KENTUCKY DERBY UPDATE Trainer D. Wayne Lukas, who had been expected to miss this year's Kentucky Derby after winning the last two and having a runner in each edition since 1981, is now leaning towards sending out his top filly Sharp Cat (Storm Cat) to run for the roses. Saying there are "more pros than cons" to running in the Derby, Lukas added, "I think the Prince (owner Ahmed Salman) would like to do it; (racing manager Richard Mulhall) doesn't." If Mulhall has his way, the filly, sixth in the GI Santa Anita Derby in her first try against colts, will run in the Kentucky Oaks May 2. Hello (Ire) (Lycius), third in the Santa Anita Derby last out April 5, had his final major Derby prep yesterday morning, working seven furlongs in 1:29 1/5. With jockey Calvin Borel in the saddle, the colt went his first quarter in :26 4/5, the half in :53 3/5 and six furlongs in 1:17; he went his final eighth in :12 1/5 and galloped out the mile in 1:43 1/5. "He went real good," said Borel. "As deep as (the track) was today, he finished well." Added trainer Ron McAnally, "This was juts a maintenance work. I wasn't looking for a whole lot because he's fit enough already." Chris McCarron will be aboard Saturday.

HOLLYWOOD OPENER SHOWS GAINS The opening night of the Hollywood Park spring/summer meeting, which began Friday, showed gains in both handle and attendance. A total of 32,581 fans came through the turnstiles, up 0.5 percent from the '96 opener, and the overall handle of $8,332,225 was up 1.2 percent from a year ago. The 59th spring/summer season at "The Track of Lakes and Flowers" offers 33 stakes, 28 of them graded, for stakes purses of more than $6.5 million. The highlight of the meeting is the GI $1,000,000 Hollywood Gold Cup, second leg of the $4.8 million MGM Grand Classic Crown, set for June 29. The mile-and-a-quarter test will be run as a weight-for-age event for the first time in its history. Racing Wednesdays through Sundays, Hollywood will be open for a 66-day stand through July 21.

Saturday, Hollywood Park

Looking for her second straight stakes win and her sixth victory from her last eight starts, the consistent Toga Toga Toga was made the 8-5 favorite by the Hollywood crowd and lived up to the backing. Reserved off the rapid early fractions set by 25-1 FINITE E.F. (Wolf Power {SAf}), the chestnut moved to challenge at the top of the stretch and finished fastest of all to win going away. "She is something else--so nice to ride, so professional," said winning jockey Gary Stevens. "She makes the job easy." Added her trainer, Eduardo Inda, "She's doing so good right now. Every time I worked her, I felt more and more confident. The track looked like it was favoring speed a lot today, but our filly is running too good." The 9-5 second choice CAT'S CRADLE (Flying Paster), with the pace early, was eased in the stretch. "She took a bad step around the turn," said her rider, Alex Solis. "After that, I had to pull her up because she felt a little funny. She just took a bad step. I think she's going to be all right." "She pulled up fine," said her trainer, David Hofmans. "After he stopped her, she looked pretty good. I don't know what the problem is, but we'll go back to the barn and look her over."

Runner-up in the Fifth Season Breeders' Cup at Oaklawn in his return April 12, the seasoned runner was the second choice making the jump to graded company; he closed from third to take a clear lead at the top of the lane, then held on gamely to outfinish Natural Selection and earn his first-ever graded triumph. The slight favorite COME ON FLIP (Commemorate), winner of the GII Hawthorne Gold Cup last year and most recently second in the GII Razorback H. at Oaklawn, showed little and finished sixth.

Also Ran: Partner's Hero, Our Irish Beau, Quiet Minstrel, Latin Dancer, Dr. Spine.

Richter Scale won his debut by eight lengths Aug. 28 at Ellis Park and then ran eighth in the Sept. 15 GI Futurity S. at Belmont. He came off of a six-month layoff to win his 1997 debut in the Surfside S. at Hialeah in his previous start. The fourth choice tracked the early pace on the inside before moving up on the far turn to take the lead three-wide at the top of the stretch and draw away easily. "He pretty much ran away from those horses turning for home," winning jockey Shane Sellers said. "To be honest, it was a surprise to me. I knew he could run; he's got a ton of ability. He was coming off of a three-quarter mile race, off of a layoff, and got tired with me that day at Hialeah. This is just a good horse. Horses don't just come off of a three-quarter mile race and win like he did. He could be any kind of horse." "I think we'll take a step up," winning owner Richard Kaster said. "We might go for a little longer distance, but not the Preakness." Favored Trafalger, winner of the Apr. 9 GIII Lafayette S. at Keeneland, stalked the pace and moved up behind the winner but settled for second.

