD Sports and business mogul Jack Kent Cooke died yesterday of congestive heart failure at George Washington University Hospital. He was 84. Cooke had announced in January the complete dispersal of his Thoroughbred racing and breeding stock and at the same time had put his 500-acre Elmendorf Farm near Lexington, Kentucky up for sale. Cooke, involved in sports for more than 40 years, was the majority owner of the NFL's Washington Redskins and recently oversaw the building of a new stadium for the team in Rajon, Maryland. He also owned the Los Angeles Daily News and the Chrysler Building in New York. In racing since 1980, Cooke purchased Elmendorf in 1984 and raced such top homebreds as 1996 MGSW Antepend and MGSW Flying Continental.

Margins: 6, 8, 6. Odds: 0.70, 8.70, 1.90.

Also Ran: Alyssum, Hooten Annie.

Blushing K.D. captured her fourth straight stakes victory after winning three stakes at the Fair Grounds including the Mar. 15 GIII Fair Grounds Oaks in her previous start. The favorite disputed the pace between rivals early, grabbed the lead before going a half-mile, opened up around the far turn and increased her advantage through the stretch. "The (May 2) Kentucky Oaks has been our plan all along, and we are sticking with it," winning trainer Sam B. David Jr. said. "We were going to take her back a little (off the pace), but that horse (Ajina), came out and bumped us on the far turn, but ours jumped into the bridle and went on." Valid Bonnet, winner of the GIII Honeybee in her last outing, sat just off the early speed battle, tried to challenge the winner turning for home but could not get by the winner. "I'm going to have to stop following that other filly (Blushing K.D.)," Steve Asmussen, trainer of Valid Bonnet, said. "She's too much. On the (far) turn, I could see we had a lot left, but so did the winner." Multiple graded stakes winner Ajina held a short lead early but tired to third in the stretch.

Benchmark, a lightly-raced six-year-old making only his ninth career start here, came off a ten-month layoff to win a March 13 optional claiming race at Santa Anita in his last start. The bay, last after three-quarters, rallied sharply through the stretch to earn his first stakes victory. "This is a very nice horse," winning rider Chris McCarron said after the race. "He hasn't had a chance to run very many times because he's been kind of prone to injury. He's a very talented racehorse, though." Trainer Ron Ellis added, "He had shin (problems) when he was younger--a lot of small problems, but he looks like he's ready for a good year this year."

GRAND NATIONAL TO RUN TODAY Merseyside police have given racing officials the green light to stage the Grand National Steeplechase today. The race was originally scheduled for this past Saturday, but bomb threats forced the abandonment of the race meeting at Aintree. Police are now satisfied that the racecourse is safe and the Grand National Steeplechase will be run this afternoon at 5:00 p.m. local time. However, it will be the only race to take place, the final two scheduled races on the program have been canceled. It is not yet certain that all 38 intended runners in the Grand National will be in the line-up. All wagers taken on the race will stand, unless fans request their money back before the race. Most trainers have shown willingness to run their horses, but some have expressed concern that the track may have been damaged by the public walking over it after Saturday's emergency evacuation of the grandstand areas. Fancied runners Belmont King and Suny Bay are now doubtful for the race. The police allowed members of the public, not permitted to return to the car parks Saturday night, to collect their vehicles Sunday under strict security supervision.

MCGAUGHEY MULLS OPTIONS FOR GLITTER

WOMAN Coming off a 6½-length win in Saturday's Ashland at Keeneland, Glitter Woman (Glitterman) is likely to make her next start in the May 2 GI Kentucky Oaks, but trainer Shug McGaughey is still keeping an eye on the Triple Crown trail. While McGaughey has not ruled out starting the 3-year-old filly in the Kentucky Derby, he admitted yesterday he's more inclined at this point to look at the May 17 Preakness. "The Preakness makes a lot of sense," he said. "We could run her in the Kentucky Oaks, and, if she runs good there, that gives us something to look at. Unless something outstanding happens in the Derby, we could look at running her in the Preakness. I'd be more inclined to go in the Oaks and then the Preakness, than in the Derby." Glitter Woman has won four straight, but has never run beyond a mile and a sixteenth. McGaughey admitted he has reservations about her getting a distance, but Glitter Woman continues to handle every challenge thrown her way. "I was surprised when she ran long in the first place," McGaughey said. "Now, I think she's better going long than short. But going a mile and a quarter in Louisville is a long way and it's a long year."

SANTA ANITA DERBY WRAP-UP The connections of Free House (Smokester) and Silver Charm (Silver Buck), the first two finishers in Saturday's GI Santa Anita Derby, are making plane reservations for a trip to the 123rd Kentucky Derby. "He came out of the race in good order," trainer Paco Gonzalez said of Free House. "We're planning on going to Kentucky next." Bob Baffert, trainer of Silver Charm, admitted his charge was, "pretty tired after the race," but added, "Silver Charm has so much heart and he'll really move forward after this." Trainer Ron McAnally listed the Kentucky Derby "a possibility" for Santa Anita Derby third-place finisher Hello (Ire) (Lycius). Also possible for the Run for the Roses, is fourth-place finisher Steel Ruhl (Ruhlmann). Trainer D. Wayne Lukas expressed some doubt that his filly, Sharp Cat (Storm Cat), sixth as the favorite Saturday, would make the Derby line-up. "It's more likely we'll go next in the Kentucky Oaks (May 2)," Lukas said. "But we can wait until the last minute to make the decision."

