ACCEPTABLE OUT OF DERBY WITH FRACTURE

Acceptable (Capote), second in the Toyota Bluegrass last Saturday, suffered a condylar fracture in his left front leg yesterday and will miss the May 3 Kentucky Derby. The three-year-old completed a five-furlong work in 1:03 3/4 under jockey Willie Martinez on a muddy Keeneland track, but came back "off," according to trainer Nick Zito, who said that Dr. Larry Bramlage is scheduled to perform surgery on the colt today. "I see this every year," said Zito, "but it has never happened to me." Co-owned by Kinsman Stable and Three Chimneys Farm, Acceptable has won two of nine starts and earned $400,020. Zito, with two Kentucky Derby wins under his belt already, still has two candidates for the first leg of this year's Triple Crown--Shammy Davis (Temperence Hill), entered in today's GII Lexington S. at Keeneland, and Jack Flash (Sovereign Dancer).

CONCERTO: NO SALE Rumors swirling around Pimlico Racecourse that Concerto (Chief's Crown), winner of yesterday's Federico Tesio S. (see p. 3) had been sold to an owner represented by trainer D. Wayne Lukas proved to be unfounded yesterday, but Lukas admitted that there had been some discussions with Concerto's owner, George Steinbrenner, involving a possible sale of the colt. "We talked with George at length and kicked it around," said Lukas. "At this point, we're not close to a deal." Lukas declined to reveal which of his owners was involved in the negotiations, only saying, "it was one of my major clients. These are very tough deals to put together. So much is involved." Maryland veterinarian Bob Vallance said that he was asked by veterinarian Robert Copelan to take X-rays of Concerto, and that Copelan had been expected to arrive at his Laurel barn by 1 p.m. to physically examine the colt. But Vallance said that Copelan, caught in traffic from Baltimore-Washington International Airport, did not arrive at the barn until 2 p.m., by which time Concerto had left for Pimlico to run in the Tesio.

BAILEY WINS 4000TH Hall of Fame jockey Jerry Bailey rode the 4000th winner of his career yesterday at Keeneland aboard Middleberg (GB) (Midyan) in the seventh race. Keeneland president Bill Greely presented Bailey with a silver julep cup in the winner's circle. "There have been some wonderful horses I've ridden and some great moments," Bailey said of his career. "I really wouldn't trade it for anything."

A graded stakes winner in France, Donna Viola made her U.S. debut a winning one in the Yellow Ribbon Nov. 3. After a four-month rest, she finished third to Windsharp in the GI Santa Ana March 22, but turned the tables on her rival here. Always up close to the pace, she was sent up four wide on the far turn, took a short lead into the stretch, and held off Fanjica under urging to give trainer Ben Cecil a one-two finish. "It was great to run one-two," said Cecil. Until now, my biggest win was with Celtic Arms a week after I had started training. This definitely takes the biscuit."

Powder Bowl, winner of the July 24 GII Matchmaker S. at Atlantic City, ran fifth last time out in the Mar. 16 GII Orchid H. The third choice raced up close on the inside through the early going before moving into contention around the far turn and running down Careless Heiress in deep stretch. "The race didn't shape up with a lot of speed," winning jockey Herb McCauley said. "We didn't want to compromise the filly's running style, so I was able to settle her off the pace. She moved up when she was supposed to. She ran a great race. She was able to save ground the whole way." The 3-5 favorite MAXZENE (Cozzene), winner of five straight races before her fourth-place finish here, was within striking distance for most of the race but lacked a response in the stretch.

Screamer, third in the Mar. 23 GIII Florida Oaks at Tampa Bay in her previous start, and Make Haste, winner of an Apr. 9 Keeneland allowance last time out, finished in a dead-heat for the win. Second-choice Move set a pressured early pace with the two winners trailing the field early. Screamer saved ground along the inside waited for racing room, and squeezed through a hole in between horses late. Favored Make Haste came five wide as the field straightened for home and just got to the wire together with Screamer.

He set the pace the entire way and just got up to win it at the wire. Trainer Martin Wolfson indicated the winner may start next in the Dixie H. at Pimlico May 17.

The 2-1 morning-line favorite, KING OF SWING (Dixieland Band) was scratched yesterday morning due to a bruised foot. I'm a Jewel, who raced for a maiden claiming tag as low as $8,500 last November, made his stakes debut here. A winner of his last out, a turf allowance, I'm a Jewel was last early, closed on the turn while swinging wide and ran strongly through the stretch to get up in time. FUNONOTHERUN (Runaway Groom), who won the GII San Rafael two starts back before being eased behind the spill in the GII Jim Beam last out, pressed the pace for six furlongs and was eased.

Concerto will head to the Kentucky Derby after a win which was easier than the final margin indicated. The colt, who came into this race off a win in the GII Jim Beam S. March 29, raced just outside Bleu Madura, traded leads with his early rival down the backstretch, drifted out slightly at the top of the stretch, and was hand-ridden to the wire. "I think I'm right on top," said winning trainer John Tammaro III of his position in the Kentucky Derby picture. "I think I've got as good a chance as anybody there. I wanted more speed in the race. I didn't want to have my horse find himself all alone and start to loafing. But he did okay. (Jockey) Carlos (Marquez Jr.) didn't have to ask much of him." Tammaro declined to comment on the possible sale of his colt (see p. 1).

Despite an eventful trip to Texas, being forced to wait at the Miami airport for over three hours while mechanical problems were repaired on his plane, Skip Away has settled well into his new surroundings, said Hine, who added he wasn't worried about the others. "I don't care what they do," said Hine. "If (Skip Away) runs his race, it won't matter."

Winning the first leg of a Group race double for trainer Michael Stoute, Whitewater Affair traveled well early in third, as SALMON LADDER (Bering {GB}) led the pack. At the half-mile mark, Whitewater Affair, ridden by French champion jockey Olivier Peslier, riding his second winner in two days at Newbury, began to close on the leader. A quarter of a mile out, she launched her challenge and took command inside the final furlong, going on to win well, while Ela Aristokrati finished strongly to deprive Kutta of second on the line. "The plan is now to head for the G2 Yorkshire Cup at York with her (May 15)," said owner-breeder John Greetham.

Also ran: In Command (Ire), The West, Hayes Way (Ire).

Robert Sangster's Revoque lost his unbeaten record here when he was comfortably outpointed in the closing stages by Sheikh Hamdan al Maktoum's less-experienced Yalaitanee. There had been rumour all week that Revoque was not at his best and so it proved. Bookmaker reaction to Revoque's defeat was to extend his odds for the 2000 Guineas to 5/1, leaving the Godolphin colt Shamikh (GB) (Unfuwain) as the clear favourite at 4/1. They have installed Yalaitanee as a 12/1 shot, but the Greenham winner is more likely to go for the French 2000 Guineas (Poule d'Essai des Poulains) at Longchamp May 11. Group One Dewhurst S. winner IN COMMAND (Sadler's Wells) set a good pace, followed by Revoque and Yalaitanee and that order was maintained until the quarter pole, when Revoque got the better of In Command, only to be challenged on the outer by Yalaitanee, who, without much effort from rider Frankie Dettori, was always in control.

Winning trainer Michael Stoute was somewhat surprised at the result. "On the form book he had a lot to find, but he's always been highly rated," said Stoute. "The key to him is that he must have some cut in the ground and the people here at Newbury have done a great job with their track today. He's in the 2000 Guineas at Newmarket on May 3, but I would think it more likely he'll go for the French Guineas a week later." Revoque's trainer Peter Chapple-Hyam said, "The horse got tired. He definitely needed this race and will still go for the 2000 Guineas."