The 10-1 longshot tracked the early pace before swinging out four-wide entering the stretch and going on to win by a head. Lifetime Record: 11-4-1-0, $61,661.

Local News: Thistledown

The Ohio State Racing Commission passed a resolution Friday which will allow Thistledown to offer wagering on this year's Kentucky Derby May 3. The Kentucky Racing Commission has blocked all Kentucky simulcasting to River Downs and Lebanon Race Course, also legally blocking the other Ohio tracks from accepting any signal from Kentucky since the advent of full-card simulcasting in Ohio last September. Friday's resolution, however, gives Thistledown the opportunity to offer the Kentucky Derby as part of another track's card, one which establishes a separate Derby pool.

Sea Emperor ran fourth in the Apr. 6 Hialeah Sprint Championship in his previous start. HALO'S IMAGE (Halo), the 3-5 favorite, tracked the early leaders but tired badly to finish fourth.

The last three races at Hialeah were canceled Saturday after heavy rains hit the track and the jockeys refused to ride out the card over the sloppy surface. Racing is expected to resume this afternoon.

Kentucky Kaper broke her maiden by two lengths Mar. 28 at Santa Anita in her grass debut last time out. The longshot winner raced off the pace before moving up around the final turn to take the lead three-wide in the stretch and then held off the late bid of Ascutney to remain undefeated on the turf. The runner-up rallied from the back of the pack and was bumped by the winner near the wire.

LOOSE ARROW (f, 3, Lyphard--Just Anything {GSW, $210,534}, by Laomedonte) ran fourth in a Mar. 5 Santa Anita maiden race in her previous start. The 5-2 favorite settled off the pace before rallying to grab the lead late over runner-up and 5-2 second choice GAME OF INCHES (Seattle Dancer) to win by a half-length. Margins: HD, HF, 6. Odds: 2.20, 46.30, 1.90.

Pinfloron (Fr), on the board in two of three on the year after racing exclusively in Grade II stakes, dropped down to the allowance ranks to find the winner's circle. Content to sit well off the pace early, the crowd's second choice launched a bid on the far turn that carried him to the lead midstretch; he had just enough left to turn back the challenge of rank outsider Sharpest Image (Ire) for a narrow victory. The place horse was making his second U.S. start, and his first since finishing seventh in his American debut, the GII Del Mar Invitational Derby in September, 1995.

5th-HOL, $43,000, Alw, 3yo, 1 1/16m, 1:43 2/5, ft.

Robert Sangster's Voyagers Quest has the French Derby (Prix du Jockey Club) at Chantilly on June 1 as his main target. He may take in the G1 Prix Lupin at Longchamp on May 11 first. Always close to early leader Benny The Dip, the winner took the lead inside the final quarter mile and battled his way to the line, with Silver Patriarch finishing well for third. Benny The Dip, having his first start of the season, ran well and "delighted" his trainer John Gosden, who may now send him for the G2 Dante S. at York on May 14. His jockey Frankie Dettori said: "After what he showed today, I think he will now get a mile and a half in the Derby." Trainer John Dunlop will run Silver Patriarch in the G3 Lingfield Derby Trial on May 10.

Margins: 2 1/2, HD, short HD.

Also ran: Tamure (Ire), Bequeath (GB), Needle Gun (Ire), Restructure (Ire).

Completing four wins in a row and on his first start this season, Sasuru (GB) could not have been more impressive in winning this. Relishing the rain-softened ground, he came through smoothly from the rear of the field inside the final quarter mile to take the lead at will and go clear of his field, with Multicoloured (Ire) just holding second on the line from recent G3 Earl Of Sef-ton S. winner Ali-Royal (Ire); TAMURE (IRE) (Sadler's Wells), off the track for so long, ran on well to be a close fourth. Sasuru now heads to Rome for the G1 Premio Presidente della Repubblica over a mile and a quarter on May 11.

The Godolphin team, which includes the strongly fancied Shamikh (GB) (Unfuwain) for the 2000 Guineas and the filly Moonlight Paradise (Irish River {Fr}) for the 1000 Guineas, ship from Dubai to Britain today. Shamikh, at present the 5-1 second favourite for the 2000 Guineas, is reported by the Godolphin team to have been working brilliantly in Dubai and is in "tip-top shape" for his Guineas challenge.

Bookmakers have the Michael Tabor-owned Entrepreneur (GB) (Sadler's Wells) as the 4-1 favourite for the 2000 Guineas at Newmarket on May 4 and it is now expected that former Irish champion jockey Michael Kinane will be free to take the ride on the Michael Stoute-trained colt, who has not raced yet this season. He worked in total secrecy Saturday at Sandown, with even the racetrack executives unaware that the colt was working on their track.