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a + will denote winners who are first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races, and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.

Local News, Hong Kong:

Annus Mirabilis (Fr) (Warning {GB}), third in the 1995 G1 Irish Derby, is set to represent the Godolphin team in next Sunday's G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Sha Tin in Hong Kong. The five-year-old will be partnered by dual British champion jockey Frankie Dettori. Dettori will have a busy week; he's in Dubai today to take part in Godolphin's annual series of trials at Nad Al Sheba, he'll be in France Wednesday to ride the John Gosden-trained Canyon Creek (Ire) (Mr Prospector) in the G3 Prix Edmond Blanc, and then will ride in Britain Thursday and Friday before flying to Hong Kong.

Local News, England:

Trainer Peter Chapple-Hyam has confirmed that Revoque (Ire) (Fairy King), officially rated Europe's top two-year-old last season, is an intended runner in the 2000 Guineas. The colt, undefeated in four starts including wins in the G1 Prix De La Salamandre and the G1 Grand Criterium, should make his first start of the season in the G3 Greenham S. at Newbury April 19.

NAPOLI EXPRESS (Fr) (Persian Bold {Ire}) led the field at a good pace, followed by Shaka and Fragrant Mix. On the turn, Napoli Express began to struggle (eventually tiring to sixth) and was soon challenged by Shaka. But Fragrant Mix was cruising in behind and he hit the front a furlong and a half out and drew away easily to score his third win from three starts this season. Winning owner Jean-Luc Lagardere said: "The horse was cruising so easily two and a half furlongs out that his jockey Thierry Jarnet wasn't quite sure when to make his challenge and he might have gone too soon, but the horse still won really well." Lagardere's racing manager Mr de Lonjevalle said: "The horse has proven his point and has taken his racing in stride, progressing from his maiden to this Group 2 win. He will now go straight to Chantilly for the Prix du Jockey Club (French Derby, June 1)."

Flat Fleet Feet, winner of the Nov. 29 GI Top Flight H. at Aqueduct, won the Mar. 17 Poinciana Breeders' Cup H. at Hialeah in her last start. Part of the favored entry, the winner was reserved early before accelerating around the far turn to grab the lead and then drew away in the stretch. "Stretching out today, I had to judge when to move, and she just kept dragging me," winning jockey Mike Smith said. "She had a good trip, and I'm happy to see she did so well because this leaves a lot of options open." "We might look to send her longer, maybe even two turns," winning trainer John Kimmel said. "Certainly the (May 24) GI Shuvee H. could be a possibility." The other part of the favored entry, multiple graded stakes winner Miss Golden Circle lacked response in the stretch and finished fifth.

Scott's Scoundrel notched his first career win on grass in the John B. Connally Breeders' Cup Turf H. He ran second in the Feb. 8 Fair Grounds Breeders Cup S. on the turf and came back to finish third last time out in the GIII New Orleans H., which he won in 1996, on the main track. "He can run on anything," winning trainer Paul Pellerin said. "I believe he could even run on asphalt." The second choice raced behind the leaders until angling out in the stretch drive and rolling past pacesetter Western Trader at the sixteenths-pole. Favored Volochine (Ire) rallied from the back of the pack but never threatened the winner.

TRANSYLVANIA S., $71,370, KEE, 4-6, 3yo, 1mT, 1:36 2/5, fm.

1--NEAR THE BANK, 118, c, 3, Lomond--Storm the Bank, by Water Bank. ($3,500 yrl '95 KEESEP).

O-Roberts Robert & Smith Clarence; B-Rankin J C Bud Jr (KY); T-Denis W Roberson; J-P Day; $44,249. Lifetime Record: 11-4-2-2, $134,262.

2--Daylight Savings, 114, c, 3, Sky Classic--

Wortheroatsingold, by Naskra. O-Pin Oak Farm. $14,274.

3--Song for James, 113, c, 3, Seattle Song--Vetch, by Monteverdi (Ire). O-J Ryan Enterprises Inc. $7,137.

Margins: HD, 2HF, 1HF. Odds: 1.30, 2.20, 21.40.

Near The Bank kept his record perfect on the turf as he is now 3 for 3 on grass. After winning the Oct. 11 T.V. Lark S. at Arlington and the Oct. 20 Royal Glint S. at Hawthorne on grass, the winner dropped four consecutive stakes races on dirt, most recently the Mar. 15 Second Pleasure S. at Oaklawn, where he finished third. The favorite wired the field and just held off the late charge of Daylight Savings. "The horse ran a big, big race," winning jockey Pat Day said. "He was a little anxious early. But as soon as he got away from the horses, he settled nicely. Then when that horse (Daylight Savings) made a run at him in the stretch, every time he came to him, he'd just run enough to stay in front of him. It was a pretty game effort."

1--COMPOSER, 114, h, 5, Easy Goer--Honorio (GSW & G1SP-Ire, $101,800), by Danzig. O-Sibling Stb & Willis Family Stb; B-Kennelot Stables (KY); T-M Lerman. Lifetime Record: GSW, 25-5-4-1, $284,177.

Margins: 3/4, NK, NO. Odds: 41.00, 6.30, 8.10.

Composer, winner of the 1995 GII Jim Dandy S., finished fourth last time out in a Mar. 16 Gulfstream claiming race but handled the jump in class here. The longest shot on the board tracked the pace before moving up to take the lead from Jambalaya Jazz with a furlong to go and then pulled away late. G1SW LE TRITON (El Gran Senor) held the early lead but tired to last as the 3-2 favorite.

6th-KEE, $51,776, Alw, 4/up, f/m, 6 1/2f, 1:16 4/5, ft.

1--LIVERMORE LESLIE, 113, f, 4, Mt. Livermore

2--Golden Gale, 116, f, 4, Summer Squall--Gold Whirl, by Mr. Prospector.

3--Talking Tower, 113, f, 4, Irish Tower--Comtesse, by Mr. Leader.

Margins: HD, 6HF, 2. Odds: 7.70, 2.10, 4.80.

Livermore Leslie ran second in a Feb. 16 Turfway Park allowance event in her previous start. The winner saved ground while sitting off the pace rallied six-wide and just ran down graded stakes winner Golden Gale for the victory. Grade I stakes winner and 4-5 favorite CLEAR MANDATE (Deputy Minister), unraced since finishing sixth in the Oct. 26 Breeders' Cup Distaff, trailed the field of five early and finished fourth.

9th-KEE, $41,524, Alw, 3, f, 1 1/16mT, 1:43 3/5, fm.

1--HASTA, 118, f, 3, Theatrical (Ire)--Slew the Queen, by Seattle Slew. O-Paulson Madeleine A; B-Paulson Allen E (KY); T-William I Mott. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $43,755.

2--High Philly, 118, f, 3, Green Dancer--An Alltime High, by Secretariat.

3--Siostra, 118, f, 3, Polish Numbers--Saladina, by Raise a Man.

Margins: 2, 1 1/4, 1 1/4. Odds: 1.60, 7.00, 19.20.

Hasta won a Feb. 23 Gulfstream maiden race on dirt in her debut and came back here to win on the turf. The favorite led the field the entire way and extended the lead in the stretch. High Philly swerved out at the start, rallied from the back of the pace, but was second best.

4th-KEE, $37,000, Msw, 3yo, f, a7f, 1:29, ft.
+LADY IN POWER (f, 3, Defensive Play--Lady Lady, by Little Current) upset the field in her debut at odds of 19-1. The winner got off to a slow start here, but recovered and moved up through the inside in the stretch for a 3/4-length victory over runner-up TRICK OF ACE (Clever Trick). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $23,192. O/B-Wimborne Farm Inc. (KY). T-Diane Perkins.

GOLDIGGING GAYLE (f, 3, Halo--Rough to Glory, by On to Glory) finished sixth in a Mar. 14 Turfway maiden race, but the $90,000 1995 KEESEP yearling purchase scored in this spot. The 9-2 second choice tracked the pacesetter in second before grabbing the lead at the top of the stretch and holding off the late bid of the 44-1 longshot runner-up CUSHION (Play Fellow) to win by a half-length. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $23,192. O-Gainesway Stable. B-Hartland Farm (KY). T-Mitch Shirota.

CUTIE LUTTIE (f, 2, Zuppardo's Prince--Ms. Luttie {MSP}, by Fast Fellow), third in her Mar. 13 debut at Delta Downs as the 9-10 favorite, proved the value of experience as the $4,000 LTBAUG yearling was the only one in the field who had raced before. The 7-2 third choice dueled for the lead with 13-1 longshot PRIVATE FLEET (Afleet) before outgaming that rival to the wire for a half-length victory. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $18,117. O-Valene Farms. B-Royal B. Kraft Sr. (LA). T-Richard R Scherer.

10th-OPX, $22,000, Msw, 3yo, f, 6f, 1:11 4/5, ft.
+NEAR SILVER (f, 3, Lac Ouimet--My Jessica Ann {SP}, by Native Rhythm) captured her debut as the 7-2 third choice. The winner rallied from the back of the pack, going four-wide around the far turn and just nipping SILVER'S RUNAWAY (Silver Survivor) by a neck at the wire. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $13,200. O-Diane Bowman & Felty J Yoder. B-Yoder Felty J Mr & Mrs (Ky). T-Carl Bowman.
